UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

V.

CRIMINAL NO. 1:21-CR-222

GEORGE PIERRE TANIOS,

Defendants.

DEFENDANT’S MOTION FOR REVIEW OF THE DETENTION ORDER

I. INTRODUCTION

The Defendant, George Pierre Tanios, by his counsel, Elizabeth B. Gross, Esq., Assistant Federal Defender, and L. Richard Walker, Esq., First Assistant Federal Defender, respectfully files this motion requesting review of the Detention Order issued on March 23, 2021, in the Northern District of West Virginia. Document 28, Case 1:21-MJ-00027-MJA (NDWV). This is a serious, high-profile case since it allegedly occurred during a violent breach of the United States Capitol on January 6, 2021. Like many other cases arising out of that incident, which is now known worldwide, this case is politically charged and controversial. Yet, unquestionably, Mr. Tanios is presumed innocent and there is a presumption in favor of his release under the Bail Reform Act. See United States v. Salerno, 481 U.S. 739, 755 (1987) (“[i]n our society liberty is the norm, and detention prior to trial or without trial is the carefully limited exception”). Of course, this presumption of innocence must be honored, and, in such an unusual case, it is critical for this Court to examine the question of detention in a manner that is both dispassionate and apolitical.

To begin, Mr. Tanios emphatically denies each charge and is eager for a jury trial. Mr. Tanios denies conspiring to injure officers. Mr. Tanios denies aiding and abetting his co-defendant, Julian Khater, in any crimes. Mr. Tanios denies assaulting any officer with a dangerous weapon. Mr. Tanios denies any physical violence on restricted grounds, with or without carrying a dangerous weapon, and he denies causing bodily injury. Mr. Tanios asserts his innocence at this time and, given his non-violent background and minimal criminal history, respectfully submits he does not pose a danger to the community or any other person.

Mr. Tanios is an excellent candidate for pretrial release. Mr. Tanios is a unique defendant, having abundant ties to the community, a history of employment, economic stability, a supportive family, and no prior felony convictions. Accordingly, Mr. Tanios respectfully requests that this Court overrule the Detention Order imposed by a United States Magistrate Judge in the Northern District of West Virginia and release Mr. Tanios to his home in Morgantown, West Virginia, under any combination of standard and additional special conditions of bond.

II. BACKGROUND

Mr. Tanios, age 39, lives in Morgantown, West Virginia. For fifteen years, he has owned and operated multiple restaurants and convenience stores. Most recently, Mr. Tanios operated Sandwich U, which is a well-known restaurant, on a busy street near the campus of West Virginia University. He works approximately 80 hours a week. Mr. Tanios has deep ties to Morgantown, the WVU community and local small business community, making a living as an owner and operator in the service industry since he moved to West Virginia, in 2006.

Mr. Tanios learned the restaurant business from his parents, both legal immigrants, who similarly ran a restaurant in his hometown of New Brunswick, New Jersey. Mr. Tanios lives in Morgantown in a modest townhome with his fiancé and their three children, ages 4, 8 months, and 8 months. Mr. Tanios graduated high school in 2000, from Saint Peter's Preparatory School, in Jersey City, New Jersey. He attended Middlesex County College, in Edison, New Jersey, where he was enrolled from 2000 to 2001 and participated in general studies courses. Mr. Tanios has never been convicted of a felony offense. Mr. Tanios has never been previously accused of acts of violence and he has never had a reputation for violence.

The Government filed a criminal complaint on March 6, 2021. See Document 1, Case 1:21-MJ-00286-ZMF. The complaint alleges that Mr. Tanios attended President Trump's political rally in Washington, D.C., on January 6, 2021, while a joint session of the United States Congress convened at the United States Capitol, First Street, SE, in Washington, D.C. During the joint session, members of the United States House of Representatives and the United States Senate were meeting in separate chambers of the United States Capitol to certify the vote count of the Electoral College of the 2020 Presidential Election, which had taken place on November 3, 2020. The joint session began at approximately 1:00 p.m. Shortly thereafter, by approximately 1:30 p.m., the House and Senate adjourned to separate chambers to resolve a particular objection. Vice President Mike Pence was present and presiding, first in the joint session, and then in the Senate chamber.

As the proceedings continued in both the House and the Senate, and with Vice President Mike Pence present and presiding over the Senate, a large crowd gathered outside the U.S. Capitol. Temporary and permanent barricades were in place around the exterior of the U.S. Capitol building, and U.S. Capitol Police were present and attempting to keep crowds away from the Capitol building and the proceedings underway inside.

At such time, the certification proceedings were still underway and the exterior doors and windows of the U.S. Capitol were locked or otherwise secured. Members of the U.S. Capitol Police attempted to maintain order and keep crowds from entering the Capitol; however, as this Court well knows, shortly around 2:00 p.m., individuals in the crowd forced entry into the U.S. Capitol, including by breaking windows and by assaulting members of the U.S. Capitol Police.

The complaint alleges that shortly thereafter, at approximately 2:20 p.m., members of the United States House of Representatives and United States Senate, including the President of the Senate, Vice President Mike Pence, were instructed to—and did—evacuate the chambers. Accordingly, the joint session of the United States Congress was effectively suspended until shortly after 8:00 p.m.

Mr. Tanios is not accused of destroying a barricade. Mr. Tanios is not accused of entering the U.S. Capitol. Mr. Tanios is not accused of breaking or vandalizing anything inside the U.S. Capitol building. Instead, the Government accused Mr. Tanios of offenses taking place outside while in the large crowd with a co-defendant, Julian Khater. Namely, the criminal complaint includes violations of 18 U.S.C. §§ 111(a) and (b) - Assault on Federal Officer with Dangerous Weapon; 18 U.S.C. § 372 - Conspiracy to Injure an Officer; 18 U.S.C. § 231(a)(3) - Civil Disorder; 18 U.S.C. § 1512(c)(2) - Obstructing or Impeding Any Official Proceeding; 18 U.S.C. § 1752(a)(1), (2), (4), (b)(1)(A) and (b)(1)(B) - Physical violence on restricted grounds, while carrying dangerous weapon, and resulting in significant bodily injury; 40 U.S.C. § 5104(e)(2)(f) - Violent entry and disorderly conduct, act of physical violence on Capitol Grounds; and 18 U.S.C. § 2 - Aiding and Abetting.

On March 15, 2021, federal agents arrested Mr. Tanios at his home in Morgantown and he appeared in the Northern District of West Virginia for an initial hearing. The government filed a motion for detention and, on March 18, 2021, it filed an amended motion for detention. Documents 2 & 17, Case 1:21-MJ-00027-MJA (NDWV). The grounds for detention set forth in the detention motion are the most simple and well worn: “there are no conditions of confinement which will reasonably assure [the] Defendant's appearance as required [and] the [s]afety of any other person or the community." Id. at 2.

On March 17, 2021, a Grand Jury in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia returned an Indictment. Count One charges conspiracy to injure police officers, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 372. Count Two, Count Three, and Count Four charge assaulting, resisting or impeding officers in violation of U.S.C. §§ 111(a)(1) and (b) and 2. Count Five charges Civil Disorder, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 231(a)(3). Count Six charges obstructing or impeding any official proceeding, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1512(c)(2). Count Seven charges entering and remaining in a restricted building or grounds with a deadly or dangerous weapon and causing significant bodily injury in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 1752(a)(1), (b)(1)(A) and (b)(1)(B). Count Eight charges disorderly and disruptive conduct, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 1752(a)(2), (b)(1)(A) and (b)(1)(B). Count Nine charges engaging in physical violence in a restricted building or grounds with a deadly or dangerous weapon and causing significant bodily injury, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 1752(a)(4), (b)(1)(A) and (b)(1)(B). Count Ten charges an act of physical violence in the Capitol Grounds or Buildings, in violation of 40 U.S.C. §§ 5104(e)(2)(F).

On March 19, 2021, Mr. Tanios filed a response to the motion for detention. Document 22, Case 1:21-MJ-00027-MJA (NDWV). Mr. Tanios asserted that he is not guilty of all charges and he is eager to appear in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia, to respond to the charges against him. He requested release from custody on standard conditions of bond, given that he has no history of violence, no prior felony convictions, a local business in Morgantown, West Virginia, a home, a commercial property, three very young children, and a fiancé. Without question, despite the number and nature of the charges, he falls in the category of defendants presumed to be released under the Bail Reform Act.

