

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

JOSHUA HAYNES,

Defendant.

Criminal Action No. 21-cr-0594 (TSC)

ORDER

Defendant Joshua Haynes has been indicted on eight counts of criminal conduct arising out of the January 6 riots at the United States Capitol.¹ ECF No. 21. Haynes was arrested on July 1, 2021 and was initially released into the High Intensity Supervision Program. ECF No. 8. After he was arrested in Virginia on domestic violence charges, his bond was revoked. See Emergency Mot. to Revoke Bond, ECF No. 15; August 13, 2021 Min. Order. He is now being held in the Central Virginia Regional Jail. See Mot. for Change of Location of Defendant's Place of Pretrial Confinement ("Def.'s Mot.") ¶ 3, ECF No. 23.

Haynes has now moved for a change of his pre-trial detention facility. In the motion, his counsel states that he "has not been able to have a face-to-face meeting" with Haynes due to the jail's quarantine policies, preventing him from sharing discovery and legal pleadings via laptop computer. Id. ¶ 4, 6.

Haynes thus seeks an order transferring the location of his pretrial detention from the Central Virginia Regional Jail to the District of Columbia's Central Treatment Facility. The Government takes no position this request.

Upon consideration of the foregoing, the court hereby,

STRONGLY RECOMMENDS that Defendant Joshua Haynes be transferred to the District of Columbia's Central Treatment Facility, or in the alternative, a site of incarceration proximate to Washington, D.C. where Defense Counsel may meet face-to-face with Haynes; and STRONGLY RECOMMENDS that the United States Marshals Service take whatever steps are required to promptly effect this transfer.
