SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of:

THIRTY-SIX (36) MONTHS.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance, including marijuana.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court. (A controlled substance includes marijuana.)
 - The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: JAMES PHILLIP MAULT
CASE NUMBER: 21CR657-02 (BAH)

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

CASE NUMBER: 21CR657-02 (BAH)

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Financial Information Disclosure - The defendant must provide the probation officer access to any requested financial information and authorize the release of any financial information. The Probation Office may share financial information with the United States Attorney's Office.

Financial Payment Schedule - Having assessed the defendant's ability to pay, payment of the total criminal monetary penalties is due as follows: Payment in equal monthly installments of $100.00, to commence 30 days after the defendant is released from prison. The Court had determined that the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest and therefore waives any interest or penalties that may accrue on the balance.

The financial obligations are immediately payable to the Clerk of the Court for the U.S. District Court, 333 Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20001. Within 30 days of any change of address, the defendant shall notify the Clerk of the Court of the change until such time as the financial obligation is paid in full.

The Probation Office shall release the presentence investigation report to all appropriate agencies, which includes the United States Probation Office in the approved district of residence, in order to execute the sentence of the Court.

STATEMENT OF REASONS
(Not for Public Disclosure)

Sections I, II, III, IV, and VII of the Statement of Reasons form must be completed in all felony and Class A misdemeanor cases.

I. COURT FINDINGS ON PRESENTENCE INVESTIGATION REPORT

- A. The court adopts the presentence investigation report without change.
- B. The court adopts the presentence investigation report with the following changes. (Use Section VIII if necessary)
(Check all that apply and specify court determination, findings, or comments, referencing paragraph numbers in the presentence report.)
 - 1. Chapter Two of the United States Sentencing Commission Guidelines Manual determinations by court: (briefly summarize the changes, including changes to base offense level, or specific offense characteristics)
 - 2. Chapter Three of the United States Sentencing Commission Guidelines Manual determinations by court: (briefly summarize the changes, including changes to victim-related adjustments, role in the offense, obstruction of justice, multiple counts, or acceptance of responsibility)
 - 3. Chapter Four of the United States Sentencing Commission Guidelines Manual determinations by court: (briefly summarize the changes, including changes to criminal history category or scores, career offender status, or criminal livelihood determinations)
 - 4. Additional Comments or Findings: (include comments or factual findings concerning any information in the presentence report, including information that the Federal Bureau of Prisons may rely on when it makes inmate classification, designation, or programming decisions; any other rulings on disputed portions of the presentence investigation report; identification of those portions of the report in dispute but for which a court determination is unnecessary because the matter will not affect sentencing or the court will not consider it)
- C. The record establishes no need for a presentence investigation report pursuant to Fed.R.Crim.P. 32.
Applicable Sentencing Guideline: (if more than one guideline applies, list the guideline producing the highest offense level) _____

II. COURT FINDING ON MANDATORY MINIMUM SENTENCE (Check all that apply)

- A. One or more counts of conviction carry a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment and the sentence imposed is at or above the applicable mandatory minimum term.
- B. One or more counts of conviction carry a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment, but the sentence imposed is below a mandatory minimum term because the court has determined that the mandatory minimum term does not apply based on:
 - findings of fact in this case: (Specify)
 - substantial assistance (18 U.S.C. § 3553(e))
 - the statutory safety valve (18 U.S.C. § 3553(f))
- C. No count of conviction carries a mandatory minimum sentence.

DISTRICT: District of Columbia

STATEMENT OF REASONS

VII. COURT DETERMINATIONS OF RESTITUTION

A. Restitution Not Applicable.

B. Total Amount of Restitution: $ 2,000.00

C. Restitution not ordered: (Check only one)

- 1. For offenses for which restitution is otherwise mandatory under 18 U.S.C. § 3663A, restitution is not ordered because the number of identifiable victims is so large as to make restitution impracticable under 18 U.S.C. § 3663A(c)(3)(A).
- 2. For offenses for which restitution is otherwise mandatory under 18 U.S.C. § 3663A, restitution is not ordered because determining complex issues of fact and relating them to the cause or amount of the victims' losses would complicate or prolong the sentencing process to a degree that the need to provide restitution to any victim would be outweighed by the burden on the sentencing process under 18 U.S.C. § 3663A(c)(3)(B).
- 3. For other offenses for which restitution is authorized under 18 U.S.C. § 3663 and/or required by the sentencing guidelines, restitution is not ordered because the complication and prolongation of the sentencing process resulting from the fashioning of a restitution order outweigh the need to provide restitution to any victims under 18 U.S.C. § 3663(a)(1)(B)(ii).
- 4. For offenses for which restitution is otherwise mandatory under 18 U.S.C. §§ 1593, 2248, 2259, 2264, 2327 or 3663A, restitution is not ordered because the victim(s)'(s) losses were not ascertainable (18 U.S.C. § 3664(d)(5)).
- 5. For offenses for which restitution is otherwise mandatory under 18 U.S.C. §§ 1593, 2248, 2259, 2264, 2327 or 3663A, restitution is not ordered because the victim(s) elected to not participate in any phase of determining the restitution order (18 U.S.C. § 3664(g)(1)).
- 6. Restitution is not ordered for other reasons. (Explain)