On March 22, 2021, the parties appeared for a hearing on the motion for detention before U.S. Magistrate Judge, Michael J. Aloï. Over objection, the Government presented a proffer, and several short video clips. Tr. 28-41.¹

Mr. Tanios, for his part, called six witnesses: (1) Maguy Tanios, his mother, (2) Amanda Plumley, his fiancé and mother of his three children, (3) Shadoe Lowers, a family friend and former employee, (4) Michela Scotto Diluzio, a friend and collaborator in the local restaurant business, (5) Maria Boutros, his sister, and (6) Special Agent Riley Palmertree of the FBI. The first five witnesses testified as to his work ethic, longstanding position in the Morgantown restaurant industry, and role as a supportive father to his children. Tr. 43-72.

SA Palmertree testified as to how law enforcement conducted an investigation to piece together the allegations as set forth in the Government's proffer. Tr. 73-92.

On March 23, 2021, Magistrate Judge Aloï issued a Detention Order, which is the product of false assumptions, unfair interpretations and poor reasoning. See Document 28, Case 1:21-MJ-00027-MJA (NDWV).

III. MEMORANDUM OF LAW

There is a general rule of substantive due process that the government may not detain a person prior to a judgement of guilt in a criminal trial. "In our society liberty is the norm, and detention prior to trial or without trial is the carefully limited exception." United States v. Salerno, 481 U.S. 739, 755 (1987). This exception of pretrial detention is governed by the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142. Still, "[t]he structure of the [bail reform] statute mandates every form of release be considered before detention may be imposed.” United States v. Orta, 760 F.2d 887, 892 (8th Cir. 1985); see also United States v. Hansen, 108 F. App’x 331, 332 (6th Cir. 2004).

Pursuant to the Bail Reform Act, this Court must consider all possible conditions of release, and impose the least restrictive conditions that reasonably assure the defendant will not flee or pose a danger to any other person or the community. A defendant shall be detained pending trial only if the district court “finds that no condition or combination of the conditions will reasonable assure” either (1) “the appearance of the [defendant] as required” or (2) “the safety of any other person and the community.” 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e); see also United States v. Vasquez-Benitez, 919 F.3d 546, 550 (D.C. Cir. 2019) (“[i]n common parlance, the relevant inquiry is whether the defendant is a ‘flight risk’ or a ‘danger to the community.’”).

If the rebuttable presumption under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)(2) does not apply, as in the instant case, then, “[w]ith regard to the risk of flight as a basis for detention, the government must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that no combination of conditions will reasonable assure the defendant’s presence at the future court proceedings.” Stewart, 19 F. App’x at 48 (citing United States v. Hazime, 762 F.2d 34, 37 (6th Cir. 1985)). Accordingly, under the statutory scheme, “it is only a ‘limited group of offenders’ who should be denied bail pending trial.” United States v. Sabhnani, 493 F.3d 63, 75 (2d Cir. 2007) (quoting United States v. Shakur, 817 F.2d 189, 195 (2d Cir. 1987)).

The factors the court should consider are listed in the Bail Reform Act: (1) the nature and circumstances of the offense; (2) the weight of the evidence against the person; (3) the person’s history and characteristics, including the person’s character, physical and mental condition, family ties, employment, financial resources, community ties, drug abuse history, and criminal record; and (4) the danger to the community posed by the person’s release. 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g). The government must prove dangerousness by “clear and convincing” evidence. 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f); see United States v. Simms, 128 F. App’x 314, 315 (4th Cir. 2005); United States v. King, 849 F.2d 485, 489 (11th Cir. 1988).

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3145(b), if a person is ordered detained by a magistrate or by a person other than a judge of a court having original jurisdiction over the offense and other than a federal appellate court, that person may file with the court having original jurisdiction over the offense, a motion for revocation or amendment of the order. The motion shall be determined promptly. “When a defendant seeks review of a magistrate judge’s order of detention, the district court is bound to review the matter de novo and undertake a complete review of the matter for the purpose of arriving at its own ‘independent conclusion.’” United States v. Williams, 753 F.2d 329, 331 (4th Cir. 1985).

IV. ARGUMENT

Release is warranted in this case. First, the Government failed to meet its burden, even by a preponderance of the evidence, to show that Mr. Tanios is a risk of flight. Second, the Government failed to meet its burden to show clear and convincing evidence that Mr. Tanios is a danger to any other person or the community. Third, in the event that this Court somehow finds the Government -- through its proffer and a sprinkling of short video clips – has met its burden, the analysis mandated by the Bail Reform Act does not end. The Government still bears the burden of proving to this Court that there are no conditions, or combinations of conditions, which will reasonably assure the appearance of Mr. Tanios and the safety of any other person or the community. At each step, the Government fails to meet its burden.

A. Mr. Tanios does not present a risk of flight.

The Detention Order determined that Mr. Tanios is not a flight risk. Document 28, Case 1:21-MJ-00027-MJA, at 8. “Ties to the community” means both the community where charges are brought and the community where defendant normally resides. See United States v. Townsend, 897 F.2d 989, 995 (9th Cir. 1990) (“[i]f it were only the community in which the indictment was brought, a defendant who had deep ties in Boston, for example, might be denied bail if indicted in New Haven.”); United States v. Robinson, 2010 710 F.Supp.2d 1065, 1070 (D.N. Mariana Is., May 11, 2010) (same). Mr. Tanios has strong ties to Morgantown, West Virginia, which is about three hours away from this Court, in Washington, D.C., where he will stand trial. Mr. Tanios is a U.S. Citizen. Mr. Tanios runs a small business in Morgantown, West Virginia, near the campus of West Virginia University. His business is well known. Mr. Tanios has been a part of the WVU community and local small business community, making a living in the restaurant industry since he moved to West Virginia, in 2006. Mr. Tanios owns a commercial building in Morgantown. He lives in Morgantown with his fiancé and their three young children. Mr. Tanios has no history of nonappearance. Under the circumstances, Mr. Tanios cannot be considered a flight risk.

B. Mr. Tanios is not a danger to others and the community.

The Detention Order determined that the Government has established by clear and convincing evidence that Mr. Tanios is a danger to others and the community. Document 28, Case 1:21-MJ-00027-MJA (NDWV), at 8. This is a colossal error. It is an error, as a matter of procedure, because the Detention Order failed to consider all the required factors under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g). It is an error, as a matter of fact, because the record clearly indicates that Mr. Tanios is an ordinary businessman with a family, no felony convictions, and no history of violence, much less a history of violence against law enforcement officers. Most importantly, the record does not reflect that Mr. Tanios has the capability of dangerousness in the future.

1. Nature and circumstances of the charged offenses are not determinative of the question of detention and they do not weigh in favor of detention in this case.

While the Supreme Court has upheld the constitutionality of pretrial detention under the Bail Reform Act on due process grounds, the Court stressed that the statute it was upholding contained important safeguards, including the requirements that defendant be accused of a particularly serious crime and that dangerousness be proved to a neutral judicial officer by clear and convincing evidence. See Salerno, 481 U.S. at 747, 750–52, 107 S.Ct. 2095; cf. United States v. Kills Enemy, 3 F.3d 1201, 1203 (8th Cir.1993) (contrasting pretrial releasees with convicted persons awaiting sentence, and noting that the latter are “no longer entitled to a presumption of innocence or presumptively entitled to [their] freedom”). “Neither Salerno nor any other case authorizes detaining someone in jail while awaiting trial . . . based merely on the fact of arrest for a particular crime.” United States v. Scott, 450 F.3d 863, 875 (9th Cir. 2006) (emphasis added). The charge, whatever it may be, is merely an allegation and the Bail Reform Act does nothing to limit the presumption of innocence. 18 U.S.C. § 3142 (j). “Thus, the Supreme Court upheld the constitutionality of a bail system where pretrial defendants could be detained only if the need to detain them was demonstrated on an individualized basis.” Scott, 450 F.3d at 875.

