STATEMENT OF FACTS

Your affiant, Jamie Vera, is a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation since September 2015, and is currently assigned to the Washington Field Office. In my duties as a special agent, I am responsible for conducting and assisting with securities fraud and investment fraud investigations, including related white collar and financial crimes. Currently, I am tasked with investigating criminal activity in and around the Capitol grounds on January 6, 2021. As a Special Agent, I am authorized by law or by a Government agency to engage in or supervise the prevention, detention, investigation, or prosecution of a violation of Federal criminal laws.

The U.S. Capitol is secured 24 hours a day by U.S. Capitol Police. Restrictions around the U.S. Capitol include permanent and temporary security barriers and posts manned by U.S. Capitol Police. Only authorized people with appropriate identification were allowed access inside the U.S. Capitol. On January 6, 2021, the exterior plaza of the U.S. Capitol was also closed to members of the public.

On January 6, 2021, a joint session of the United States Congress convened at the United States Capitol, which is located at First Street, SE, in Washington, D.C. During the joint session, elected members of the United States House of Representatives and the United States Senate were meeting in separate chambers of the United States Capitol to certify the vote count of the Electoral College of the 2020 Presidential Election, which had taken place on November 3, 2020. The joint session began at approximately 1:00 p.m. Shortly thereafter, by approximately 1:30 p.m., the House and Senate adjourned to separate chambers to resolve a particular objection. Vice President Michael R. Pence was present and presiding, first in the joint session, and then in the Senate chamber.

As the proceedings continued in both the House and the Senate, and with Vice President Pence present and presiding over the Senate, a large crowd gathered outside the U.S. Capitol. As noted above, temporary and permanent barricades were in place around the exterior of the U.S. Capitol building, and U.S. Capitol Police were present and attempting to keep the crowd away from the Capitol building and the proceedings underway inside.

At such time, the certification proceedings were still underway and the exterior doors and windows of the U.S. Capitol were locked or otherwise secured. Members of the U.S. Capitol Police attempted to maintain order and keep the crowd from entering the Capitol; however, shortly around 2:00 p.m., individuals in the crowd forced entry into the U.S. Capitol, including by breaking windows and by assaulting members of the U.S. Capitol Police, as others in the crowd encouraged and assisted those acts.

Shortly thereafter, at approximately 2:20 p.m., members of the United States House of Representatives and United States Senate, including the President of the Senate, Vice President Pence, were instructed to—and did—evacuate the chambers. Accordingly, the joint session of the United States Congress was effectively suspended until shortly after 8:00 p.m. Vice President Pence remained in the United States Capitol from the time he was evacuated from the Senate Chamber until the sessions resumed.

During national news coverage of the aforementioned events, video footage which appeared to be captured on mobile devices of persons present on the scene depicted evidence of violations of local and federal law, including scores of individuals inside the U.S. Capitol building without authority to be there.

Multiple witnesses have submitted or referenced a video from London-based news organization “ITV News” and identified JOSEPH BARNES as an individual seen in the United States Capitol on January 6, 2021. Your affiant has watched the relevant portion of the ITV News video witnesses used to identify BARNES.¹ At about three minutes and eighteen seconds into the video, the individual witnesses identified as BARNES is dressed in a dark-colored beanie hat, an American flag neck gaiter around his neck, and a dark-colored winter jacket with a light-colored fleeced neckline. BARNES appears in the center of the video and is standing in what is clearly the United States Capitol, surrounded by other rioters. When he appears in the video, BARNES says “This is our house! This is our country! This is our country!” While yelling, BARNES is gesturing forcefully, pointing downward as if to identify the Capitol and the country as the rioters’. In his left hand, BARNES is holding what appears to be a smartphone that is lit as if it is powered on and functioning.

Law enforcement has contacted a number of the witnesses who identified BARNES in the above-described video, and they have detailed how they personally know BARNES. One witness (Witness 1), for example, has interacted with BARNES at his Austin, Texas residence on multiple occasions. Witness 1 provided a number of photographs, circling the individual in the photograph and identifying him as BARNES. One of those photographs is depicted below in Figure One.

Figure One

Another witness (Witness 2) informed law enforcement that they went to school with BARNES and that they knew BARNES attended Anderson High School, which appears to be in Austin, Texas. Witness Two submitted a screenshot of a video he explained showed BARNES in the United States Capitol on January 6, 2021, and yelling, “This is our country.” The screenshot of the video Witness 2 provided is depicted below in Figure Two.

Figure Two

A third, anonymous witness (Witness 3) referenced the ITV News video and reported to law enforcement that the individual depicted in the video is BARNES. Witness 3 also informed law enforcement that BARNES works for a commercial real estate services company and provided the company’s webpage, which lists “Joseph Barnes” as a Vice President based out of Austin, Texas.² Witness 3 provided a screenshot of BARNES’s photograph as seen on the company’s webpage, provided below in Figure Three. The person on the company’s webpage identified as Joseph Barnes appears to be the same person seen in the ITV News video and the screenshots that Witness 1 and Witness 2 provided to the FBI, and is based from the same location the witnesses provided.

