GOVERNMENT'S EXHIBIT LIST

At this time, the United States has identified the following exhibits it intends to use at trial. This exhibit list was compiled in a good-faith effort to identify all trial evidence that is known or identified at this time. The government reserves the right to supplement this list or to remove items from the list, as it develops additional evidence throughout trial preparations and to streamline the presentation of its case. The government also reserves the right to introduce any evidence produced to the defense in discovery.

Respectfully submitted,

MATTHEW M. GRAVES
United States Attorney