Here, Mr. Tanios is fully aware that the charged offenses are serious. Likewise, Mr. Tanios is acutely aware that the surrounding circumstances are highly unusual since the offenses allegedly occurred in the context of shocking and virtually unprecedented breach of the U.S. Capitol building while a joint session of the United States Congress convened. At the same time, Mr. Tanios denies all charges. He has done so multiple times and he contends that, based upon the evidence in the record, he is not a threat if released and permitted to remain at home with his family while this case is pending.

In addition, Mr. Tanios wishes to highlight for the Court that this is not a case where -- even as it is alleged -- Mr. Tanios took the lead or personally caused harm to any individual or destroyed property. Mr. Tanios is not a member of an extremist organization, militia or hate group. Mr. Tanios did not coordinate or plan a violent attack. In fact, as stated, Mr. Tanios has no history of violence whatsoever. Mr. Tanios is a family-oriented business owner who traveled to Washington, D.C., to attend what he believed would be an extremely important political rally. It seemed exciting, different, interesting, and an opportunity to express his support for his political party in a meaningful way. Mr. Tanios listened closely to all the speakers. After attending the rally, Mr. Tanios walked to the United States Capitol with the large crowd of people going there.

Upon arrival, Mr. Tanios had no idea that such an incredibly wild riot would develop and, despite being there, he never condoned the violent and chaotic behavior he witnessed. Naturally, as one may imagine, he regrets going down to the U.S. Capitol in the first place. Still, Mr. Tanios never entered the U.S. Capitol Building. Mr. Tanios did not tear down barriers. Mr. Tanios did not punch, kick or hit anyone. Mr. Tanios did not conspire to or assist with an assault on law enforcement officers. Most certainly, Mr. Tanios did not spray any officer with O.C. spray, “bear spray” or any other chemicals. Likewise, Mr. Tanios did not observe Mr. Khater do this either -- if he even did -- as the Government has alleged.

2. The weight of evidence presented against Mr. Tanios is not strong.

At the detention hearing, the Government presented very little actual evidence. It presented no witness testimony. The Government presented no physical evidence. The Government presented no statements by Mr. Tanios and no written or recorded statements by the co-defendant,

Mr. Khater. Rather, over objection, the Government presented a proffer of what it believes the evidence would demonstrate if presented and a few video clips of Mr. Tanios and Mr. Khater at the U.S. Capitol. Other than Mr. Tanios being present, the video clips fail to show much at all in terms of the criminal acts allegedly committed by Mr. Tanios. The video clips fail to show any intent to harm officers, knowledge that officers would be injured, or any agreement by Mr. Tanios to do harm. The video clips fail to show Mr. Tanios use any weapon, chemical spray or inflammatory agent. Furthermore, the video clips fail to show that Mr. Tanios provided Mr. Khater with any item that could be used to injure officers at the Capitol. This is a far cry from strong evidence and it is the only evidence the Government relied upon.

3. The history and characteristics of Mr. Tanios weigh in favor of release.

The Detention Order fails to fully credit Mr. Tanios for a personal history, which completely undercuts the claim that detention is necessary. Mr. Tanios has never been convicted of a felony. Mr. Tanios has never previously been accused of violence. Mr. Tanios does not have reputation for violence. Mr. Tanios is a dedicated, loving, supportive and family-oriented husband and father. For fifteen years, Mr. Tanios created, owned and operated several businesses in Morgantown, West Virginia, which served the community, bolstered the local economy, employed many people, and created revenue for the City of Morgantown. Mr. Tanios is politically minded and has often expressed his political views, but he is not a member of any extremist organization, militia, hate group, or any other organization that supports violence, chaos, anarchy or civil unrest.

The allegations against Mr. Tanios suggest that on a single day Mr. Tanios had a role in offenses committed with a co-defendant, Mr. Khater. A defendant remains innocent until proven guilty. Nothing in the Bail Reform Act “shall be construed as modifying or limiting the presumption of innocence.” 18 U.S.C. § 3142(j). Again, Mr. Tanios denies conspiring to injure officers. Mr. Tanios denies aiding and abetting any other person in any crimes. Mr. Tanios denies assaulting any officer with a dangerous weapon. Mr. Tanios denies any physical violence on restricted grounds, while carrying a dangerous weapon, and he denies causing bodily injury. Mr. Tanios asserts his innocence at this time and, given his non-violent and non-criminal history, he does not pose a danger to the community or any other person.

4. The risk of danger to the community posed by the release of Mr. Tanios is extremely minimal, if it exists at all.

The Detention Order found that Mr. Tanios is a danger to others and the community. We object. First, the Detention Order claims that Mr. Tanios engaged in the “premeditation of violence” which includes “the advance purchase of dangerous chemical sprays and Defendant’s questioning of a firearms store employee as to whether he could take a firearm or pepper ball gun to Washington, D.C.” Document 28, 1:21-MJ-00027-MJA, at 8. This is an absurd interpretation of the proffered evidence. Mr. Tanios did not plan any violence and there is no evidence in the record to support this claim. Mr. Tanios did not take a firearm or pepper ball gun to Washington, D.C. The fact – if it even is a fact – that he asked a federally licensed firearms dealer whether it would be legal to take certain weapons to Washington, D.C., indicates an intent to follow the law, not violate the law or harm others. Similarly, there is no dispute that the purchase of O.C. spray, and certain chemical sprays was legal in West Virginia in January 2021, or that these items are generally intended to be used and are regularly used as items for self-defense in West Virginia, and elsewhere.

The Detention Order indicates that Mr. Tanios is dangerous because, according to the proffered evidence, Mr. Tanios had a “telephone conversation with Mr. Khater during the time in the firearms store to determine what to purchase for the trip to Washington, D.C.” Id. at 9. Since the Government failed to present a recording of that conversation, and it never presented a written or recorded statement by any witness about this conversation, we contend this is not a reliable fact. If there was a conversation at that time, at all, it is ambiguous and entirely lacking context. It should not be relied upon by any responsible judicial officer to support a finding of dangerousness.

The Detention Order found that Mr. Tanios is dangerous because he was “carrying [] a backpack, shared with Khater, at the event, containing chemical sprays, and Khater attempt[ed] to access the backpack by saying ‘Give me that bear s*it’ and Defendant responding, ‘Hold on, hold on, not yet, not yet ... it’s still early.’” Id. at 9. This is false. Obviously, the backpack was not “shared with” Mr. Khater because Mr. Tanios refused to provide Mr. Khater with the contents of the backpack. Mr. Tanios denied access to Mr. Khater and Mr. Tanios did not give “bear spray” to Mr. Khater or anyone else while on the grounds of the U.S. Capitol. This denial and obvious lack of cooperation with Mr. Khater indicates that Mr. Tanios did not intend to harm law enforcement officers at the U.S. Capitol. It is shocking that the Government, at the hearing, and the Magistrate Judge, in the Detention Order, can so freely put an incredibly incriminating spin on this incomplete conversation. Clearly, at the very least, this interaction between Mr. Tanios and Mr. Khater does not make Mr. Tanios a danger to the exaggerated extent articulated in the Detention Order.

Finally, the Detention Order finds that Mr. Tanios is a danger because of “[t]he spraying of chemical substances directly into the faces of three police officers, who were in the line of duty facing a mob.” Id. Given the limited record established at the detention hearing, attributing this act to Mr. Tanios is outrageous. Mr. Tanios did not plan to harm officers at the U.S. Capitol. Mr. Tanios did not know officers would be harmed and Mr. Tanios did not intend for officers to be harmed. Mr. Tanios did not approach any officer aggressively and he did not point or spray any canister of chemical spray at anyone that day. Mr. Tanios did not agree to this and he certainly did not assist in this criminal act, if it, in fact, occurred, as alleged.

Accordingly, there is very little evidence to support the conclusion that Mr. Tanios is a danger to others or the community, if any. The Government failed to prove dangerousness by clear and convincing evidence and the Detention Order is woefully inadequate.

5. Mr. Tanios does not present an identified and articulable threat to any other person or the community under the guidance of Munchel.

