Re: United States v. Grayson Sherrill, et. al
Case No. 21-cr-282-TSC

Dear Counsel:

I write to respond to your April 27, 2021 letter requesting a Bill of Particulars as to Counts One, Two, and Three in the Information. The Information in this case contains a plain, concise, and definite statement of the essential facts constituting each charged offense and complies with Rule 7 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The complaint and statement of facts provide still further information about the charges brought against your client. To the extent you seek additional discovery regarding the defendant's conduct, the government anticipates providing additional documents and materials in future discovery production(s). Given these facts, a Bill of Particulars is unwarranted.

If you have any questions about the status of discovery, or questions about the materials provided, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

 /s/
Rachel A. Fletcher
Assistant United States Attorney
