Defendant.

STATEMENT OF OFFENSE

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11, the United States of America, by and through its attorney, the United States Attorney for the District of Columbia, and the defendant, Anthony Richard Moat, with the concurrence of his attorney, agree and stipulate to the below factual basis for the defendant's guilty plea—that is, if this case were to proceed to trial, the parties stipulate that the United States could prove the below facts beyond a reasonable doubt:

The Attack at the U.S. Capitol on January 6, 2021

- 1. The U.S. Capitol, which is located at First Street, SE, in Washington, D.C., is secured 24 hours a day by U.S. Capitol Police. Restrictions around the U.S. Capitol include permanent and temporary security barriers and posts manned by U.S. Capitol Police. Only authorized people with appropriate identification are allowed access inside the U.S. Capitol.
- 2. On January 6, 2021, the exterior plaza of the U.S. Capitol was closed to members of the public.
- 3. On January 6, 2021, a joint session of the United States Congress convened at the United States Capitol. During the joint session, elected members of the United States House of Representatives and the United States Senate were meeting in separate chambers of the United States Capitol to certify the vote count of the Electoral College of the 2020 Presidential Election, which had taken place on November 3, 2020. The joint session began at approximately 1:00 p.m. Shortly thereafter, by approximately 1:30 p.m., the House and Senate adjourned to separate chambers to resolve a particular objection. Vice President Mike Pence was present and presiding, first in the joint session, and then in the Senate chamber.

- 4. As the proceedings continued in both the House and the Senate, and with Vice President Pence present and presiding over the Senate, a large crowd gathered outside the U.S. Capitol. As noted above, temporary and permanent barricades were in place around the exterior of the U.S. Capitol building, and U.S. Capitol Police were present and attempting to keep the crowd away from the Capitol building and the proceedings underway inside.
- 5. At approximately 2:00 p.m., certain individuals in the crowd forced their way through, up, and over the barricades, and officers of the U.S. Capitol Police, and the crowd advanced to the exterior façade of the building. The crowd was not lawfully authorized to enter or remain in the building and, prior to entering the building, no members of the crowd submitted to security screenings or weapons checks by U.S. Capitol Police Officers or other authorized security officials.
- 6. At such time, the certification proceedings were still underway and the exterior doors and windows of the U.S. Capitol were locked or otherwise secured. Members of the U.S. Capitol Police attempted to maintain order and keep the crowd from entering the Capitol; however, shortly after 2:00 p.m., individuals in the crowd forced entry into the U.S. Capitol, including by breaking windows and by assaulting members of law enforcement, as others in the crowd encouraged and assisted those acts. The riot resulted in substantial damage to the U.S. Capitol, requiring the expenditure of more than $2.7 million dollars for repairs.

7. Shortly thereafter, at approximately 2:20 p.m., members of the United States
House of Representatives and United States Senate, including the President of the Senate, Vice President Pence, were instructed to—and did—evacuate the chambers. Accordingly, all proceedings of the United States Congress, including the joint session, were effectively suspended until shortly after 8:00 p.m. the same day. In light of the dangerous circumstances caused by the unlawful entry to the U.S. Capitol, including the danger posed by individuals who had entered the U.S. Capitol without any security screening or weapons check, Congressional proceedings could not resume until after every unauthorized occupant had left the U.S. Capitol, and the building had been confirmed secured. The proceedings resumed at approximately 8:00 p.m. after the building had been secured. Vice President Pence remained in the United States Capitol from the time he was evacuated from the Senate Chamber until the session resumed.

Moat's Participation in the January 6, 2021, Capitol Riot

- 8. On January 6, 2021, the defendant, Anthony Richard Moat, attended the Stop the Steal rally in Washington, DC, and thereafter joined a crowd that entered the U.S. Capitol. The defendant entered the Capitol at approximately 3:21pm through the Senate Wing Door that had been broken open. Others in the crowd near the defendant entered the Capitol through nearby shattered windows. The defendant knew law enforcements officers had attempted to keep persons from the Capitol by setting up barriers and using tear gas and that others in the crowd had used force against officers. During his entry into the U.S. Capitol, the defendant saw overturned furniture and broken glass.
- 9. The defendant entered the U.S. Capitol with a crowd, many of which waved flags and chanted, "Stop the Steal" or related messages regarding the 2020 presidential election. In texts prior to January 6th, the defendant expressed hope that the Vice President would reject the electoral college votes stating, "January 6th is the day." On January 6, the defendant texted, "[w]e stormed the capitol" and he forwarded footage that he took inside the Capitol. The defendant exited the Senate Wing Door at approximately 3:23pm and later gave instructions on accessing the U.S. Capitol by "[going] around the left side of the building (if facing it) you can walk up easy."

10. The defendant knowing and voluntarily admits to all the elements of Parading, Demonstrating or Picking in a Capitol Building, a violation of Title 40, United States Code, Section 5104(e)(2)(G). Specifically, defendant admits that he was inside the U.S. Capitol Building knowing that he did not have permission to be inside. Defendant further admits that while inside the Capitol, he willfully and knowingly paraded or demonstrated.

Sincerely yours,

Matthew M. Graves