Critically, there was no evidence considered by the Magistrate Judge as to whether Mr. Tanios presented an identifiable or articulable threat to the community or any other person. The DC Circuit Court of Appeals recently heard argument regarding detention in a case involving a capitol rioter. Although the facts in United States v. Munchel are distinguishable from that in this case, the considerations placed on the District Court are instructive. In Munchel, the court held that the District Court should consider whether the defendants posed an articulable future threat to the community in view of their conduct on January 6, and the particular circumstances of January 6 on remand. United States v. Munchel, No. 21-3010, 2021 WL 1149196, at *7 (D.C. Cir. Mar. 26, 2021).

The facts of this case, when considered in context of the extraordinary conditions of January 6, 2021, show that Mr. Tanios is not a threat. There was no evidence presented at the hearing for bond that showed Mr. Tanios has any experience using bear spray or any OC spray as a weapon against law enforcement or any other person. There is no evidence that Mr. Tanios has the means of using bear spray or any OC spray in the future against law enforcement, or in attempts to disrupt the functioning of government. There is also no evidence that Mr. Tanios would interact with Mr. Khater at all in the future for any purpose, let alone for the purpose of violence or threats to any person or group.

Importantly, there is no identifiable and articulable danger to “act against Congress” in the future, because there is no reasonable explanation of how Mr. Tanios would be capable of doing so now that the specific circumstances of January 6 have passed. Mr. Tanios never entered the Capitol. Mr. Tanios never vandalized any property. Mr. Tanios did not commit any violence. These facts are important to consider the possibility of future danger to the community. As the concurrence stated in Munchel, it is not the generalized, backwards- looking assessment of the riot or rioters on January 6, which determines dangerousness. It is the specific, forward-looking assessment of whether a defendant, as individuals currently pose an unmitigable threat to public safety. United States v. Munchel, No. 21-3010, 2021 WL 1149196, at *9 (D.C. Cir. Mar. 26, 2021).

C. There are numerous conditions that this Court can impose to assure Mr. Tanios’s appearance and the safety of the community.

Finally, the Government failed to meet its burden of proving that there were no combination of conditions that could be met to assure Mr. Tanios’s appearance and the safety of the community. A defendant shall be detained pending trial only if the district court “finds that no condition or combination of the conditions will reasonable assure” either (1) “the appearance of the [defendant] as required” or (2) “the safety of any other person and the community.” 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e); see also United States v. Vasquez-Benitez, 919 F.3d 546, 550 (D.C. Cir. 2019) (“In common parlance, the relevant inquiry is whether the defendant is a ‘flight risk’ or a ‘danger to the community.’”).

Although the Government failed to meet their burden, Mr. Tanios agrees to substantial additional conditions for pretrial release and believes that the following restrictions can be imposed to assure this Court of his compliance and concern for the safety of the community. A summary of all the proposed bond conditions is as follows:

1. home detention at his family residence with electronic monitoring;
2. 24-hour monitoring by video-surveillance provided by Mr. Tanios that the United States Probation Officers in this case would be able to have access to the pin to watch the surveillance directly;
3. a restricted list of visitors that will only include individuals such as Mr. Tanio's children, father, mother, in-laws, siblings, attorneys, and clergy;
4. designated visiting hours;
5. visitors will only be allowed to visit Mr. Tanios for four hours per day during designated visiting hours except for his mother, sister, and his attorneys;
6. Mr. Tanios will maintain a visitation log documenting the name of the person visiting, the date, and the length of the visit;
7. Mr. Tanios will not use any smart phones;
8. Mr. Tanios will refrain from being on any social media websites;
9. Mr. Tanios will maintain a call log documenting for each telephone call that he makes the name of the person called, the date, and the length of the call;
10. Mr. Tanios will report daily by telephone to Pretrial Services (or any other schedule the Court deems appropriate).

An analysis of the relevant statutory factors and case law supports pretrial release. Even should the Court conclude, despite substantial evidence to the contrary, that the defendant presents a risk of danger or flight, the foregoing combination of conditions virtually guarantees his appearance as required and the safety of the community by limiting his interactions with others. Vitally, while it is always possible to hypothesize risks, the statutory standard requires only a reasonable assurance that the defendant, if released, will appear. The conditions proposed above, are more than adequate to ensure that Mr. Tanios will not only remain in the Northern District of West Virginia awaiting his trial in this case, but will also refrain from contacting any potential witnesses.

In addition, in a case such as this one, which will likely involve vast electronic and media discovery, it is critical to undersigned counsel's ability to provide effective assistance, as well as the defendant's ability to meaningfully contribute to his defense, that Mr. Tanios be permitted pretrial release. The Sixth Amendment "does not provide merely that a defense shall be made for the accused; it grants to the accused personally the right to make his defense. It is the accused, not counsel, who must be 'informed of the nature and cause of the accusation,' and who must be 'confronted with the witnesses against him,' and who must be accorded 'compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor.'" Faretta v. California, 422 U.S. 806, 819 (1975). Given the unique circumstances of this case, undersigned counsel believes Mr. Tanios's exercise of these important Constitutional rights would be materially impaired by his pretrial detention.

V. CONCLUSION

Mr. Tanios has no history of violence and has never been previously accused of being a danger to others. He has never been convicted of a felony. Mr. Tanios lives in a modest townhome in Morgantown, West Virginia, with his fiancé and their three small children. There are no firearms in the home. He has no history of non-appearance. He has no history of tampering with witnesses. He works 80 hours a week at a restaurant he operates and then comes home to help care for his children. His lifestyle and ordinary environment almost guarantee that no other person will be harmed by Mr. Tanios upon release. What's more, this Court can place Mr. Tanios on home detention, with any combination of additional conditions, which, in essence, creates a jail for him at his home, except while working or meeting with counsel to prepare for trial. Therefore, this Court should overrule the Detention Order and release Mr. Tanios to his home in Morgantown, West Virginia, while awaiting trial.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE PIERRE TANIOS

1 (Proceedings commenced at 10:00 a.m. in open court.)

2 THE COURT: If the clerk would please call the next
3 case.

4 THE CLERK: The United States of America versus
5 George Pierre Tanios. Case number 1:21-MJ-27. This matter
6 comes on for a detention and Rule 5 hearing.

7 Will counsel please note their appearance for the record.

8 MS. WAGNER: Sarah Wagner on behalf of the United 9 States.

10 MS. GROSS: Beth Gross and Richard Walker
11 representing Mr. Tanios.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, counsel. And just a
13 note to counsel, I always appreciate the courtesy of standing,
14 but you are going to be staying at your tables and it's okay
15 to sit down and speak directly into the mic, so I appreciate
16 that. It makes it easier for all of us.

17 As you all are aware, circumstances have changed since we 18 last met in that an indictment now has been returned against 19 Mr. Tanios. So I am going to have a Rule 5 initial appearance
20 on the new indictment.

21 Mr. Walker and Ms. Gross, do you all have a copy of the 22 indictment?

23 MS. GROSS: Yes, Judge.

24 THE COURT: Okay. And you've shared that with 25 Mr. Tanios?

1 MS. GROSS: Yes, Judge.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Tanios, do you understand
3 English?

4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Judge.

5 THE COURT: Mr. Tanios, my name is -- thank you,
6 Ms. Gross -- my name is Michael John Aloï. I'm a United
7 States Magistrate Judge. At this time I would ask the clerk
8 to please swear in Mr. Tanios.

9 GEORGE PIERRE TANIOS, DEFENDANT, SWORN

10 THE COURT: Now, Mr. Tanios, are you a citizen of the 11 United States?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. Yes, Judge.

13 THE COURT: Mr. Tanios, all persons are brought 14 before a judge as soon as possible after their arrest. And so
15 we're not here today to determine your guilt or innocence.
16 This is an initial appearance. And the purpose of an initial 17 appearance is to tell you the alleged violations against you,
18 to let you know that you have a right to an attorney, and to 19 determine whether you will be released pending trial, or if we 20 will set a detention hearing.