Figure Three

Finally, open source research has identified a social media account for “Joe Barnes Art” on Facebook, and a separate webpage found at www.joebarnesart.com. The company’s logo includes what appears to be a signature for “Joe Barnes” above the state of Texas with the words “Austin, Texas.” On the Joe Barnes Art Facebook page, there are at least two photographs that appear to show the same person witnesses have identified in Figures One, Two, and Three above—all based on the bald head, facial hair, face, and location in Austin, Texas. The first photograph shows BARNES standing in front of a piece of artwork holding what appears to be an assault-style rifle, pointing it at the camera, accompanied by a caption that reads “A society that puts equality before freedom will get neither.” The second photograph shows BARNES squatting beside a number of pieces of artwork. Those photographs are below in Figures Four and Five, respectively.

Your affiant believes the individual all witnesses have identified as BARNES is, in fact, JOSEPH CABLE BARNES of Austin, Texas. A records search of the Texas Department of Motor Vehicles has revealed a driver's license photograph that matches the photographs and video screenshots multiple witnesses have identified as BARNES.

Based on the foregoing, your affiant submits that there is probable cause to believe that JOSEPH CABLE BARNES violated 18 U.S.C. § 1752(a)(1) and (2), which makes it a crime to (1) knowingly enter or remain in any restricted building or grounds without lawful authority to do; and (2) knowingly, and with intent to impede or disrupt the orderly conduct of Government business or official functions, engage in disorderly or disruptive conduct in, or within such proximity to, any restricted building or grounds when, or so that, such conduct, in fact, impedes or disrupts the orderly conduct of Government business or official functions; or attempts or conspires to do so. For purposes of Section 1752 of Title 18, a "restricted building" includes a posted, cordoned off, or otherwise restricted area of a building or grounds where the President or other person protected by the Secret Service, including the Vice President, is or will be temporarily visiting; or any building or grounds so restricted in conjunction with an event designated as a special event of national significance.

Your affiant submits there is also probable cause to believe that JOSEPH CABLE BARNES violated 40 U.S.C. § 5104(e)(2)(D) utter loud, threatening, or abusive language, or engage in disorderly or disruptive conduct, at any place in the Grounds or in any of the Capitol Buildings with the intent to impede, disrupt, or disturb the orderly conduct of a session of Congress or either House of Congress, or the orderly conduct in that building of a hearing before, or any deliberations of, a committee of Congress or either House of Congress; and (G) parade, demonstrate, or picket in any of the Capitol Buildings.

Finally, your affiant submits there is probable cause to believe that JOSEPH CABLE BARNES violated 18 U.S.C. § 1512(c)(2), which makes it a crime to obstruct, influence, or impede any official proceeding, or attempt to do so. Under 18 U.S.C. § 1515, congressional proceedings are official proceedings.

TO THE DEFENDANT:

YOU ARE ADVISED OF THE FOLLOWING PENALTIES AND SANCTIONS:

Violating any of the foregoing conditions of release may result in the immediate issuance of a warrant for your arrest, a revocation of your release, an order of detention, a forfeiture of any bond, and a prosecution for contempt of court and could result in imprisonment, a fine, or both.

While on release, if you commit a federal felony offense the punishment is an additional prison term of not more than ten years and for a federal misdemeanor offense the punishment is an additional prison term of not more than one year. This sentence will be consecutive (i.e., in addition to) to any other sentence you receive.

It is a crime punishable by up to ten years in prison, and a $250,000 fine, or both, to: obstruct a criminal investigation; tamper with a witness, victim, or informant; retaliate or attempt to retaliate against a witness, victim, or informant; or intimidate or attempt to intimidate a witness, victim, juror, informant, or officer of the court. The penalties for tampering, retaliation, or intimidation are significantly more serious if they involve a killing or attempted killing.

If, after release, you knowingly fail to appear as the conditions of release require, or to surrender to serve a sentence, you may be prosecuted for failing to appear or surrender and additional punishment may be imposed. If you are convicted of:

- (1) an offense punishable by death, life imprisonment, or imprisonment for a term of fifteen years or more – you will be fined not more than $250,000 or imprisoned for not more than 10 years, or both;
- (2) an offense punishable by imprisonment for a term of five years or more, but less than fifteen years – you will be fined not more than $250,000 or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both;
- (3) any other felony – you will be fined not more than $250,000 or imprisoned not more than two years, or both;
- (4) a misdemeanor – you will be fined not more than $100,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

A term of imprisonment imposed for failure to appear or surrender will be consecutive to any other sentence you receive. In addition, a failure to appear or surrender may result in the forfeiture of any bond posted.

Acknowledgment of the Defendant

I acknowledge that I am the defendant in this case and that I am aware of the conditions of release. I promise to obey all conditions of release, to appear as directed, and surrender to serve any sentence imposed. I am aware of the penalties and sanctions set forth above.
