Re: United States v. Joseph Fischer
Case No. 21-cr-234 CJN

Dear Counsel:

I write to respond to your April 27 letter requesting a Bill of Particulars as to six of the seven charges in the in the Indictment. The Indictment in this case contains a plain, concise, and definite statement of the essential facts constituting each charged offense and complies with Rule 7 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The complaint, preliminary/detention hearing, and previously produced discovery also provide information about the charges brought against your client. To the extent you seek more discovery regarding the defendant's conduct, discovery is ongoing, and the government anticipates providing additional materials in this case. Given these facts, a Bill of Particulars is unwarranted.

If you have any questions about the status of discovery, or questions about the materials previously provided, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

/s/ Alexis Loeb