21 Now, Mr. Tanios, you have been charged in the United 22 States District Court for the District of Columbia, by the 23 grand jury sworn in on January 8, 2021, with the following
24 offenses. Count 1 charges you as follows: Commencing on or 25 about January 6th, 2021, in the District of Columbia, and

1 elsewhere, that the defendants, Julian Elie Khater and George
2 Pierre Tanios, knowingly and willfully did conspire and agree
3 together with each other to injure U.S. Capitol Police Officer
4 B. Sicknick, U.S. Capitol Police Officer C. Edwards,
5 Metropolitan Police Officer D. Chapman, and other officers
6 while those officers were engaged in, or on account of, the 7 lawful discharge of their duties of their office or in order
8 to interrupt, hinder, and impede them in the discharge of 9 their official duties, in violation of Title 18, U.S. Code,
10 Section 372. Among the means by which the defendants in 11 co-conspirators carried out the object of the conspiracy,
12 were; the defendant Julian Elie Khater and George Pierre
13 Tanios, armed themselves with a chemical spray and utilized
14 the chemical spray against members of the U.S. Capitol Police
15 and members of the Metropolitan Police Department who were 16 assisting the U.S. Capitol Police.

17 Now, in furtherance of the conspiracy and to the effect
18 the object thereof, the defendants performed the following 19 overt acts: On or about January 6, 2021, in the District of 20 Columbia, that the defendants Julian Elie Khater and George 21 Pierre Tanios, joined with others at the U.S. Capitol, which 22 was closed to the public and guarded by members of the United 23 States Capitol Police and members of the Metropolitan Police
24 who were assisting the U.S. Capitol Police.

25 On or about January 6, 2021, in the District of Columbia,

1 the defendants Khater and Tanios, jointly and in concert,
2 moved close to the police line that was guarding the perimeter
3 of the Lower West Terrace of the U.S. Capitol building.

4 On or about January 6, 2021, District of Columbia, the
5 defendant Tanios carried a canister of chemical spray within a
6 backpack he was wearing.

7 January 6, 2021, in the District of Columbia, defendant
8 Khater, asked defendant Tanios for the chemical spray and 9 defendant Khater then retrieved a chemical spray from the 10 backpack that defendant Tanios was wearing.

11 On or about January 6, 2021, in the District of Columbia,
12 Khater and Tanios planned and discussed the timing of when to 13 utilize the chemical spray against law enforcement.

14 On or about January 6, 2021, in the District of Columbia,
15 defendant Khater deployed a chemical spray directly at law
16 enforcement officers in the police line guarding the Lower 17 West Terrace of the U.S. Capitol building.

18 On January 6, 2021, in the District of Columbia,
19 defendant Khater utilized a chemical spray against U.S.
20 Capitol Police Officer B. Sicknick, U.S. Capitol Police
21 Officer C. Edwards, and Metropolitan Police Officer D.
22 Chapman, and other lawful enforcement officers.

23 Now, Count 2 is assaulting, resisting or impeding certain
24 officers using a dangerous weapon and aiding and abetting.

25 On or about January 6, 2021, within the District of

1 Columbia, Julian Elie Khater and George Pierre Tanios, using a
2 deadly or dangerous weapon, that is, a chemical spray, did
3 forcibly assault, resist, oppose, impede, intimidate, and
4 interfere with an officer and employee of the United States
5 and of any branch of the United States government including
6 any member of the uniformed services, that is Officer B.
7 Sicknick, an officer of the U.S. Capitol Police Department,
8 while such officer or employee was -- I'm sorry -- engaged in 9 or on account of the performance of official duties, and where 10 the acts involved physical contact with the victim and the 11 intent to commit another felony.

12 Now, Count 3, assaulting, resisting, or impeding certain 13 officers using a dangerous weapon in aiding and abetting. On 14 or about January 6, 2021, District of Columbia, Khater and --
15 defendants Khater and Tanios using a deadly or dangerous
16 weapon, that is, a chemical spray did forcibly assault,
17 resist, oppose, impede, intimidate, and interfere with, an 18 officer or employee of the United States, and any branch of 19 the U.S. Government including any member of the uniformed
20 services, that is Officer C. Edwards, an officer of the United 21 States Capitol Police Department, while such officer or 22 employee was engaged in or on account of the performance of 23 official duties and when the acts involved physical contact
24 with the victim with the intent to commit another felony.

25 Count 4, also assault, resisting, or impeding certain

1 officers using a dangerous weapon and aiding and abetting. On
2 or about January 6, 2021, within the District of Columbia,
3 defendants Khater and Tanios, using a deadly or dangerous
4 weapon, that is, a chemical spray, did forcibly assault,
5 resist, oppose, impede, intimidate, and interfere with, an
6 officer and employee of the United States, and any branch of 7 the United States Government including any member of the 8 uniformed services, and that is, Officer D. Chapman, an 9 officer of the Metropolitan Police Department, who was 10 assisting the U.S. Capitol Police while such officer or 11 employee was engaged in or on account of the performance of 12 official duties and where the acts involved physical contact
13 with the victim in the intent to commit another felony.

14 Now, Count 5 he is charged with civil disorder. On or 15 about January 6, 2021, within the District of Columbia,
16 defendants Khater and Tanios committed and attempted to commit
17 an act to obstruct, impede, and interfere with law enforcement
18 officers, that is, Officers Sicknick and Edwards, officers of 19 the U.S. Capitol Police and Officer D. Chapman an officer of 20 the Metropolitan Police Department for the District of 21 Columbia, lawfully engaged in the performance of their
22 official duties incident to and during the commission of a
23 civil disorder, and the civil disorder obstructed, delayed,
24 and adversely affected the conduct and performance of a
25 federally protected function.

1 Count 6, which is obstructing or impeding any official
2 proceeding, reads that, on or about January 6, 2021, within
3 the District of Columbia and elsewhere, defendants Khater and 4 Tanios, attempted to, and did, corruptly obstruct, influence,
5 and impede an official proceeding, that is, a proceeding
6 before Congress by committing an act of civil disorder, and 7 engaging in disorderly and disruptive conduct.

8 Count 7 is entering and remaining in a restricted
9 building or grounds with a deadly or dangerous weapon causing 10 significant bodily injury. And it reads that, on or about 11 January 6, 2021, in the District of Columbia, defendants
12 Khater and Tanios, did unlawfully and knowingly enter and 13 remain in a restricted building and grounds that is, any 14 posted, cordoned-off, and otherwise restricted area within the
15 United States Capitol and its grounds, where the Vice
16 President and Vice President-elect were temporarily visiting,
17 without lawful authority to do so, and, during and in relation
18 to the offense, did use and carry a deadly and dangerous
19 weapon, that is, a chemical spray, and did cause significant 20 bodily injury.

21 Count 8 is disorderly and disruptive conduct in a
22 restricted building or grounds with a deadly or dangerous
23 weapon and causing significant bodily injury. And it reads,
24 that, on or about January 6, 2021, in the District of 25 Columbia, that the defendants Khater and Tanios, did

1 knowingly, and with intent to impede and disrupt the orderly
2 conduct of government business and official functions, engage
3 in disorderly and disruptive conduct in and within such 4 proximity to, a restricted building and grounds, that is, any
5 posted, cordoned-off, and otherwise restricted area within the 6 U.S. Capitol and its grounds, where the Vice President and 7 Vice President-elect were temporarily visiting, when and so
8 that such conduct did in fact impede and disrupt the orderly 9 conduct of government business in official functions and 10 during and in relation to the offense, did use and carry a 11 deadly and dangerous weapon, that is, a chemical spray, and 12 did cause significant bodily injury.

13 Count 9 the charge is engaging in physical violence in a
14 restricted building or grounds with a deadly or dangerous
15 weapon and causing significant bodily harm. And this reads
16 that, on or about January 6, 2021, in the District of 17 Columbia, that the defendants Khater and Tanios did knowingly,
18 engage in an act of physical violence against any person and 19 property in a restricted building and grounds, that is, any 20 posted, cordoned-off, and otherwise restricted area within the
21 United States Capitol and its grounds, where the Vice
22 President and Vice President-elect were temporarily visiting
23 and, during and in relation to the offense, did use and carry 24 a deadly and dangerous weapon, that is, a chemical spray, and 25 did cause significant bodily injury.