D. Partial restitution is ordered for these reasons (18 U.S.C. § 3553(c)):

U.S. v. JAMES PHILLIP MAULT, 21-cr-657 (BAH)
ADDENDUM TO STATEMENT OF REASONS – July 15, 2022, 2022

VIII. ADDITIONAL FACTS JUSTIFYING SENTENCE IN THIS CASE

Defendant JAMES PHILLIP MAULT was sentenced to a term of 44 months' incarceration, to be followed by 36 months of supervised release, and $2,000 in restitution, on his plea of guilty to a charge of Assaulting, Resisting, or Impeding Certain Officers or Employees, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 111(a)(1), a lesser included offense in Count Five. This sentence was at the higher end of the applicable sentencing range of 37 to 46 months' imprisonment for the following reasons:

1. Before January 6, 2021, defendant, who is in Criminal History Category I, engaged in pre-planning for the events that day, including exchanging messages with his co-defendant CODY MATTICE regarding preparations for violent interactions. For example, on January 3, 2021, MAULT texted MATTICE to say he had purchased "pepper spray and a legal baton," an acquisition MATTICE deemed "fucking dope!!" MATTICE said he could contribute a "nice ass high powered firemans fire extinguisher" to the endeavour. On January 5, MAULT texted MATTICE (and others) that it would be wise to bring a baton, pepper spray, "asskicking boots," a helmet, and eye protection, with MATTICE noting that he was "layering up on clothes [he] ain't worried about losing."

2. On January 6, 2021, after attending the former president's rally, defendants MAULT and MATTICE did not enter the Capitol Building, but they were active participants at the front lines of the struggle against police officers at TWO distinct locations right outside the Capitol more than an hour apart, with the videos demonstrating their aggressive efforts to lead the mob to break the police lines, as described in the following —

- a) MATTICE recorded a video in which he announced "We're all getting ready to go march on Capitol Hill. We're gonna go fuck some shit up. It's about to be nuts. . . . Let's fucking do this. I can't wait"; reiterated his plan to "fuck shit up"; and commented later "We're getting up front, and we're taking this shit."
- b) by 2:28 PM, the co-defendants were at the front of the mob outside the Capitol on the West Plaza, and MATTICE filmed while MAULT taunted the line of police officers yelling that (i) "Most of you guys served. We fought for a free country. We fought for this. We didn't fight for the communists, man. You know that. You know that. We didn't fight for the fucking communists. Fuck that. This is our country."; (ii) "Your jobs will be here when you come back after we kick the shit out of everything."; (iii) "This shit's fucking right. What we're doing here is right, or there wouldn't be this many fucking people here. And you guys fucking know this shit."; (iv) "I obey the fucking law every goddamn fucking day. Every fucking day. Where the fuck's it get me? Everyone else who breaks the law and they get away with fucking everything."
- c) MATTICE then grabbed and tore down a segment of barrier and both defendants, with their distinctive grey and reddish helmets, pushed against the police line, with people all around yelling “push!” This effort resulted in MATTICE being hit with pepper spray, for which MAULT praised MATTICE, saying: “And you fucking took it like a man.” MATTICE texted sundry family and friends about how he and MAULT were leaders in breaking the police line, stating: (i) “We took capital hill bro”; (ii) “me and james were the first to shove through the police line to the doors.”; (iii) “me and james got everyone to push through the police, me and james fought through the police line on the door step.”; (iv) “No one would push so me and james did and everyone followed.”; (v) got “sprayed, beat with Billy clubs and punched” but they kept “plowing through em.”

- d) At around 4:00 PM, both co-defendants made their way to the entry of the Lower West Terrace tunnel, the site of some of the worst violence that day. Both “body-surfed” over members of the mob to get to the opening of the tunnel, with MATTICE going first and spraying a chemical agent deep into the tunnel towards the police line, until the canister empties and he falls back into the crowd. MAULT follows in short order, likewise discharging the contents of a canister into the tunnel. MAULT also keeps hanging on to the archway and is handed a pink canister from someone in the crowd that MAULT passes to someone else who proceeds to spray it at police.
- e) Later on January 6, 2021, at around 8:30 PM, MATTICE sent his mother a “selfie” and bragged about his participation: “It was probably the coolest thing I’ve ever seen and been a part of in my life. . . . It was like a movie...”
- f) On January 7, defendants exchanged texts about potential legal jeopardy and MATTICE stated: “Oh well I don’t really care we went there to stop the count and that’s what we did.”
