03/01/2022

MINUTE ORDER: Having considered the arguments in the parties' filings, the Court hereby DENIES defendant's [41] Motion for Modification of Conditions of Release. An adjustment of defendant's release conditions would be warranted "if there ha[d] been a development. that would affect the Court's assessment of the 'least restrictive' conditions of release that 'will reasonably assure. the safety of any other person and the community.'" See United States v. Henry, 314 F. Supp. 3d 130, 133 (D.D.C. 2018) (citing 18 U.S.C. ♦ 3142(c)). The Court does not find anything to indicate that modification is warranted here. Defendant specifically challenges the requirement that he wear a GPS ankle bracelet. In the time since defendant was released on certain conditions, there have been developments, as the government points out, that further justify the need for the conditions imposed. These developments include evidence proffered by the government that defendant assaulted law enforcement officers with a wooden object, resulting in superseding indictments that added felony offenses; and evidence indicating that, on January 6, 2021, defendant threatened that he and other rioters "are going to come back even more, and we're not going to come back peacefully, and we're not going to come back unarmed." See Gov't Opp'n at 6. Given these developments and the nature of the charges, the Court finds that the conditions of release imposed on defendant remain warranted to assure the safety of the community. Although the Court appreciates defendant's compliance with his conditions of release, and encourages his continued compliance, that "is not enough to warrant adjustment of [his] pretrial release conditions." See Henry, 314 F. Supp. 3d at 133. Defendant also alludes to occasional malfunctions of the GPS ankle monitor. Defendant should raise any such issues with his pre-trial services officer. So Ordered by Judge Christopher R. Cooper on 3/1/2022. (lccrc3) (Text entry; no document attached.)

03/01/2022

MINUTE ORDER: The Court hereby GRANTS the [47] Consent Motion to Temporarily Remove Defendant's GPS Monitoring Device. In light of Mr. Alberts's MRI procedure that will occur on March 8, 2022, the United States Probation Office shall temporarily remove Defendant's GPS Monitoring Device on March 8, 2022, at 8:00 a.m. The GPS Monitoring Device shall be put back in place, if possible, immediately following the procedure but by no later than 4:00 p.m. on March 9, 2022. All other conditions of release remain in full force and effect. Signed by Judge Christopher R. Cooper on 3/1/2022. (lccrc3) (Text entry; no document attached.)

03/10/2022

MINUTE ORDER: The [48] Motion to Vacate is hereby denied without prejudice. However, the Court appreciates the update as to Mr. Ferguson's medical condition. The parties shall come prepared to provide a further update on counsel's condition and to discuss how this case might proceed at the March 30 status conference. Signed by Judge Christopher R. Cooper on 3/10/2022. (lccrc3) (Text entry; no document attached.)