1 And finally Count 10, which is the act of physical
2 violence in the Capitol grounds or buildings, that, on or 3 about January 6, 2021, in the District of Columbia, that the 4 defendants Julian Elie Khater and George Pierre Tanios,
5 willfully and knowingly engaged in an act of physical violence
6 within the United States Capitol grounds and any of the 7 Capitol buildings.

8 Now, Mr. Tanios, the penalties for these charges are as 9 follows: Count 1 the penalty is up to six years maximum term
10 of imprisonment, maximum fine of $250,000, three years of 11 supervised release.

12 For Counts 2, 3, and 4, it's up to a 20-year maximum term
13 of imprisonment, a maximum fine of up to $250,000 and 14 three years of supervised release.

15 Count 5, it's up to a five-year maximum term of 16 imprisonment, a maximum fine of $250,000, and three years of 17 supervised release.

18 Count 6 is up to 20 years maximum term of imprisonment,
19 maximum fine of $250,000, three years of supervised release.

20 And Count 7, 8, and 9, the dangerous deadly weapon charge
21 is up to ten years maximum term of imprisonment, a fine of 22 $250,000, three years of supervised release.

23 And Count 10 is up to six months maximum term of 24 imprisonment, and a maximum fine of $1,500, and one year of 25 supervised release.

1 Now, Mr. Tanios, as you can see, the Court has appointed
2 court-appointed attorneys for you, and we did that at your
3 initial appearance a week ago and they will at least continue
4 to represent you throughout these proceedings. That was based 5 upon your financial record, which is of record, and that is 6 Ms. Gross and Mr. Walker.

7 I do want to advise you of your constitutional rights.
8 Those are as follows: That you have a constitutional right to 9 remain silent. If you give up your right to remain silent
10 anything that you say can and will be used against you in this
11 or any other court of law. Even if you may have given a
12 statement to the police or others, you have a constitutional
13 right to make no further statement to the police or others,
14 and you have a constitutional right to make no further
15 statement to the authorities. Even if you start to make a 16 statement, you have the constitutional right to stop in 17 mid-word or sentence and say no more.

18 You have the right to counsel to assist you in this 19 matter. If you cannot afford an attorney, you may qualify to 20 have one appointed to represent you. Whether appointed or 21 retained, you have the right to the assistance of counsel at 22 every stage of these proceedings against you during any 23 questioning by authorities.

24 Now, as you are aware, Mr. Tanios, and your counsel are 25 aware, you have -- the government has made a motion to detain

1 you in this matter. The Court has entered an order of
2 temporary detention, and we had scheduled within the required
3 three days on Thursday, and you, through your counsel, asked
4 it to be continued to -- and your counsel asked that it be
5 continued so that you could be better prepared for what is a
6 significant hearing for you.

7 I do want to remind those who are participating by Zoom
8 that it is our local court rule that you are not to record
9 these proceedings. You are not to photograph. Even though
10 this is a Zoom proceeding, I am presiding, I am sitting in the 11 courtroom and we expect all of you to honor the standard court
12 decorum, and failure to honor that can result in action by the 13 Court.

14 Now, I do want to make sure that counsel and I are on the 15 same page about this. I did schedule it for a preliminary 16 hearing. A preliminary hearing would be necessary if we were 17 just proceeding on a complaint in this matter. But in between 18 the initial hearing and after I noticed it for a preliminary,
19 we now have the indictment. So a grand jury in Washington,
20 D.C., has found probable cause that these crimes were 21 committed and they were committed by Mr. Tanios and Mr.
22 Khater.

23 So Ms. Gross or Mr. Walker, do you agree with the Court's 24 assessment that a preliminary hearing is not necessary?

25 MS. GROSS: Yes, Judge.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. And is the government
2 of the same opinion?

3 MS. WAGNER: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

4 THE COURT: A preliminary hearing will not be
5 necessary. We will go ahead and proceed with the detention
6 hearing.

7 You know, Ms. Gross, I do -- maybe there isn't anyone in 8 here who is going to be a witness. Okay. I don't believe
9 there is. Okay. So with that --

10 MS. GROSS: No, there is not.

11 THE COURT: Thank you. With that, the government may 12 proceed on its motion to detain, and call its first witness.

13 MS. WAGNER: Thank you, Judge.

14 We intend to proceed by a proffer of the evidence which 15 is largely explained in the sworn affidavit of FBI Special
16 Agent Riley Palmertree, and with which this Court is already 17 familiar. We have some additional evidence that we will 18 proffer that we have obtained since the affidavit was sworn 19 out. But before I summarize the investigation, I would like
20 to introduce 15 exhibits that were referenced in the search 21 warrant affidavit and on which we rely this morning for the 22 purpose of detention.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. And you have presented
24 those? Do you have them stamped and numbered, and you also 25 have presented those to counsel for defendant?

1 MS. WAGNER: Yes, Judge. We have given defense
2 counsel a copy this morning. Your law clerk has been provided
3 with a copy also this morning. And I have a copy here for the 4 clerk.

5 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

6 Let me ask you, Ms. Gross or Mr. Walker, are there any 7 objections to the exhibits being introduced by the government
8 at this time?

9 MS. GROSS: Judge, we don't object to the exhibits.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. There being none, 11 Government's Exhibits 1 through 15 shall be admitted into 12 evidence and we will proceed.

13 MR. WALKER: Judge, I would like to object. This is 14 Richard Walker speaking. I would like to object. While I
15 think the government is within its rights to proffer the 16 evidence in this case, I want the Court to understand that 17 obviously the weight of the evidence is a very significant 18 factor, the weight of the evidence against Mr. Tanios. And we 19 are fully prepared to cross-examine the agent who -- you know,
20 we agreed for the agent to appear by Zoom today with the 21 expectation that the agent would provide testimony of some 22 kind. And we are fully prepared to cross-examine that agent
23 because we want to evaluate the weight of the evidence.

24 And at this point in time, given that we haven't received
25 any other investigative materials other than what has been

1 provided today, again, the government is within its rights to
2 withhold information until the time for discovery. The only
3 way for us to test and the only way for the Court to 4 meaningfully assess the weight of the evidence would be 5 through cross-examination. So I will just note that for the 6 record, that that is an objection here.

7 Now, Judge, obviously the other factor is that some day
8 this may -- some day soon this -- whether by the government's 9 request or the defendant's request, this will obviously be 10 reviewed by another court. And again, it's virtually 11 impossible to have meaningful review as it relates to the 12 weight of the evidence until and unless there is an agent that 13 we can cross-examine or an eyewitness that we can 14 cross-examine.

15 So we take that position and I will say we are very much
16 looking forward to cross-examining that agent. Unfortunately,
17 because of the government's decision, we won't be able to do
18 that today. Thank you.

19 THE COURT: Well, let me say this, Mr. Walker, and 20 since this is a bench proceeding, and certainly while I will
21 and I still overrule your objection to the extent that it
22 would preclude the introduction of the exhibits into evidence,
23 I will certainly listen to your argument as to the weight I
24 accord those exhibits, and so -- and I will note that on the 25 record.

1 But, Ms. Wagner, do you want to respond to that?

2 MS. WAGNER: Judge, my response is that we are
3 entitled to proceed by proffer. That's what we have chosen to 4 do today. To the extent that this decision, your decision
5 today might be reviewed by the District Court in D.C., that is 6 a de novo review. And so I think those concerns are sort of 7 muted by the standard of review that the District Court in 8 D.C., would take, and so that is our position, Judge.

9 THE COURT: Okay. You may proceed with your proffer.

10 MR. WALKER: Judge, I would like to say one more
11 thing. I am just going back to look at the rule. Again, I am
12 somewhat surprised that there is no agent to testify in a case
13 like this. I'm just going back to the rule, Judge. And I
14 believe that 3142 is silent as it relates to the government's 15 permission to proffer.

16 I know that the rule expressly states that the defendant
17 may proffer, but I would have to refresh my recollection. And 18 I will tell the Court that it's my recollection and my 19 understanding that the rule is silent as to permission for the 20 government to proceed by proffer.

21 So I'm going to tell the Court that I do not believe that 22 this is necessarily appropriate procedure, and if the Court is 23 going to permit the government to proceed by proffer and a
24 proffer only, I would like an opportunity to go back and 25 re-read the rule and perhaps conduct some research on that

1 point.

