

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

JAMES LESLIE LITTLE,

Defendant.

Case No. 21-cr-315 (RCL)

ORDER

Defendant James Little's motion to continue the sentencing hearing [32] is hereby GRANTED. It is ORDERED that the sentencing hearing be reset for March 14, 2022 at 10:00am. The sentencing hearing will proceed via VTC.

The government's sentencing memorandum [31] argued that this Court had the authority to impose a "split sentence," a period of incarceration that is followed by a period of probation. Defendant is hereby ORDERED to respond to the issue of whether a sentencing court has the authority to impose a split sentence by March 1, 2022. It is further ORDERED that any government reply be filed by March 8, 2022.

It is SO ORDERED.

Date: February 7, 2022

Hon. Royce C. Lamberth
United States District Judge

Full Text

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA UNITED STATES OF AMERICA v. Case No. 21-cr-315 (RCL) JAMES LESLIE LITTLE, Defendant. ORDER Defendant James Little's motion to continue the sentencing hearing [32] is hereby GRANTED. It is ORDERED that the sentencing hearing be reset for March 14, 2022 at 10:00am. The sentencing hearing will proceed via YTC. The government's sentencing memorandum [31] argued that this Court had the authority to impose a "split sentence," a period of incarceration that is followed by a period of probation. Defendant is hereby ORDERED to respond to the issue of whether a sentencing court has the authority to impose a split sentence by March 1, 2022. It is further ORDERED that any government reply be filed by March 8, 2022. It is SO ORDERED. Date: February 1, 2022 Hon.oyce C. Lamberth United States District Judge