Civil/Criminal No.: 22CR38 (BAH)

JOLENE EICHER

NOTE FROM JURY

~~Does the second element of count one require that the defendant knowingly entered an area restricted because VP Pence was present or why the area was restricted?~~

Is it necessary that the defendant knew that she was entering an area where the VP was temporarily visiting? Or is it sufficient simply that the building ^{or} grounds were restricted?

vs.

Civil/Criminal No.: 22CR38 (BAH)

NOTE FROM JURY

For counts two through four, in the instructions, there are conflicting uses of 'and' and 'or'. For example, ^{in the} change "disorderly and disruptive conduct" vs. "disorderly or disruptive conduct" in the elements. Also, ^{in the} change "paraded, demonstrated, and picketed" vs. "paraded, demonstrated or picketed" in the elements. ~~the~~ Which should we use to determine guilt? Do we need to determine that she was both disorderly and disruptive or only one?