2 MS. WAGNER: Judge, may I respond?

3 THE COURT: First of all, what is the section again,
4 and the title?

5 MR. WALKER: Well, it should be 18 United States Code
6 3142.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. And --

8 MR. WALKER: But again, I'm not taking the position
9 that I should be because I think the government should explain
10 that it has the authority to proceed only by proffer,
11 particularly again, Judge, because we expected the agent to 12 appear today. We agreed to his appearance by video.

13 THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to go ahead and listen
14 to Ms. Wagner's response.

15 MS. WAGNER: Judge, we had anticipated, and all the 16 parties anticipated, having a prelim today prior to the 17 indictment, that is why we secured permission from the Court
18 and from defense counsel to present the agent by Zoom.

19 But with respect to what 3142 provides, there is case law
20 that the government or the defendant may present evidence in 21 support of the factors listed in 3142(g) by way of proffer.
22 That's United States versus Karni, 298 F.2d 129. That's a
23 decision out of the District Court of D.C., from 2004. I
24 think that's the most recent case that I could find on the 25 subject.

1 But, Judge, this is -- it's in our opinion -- well
2 established that both the defendant and the government may 3 proceed by proffer in a 3142 hearing.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

5 Did you have anything else you wanted to say, Mr. Walker?

6 MR. WALKER: I would like an opportunity, if the 7 government doesn't have a copy of it, I would like an 8 opportunity to look at that case and research that case. If 9 you could give us some time to do that, Judge. I think that 10 would be appropriate.

11 I'm not convinced that the government has the right to 12 proceed by proffer. This is entirely a surprise to us. The 13 government hasn't provided the case law to us. We had every 14 expectation that the agent would be here. As they say back
15 home, Judge, not for nothing, but we spent days and days and 16 days preparing for the cross-examination of this witness, so
17 we would like an opportunity to verify the government's 18 position and to conduct some very quick recess if you could 19 give us 15 or 20 minutes to do that.

20 We have, probably, attorneys standing by in our office
21 who can assist with that.

22 THE COURT: I -- of course, you have the officer's --
23 or the agent's affidavit, correct?

24 MR. WALKER: It's in the record, yes.

25 THE COURT: Okay. And I was also prepared to permit

1 you to make argument in regard to that affidavit through a
2 proffer. And I know that it is the Court's common practice to
3 permit proffers. I understand this is a little different
4 case, but -- and I also understand Ms. Wagner's position that
5 certainly you would need testimony for a preliminary hearing
6 because you would need an agent to establish probable cause,
7 since that now has been established by a grand jury, that we
8 are now on to the detention issue. But I will go ahead -- do
9 you want to give the case cite again, Ms. Wagner?

10 MS. WAGNER: Yes, Judge. It is United States vs.
11 Karni, K-A-R-N-I, 298 F.2d. There is also --

12 THE COURT: That's a D.C., case, correct?

13 MS. WAGNER: Correct. Another D.C. Circuit -- I'm 14 sorry, a D.C. Circuit case, United States vs. Smith, 79 F.3d
15 1208, holding that the Bail Reform Act allows the government
16 to proceed by way of proffer in lieu of presenting live
17 witnesses at a pretrial detention hearing.

18 THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to go ahead and take a 19 15-minute recess to give you an opportunity to review that,
20 Mr. Walker.

21 I would also indicate that since this is in the United 22 States District Court for the District of Columbia, that I
23 would be more influenced by D.C., District of Columbia, case
24 law, and the D.C. Circuit case law because I think that is the 25 one that I should be bound by in this case.

1 So with that, we will take a -- why don't we just be back
2 here at 10:45, and then we will proceed accordingly.

3 We will be in recess. Thank you.

4 (Recess was taken at this time, 10:28 a.m. - 10:47 a.m.)

5 THE COURT: The record should reflect that we are 6 back on the record in the matter of U.S. vs. Tanios.

7 The Court took a brief recess to give Mr. Walker the 8 opportunity to do some brief research to address the issue of 9 proffer in a detention hearing as opposed to offering live
10 testimony.

11 Do you have anything you want to offer, Mr. Walker?

12 MR. WALKER: Yes, Judge. Thank you for the 13 opportunity to conduct some legal research. We have taken a
14 look at the case law the government has cited earlier today,
15 and we agree that that case law remains at this point in time
16 good law, has not been vacated, reversed or otherwise
17 overruled or invalidated in any way.

18 However, as you probably know by now, Judge, we found
19 another case from the United States District Court. The 20 District Court in that case took a different position. That 21 case is the United States vs. Hammond, from the District of 22 Maryland. And the citation on that case is 44 F.2d 3743.
23 Again, it's a firearms case from the District of Maryland,
24 1999 case. And as the Court can see, it's a very short
25 opinion.

1 But the bottom line is, that the District Court in that
2 case took the position that the government has the burden to 3 prove dangerousness by clear and convincing evidence. That
4 the weight of the evidence is one of the four primary factors
5 that every judicial officer must consider when determining the 6 appropriateness of pretrial detention.

7 And in the Hammond case, the Court disagreed with the 8 government. The government attempted to proceed by proffer.
9 The Court disagreed with that and determined -- required the 10 government to proceed with live testimony.

11 And I will note, Judge, in this case, that the government
12 filed a motion to detain. The government did not take the 13 position that the rebuttable presumption in favor of detention
14 applies. Therefore, the government has the full burden in 15 this case. And under the Bail Reform Act, there is a 16 presumption of release.

17 So we do object to the government proceeding by proffer
18 for the reasons stated in Hammond, and for the reasons that I
19 previously stated, and the reasons that I am stating now, that 20 the government has the burden. We are prepared to 21 cross-examine the agent. We want to address the agent's
22 credibility. The only way for us to truly explore the 23 evidence in this case and to understand the details of these 24 very serious charges in a very serious case is to hear from 25 the agent personally. Thank you.

1 THE COURT: I understand your argument.

2 Ms. Wagner, did you have anything else you wanted to add?

3 MS. WAGNER: Yes, Judge, just briefly in response to 4 the Hammond case. That case was very different than the case
5 we are here today on. The District Court in Hammond noted
6 that the government in that case had simply referred the 7 magistrate judge to the indictment. It had then proffered the 8 testimony of what the two law enforcement officers would have 9 been had they been presented to testify and they offered no
10 independent corroboration that the defendant there had been in 11 possession of or dropped the gun other than the eyewitness
12 testimony of those two officers. And the precise holding in 13 Hammond was that when the proffered evidence is uncorroborated
14 statements of one or two police officers, the Court
15 determining detention should require live testimony of an 16 officer.

17 This case is remarkably different from that case, Judge.
18 We are here today with ten videos that capture different
19 pieces and parts of what happened on January 6, Mr. Tanios's
20 involvement in those events.

21 In addition, we are proffering corroborating information,
22 which includes Mr. Tanios's codefendant's statements after he
23 was Mirandized after his arrest last Saturday or Sunday.

24 And in addition to that, we have information from the 25 store which -- from which Mr. Tanios purchased the chemical

1 spray that was used to assault these officers in Washington,
2 D.C. So here, Judge, we're not asking you to detain
3 Mr. Tanios on the basis of uncorroborated eyewitness
4 testimony. We are prepared today to make a substantial
5 proffer of our evidence and we believe that this Court is --
6 will be equipped with what it needs to make that detention
7 determination.

8 THE COURT: Thank you.

9 MR. WALKER: Judge, may I respond to the information
10 about the codefendant and the information about information
11 from the store?

12 I think that that makes this situation worse for the 13 government, not better, because we're not corroborating the 14 agent's complaint or the factual statement that supported the 15 complaint with other evidence, Judge. We are corroborating
16 with more hearsay apparently from witnesses who will not be 17 here today and apparently from witnesses who will not testify.

18 So this is hearsay on top of hearsay on top of hearsay,
19 and all the more reason, in our opinion, Judge, for this Court
20 to require the government to call the agent to explain the 21 evidence in detail. Thank you.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, Mr. Walker.

23 Again, I think all these arguments go to the weight of 24 the evidence, and it's the Court's decision, not anyone
25 else's, to determine whether or not the weight of the evidence

1 satisfies the requirements of the law. You are absolutely
2 right that the law that Ms. Wagner cited in the District of 3 Columbia indicates and they support that burden being carried
4 by proffer. I would also indicate that the Ninth Circuit
5 supports it as well as the Eleventh Circuit that it is common
6 at the detention hearings for both sides to proceed by 7 proffer.

8 And there are two things I might go on to add. The 9 reason that they have decided that is by -- certainly 10 detention is a serious issue. It's always temporary by its 11 nature. And the trial itself certainly is the most 12 significant gathering of evidence that will determine
13 ultimately the defendant's fate. And I would indicate that 14 the Fourth Circuit indicated in sentencing when people are 15 arguing about the contents of the presentence investigation
16 report, that they were permitted to do that by argument, and 17 that live testimony wasn't required. And certainly sentencing
18 would be a greater deprivation of liberty interest than 19 detention.

20 In addition, I would also indicate, as you have,
21 Mr. Walker, that Mr. Tanios, whatever I do here today, whether 22 I release you on conditions of the release, or whether I
23 detain you, that is reviewable by the District Court in this
24 matter in D.C. If I would determine to release you on bond,
25 the government could object to that, ask for a stay. If I

1 find that you are a danger to the community or a flight risk,
2 your attorneys in D.C., could then ask that they be heard
3 before the judge in Washington, D.C.

4 So for those reasons -- certainly, Mr. Walker, I will 5 keep in mind what you have said, but I think that the vast 6 majority of the argument support, and the cases out there
7 support the practice of proffering evidence. And I do think
8 the Maryland case was unusual in that regard. And so I will 9 listen to the government's evidence and if concerned about the 10 quality of it or the voracity of it, then I will accord it the 11 weight I believe necessary. And you can certainly point that 12 out in your argument in response to the proffer.

13 So with that, your objection is overruled. We shall 14 proceed.

15 MR. WALKER: Judge, we would like to request an 16 opportunity to call the case agent today, if that person is 17 the same person who provided the sworn statement of facts. So 18 we reserve that right given that we weren't put on notice of 19 the fact that he wouldn't be here. I presume that the agent
20 or someone standing in for the agent are appearing today by 21 Zoom. They are -- naturally they would have been here had we 22 not agreed to that and I don't think we would have agreed to 23 it if we knew that the government would make the decision at 24 the 11th hour not to call that witness.

25 We reserve the right to call that person, that agent, in

1 support of our position at this hearing today or at another
2 hearing if that person is not available. Thank you. I
3 believe the affiant is Riley Palmertree.

4 THE COURT: Your right is reserved. I will make my 5 decision today. And when my decision is made, then you can
6 talk with the D.C. counsel as to how they want to handle it,
7 whether the government appeals his release on bond or whether 8 you all appeal his detention.

9 With that, Ms. Wagner, you may continue.

10 MS. WAGNER: Thank you, Judge.

11 And just so that it's not an awkward introduction, I have 12 our paralegal specialist who is going to be displaying photo
13 and video with us, Ms. Jones.

14 THE COURT: Okay. That will be fine. Thank you.

15 MS. WAGNER: Your Honor, the evidence shows that at 16 approximately 1:00 p.m., on January 6, 2021, a crowd of 17 violent rioters had assembled on the Lower West Terrace of the 18 United States Capitol. United States Capitol Police had 19 formed a line of bike racks extending from one end of the 20 Lower West Terrace to the other to act as a barrier against 21 the crowd.

22 Officers were standing behind this line including 23 Officers Chapman, Edwards, and Officer Sicknick. And they 24 were acting as a barrier. They were standing behind this 25 barrier to fend off repeated attempts by the rioters to pull

1 on the bike racks with their hands or with ropes and straps.
2 The rioters were heckling, threatening, and throwing objects
3 at the officers at the police lines.

4 Surveillance footage of the incident shows George Tanios,
5 the defendant here, and his codefendant Julian Khater, working
6 together to assault law enforcement officers with an unknown
7 chemical substance by spraying the officers directly in the 8 face and eyes. Mr. Tanios and Mr. Khater appear in the video 9 to time the deployment of these chemical substances to 10 coincide with other rioters' efforts to forcibly remove the 11 bike racks that were preventing the rioters from moving closer
12 to the Capitol building.

13 Surveillance footage shows that at 2:09 p.m., Mr. Tanios
14 can be seen walking towards the Lower West Terrace with 15 Mr. Khater just behind him. And, Judge, I would like to show
16 Exhibit 1 at this time.

17 THE COURT: You may.

18 MS. WAGNER: This is Mr. Khater. He is wearing a 19 beanie with a pom-pom on top, a dark jacket, and he has a 20 beard.

21 That's Government Exhibit 1.

22 Judge, and Government Exhibit 2, this depicts Mr. Tanios
23 who is also wearing -- I'm sorry -- who is wearing a beard, a
24 red jacket -- I'm sorry -- a beard, a red hat and a dark
25 hooded sweatshirt. And Mr. Tanios is wearing a black

1 backpack. That is Government Exhibit 2.

2 And you will -- Mr. Tanios was also wearing an ear piece
3 in his ear.

4 Judge, we also provided Exhibits 3 and 4 which are pole
5 cam footage. They are quite lengthy compared to the other
6 clips, so we're not going to play the whole thing, Judge, but 7 what I want to show you that at various times between 8 2:09 p.m., and 2:14 p.m., Mr. Tanios and Mr. Khater are 9 videotaped interacting and engaging each other in animated
10 conversation while they are standing together. So if we could 11 play Exhibit 3 for a moment.

12 THE COURT: You may.

13 (Playing Government's Exhibit 3, a video, in open court).

14 MS. WAGNER: And the arrows, Judge, the yellow arrow
15 is Mr. Tanios and the red arrow is Mr. Khater. I'm sorry. I
16 think I have that backwards. The individual in the red cap
17 under the yellow arrow is Mr. Tanios. And Mr. Khater is 18 wearing that beanie with the pom-pom.

19 Judge, during the investigation law enforcement
20 discovered open source media video of the incident from 21 January 6, 2021. And on one video in particular, Mr. Khater
22 makes his way towards Mr. Tanios and asks him for bear spray
23 that Mr. Tanios is carrying for both of the men. That is 24 Exhibit 5, which I would like to play in full now.

25 (Playing Government's Exhibit 5, a video, in open court.)

1 MS. WAGNER: And Judge, it's a little bit hard to
2 hear because of all of the noise going on in the background,
3 but in the video, Mr. Khater asked Mr. Tanios to quote, give 4 me that bear shit. And then he reaches into the backpack on 5 Mr. Tanios' back, that Mr. Tanios is carrying for both 6 individuals, and Mr. Tanios then states, "Hold on, hold on,
7 not yet, not yet. It's still early."

8 And then, as I think the Court was able to hear,
9 Mr. Khater tells Mr. Tanios, "They just F-ing sprayed me."
10 And Mr. Khater is seen holding a white can with a black top
11 that appears to be a can of chemical spray.

12 The video surveillance also shows that Mr. Khater
13 continues talking with Mr. Tanios, and at approximately 14 2:20 p.m., Mr. Khater walks thru the crowd within a few steps
15 of the bike rack barrier. And I would like to play Exhibit 6 16 in full.

17 (Playing Government's Exhibit 6, a video, in open court.)

18 MS. WAGNER: And, Judge, what we just saw there
19 towards the end of the part where the video was slowed down
20 was Mr. Khater under the red arrow and the officers under the 21 green, yellow, and blue arrows at the moment that they were 22 being -- at the moment that they were being sprayed by 23 Mr. Khater. Mr. Khater is standing directly across from the 24 line of officers, and those officers are U.S. Capitol Police
25 Officer Brian Sicknick and Caroline Edwards, and Metropolitan

1 Police Department Officer Damian Chapman. And Officer Chapman
2 was wearing a body worn camera device, and you will see a clip
3 from that in one moment.

4 Officer Chapman's body cam shows that at 2:23 p.m., the 5 rioters begin pulling on the bike rack to his left using ropes
6 and their hands to pull the rack away. Seconds later
7 Mr. Khater is observed with his right arm up in the air
8 appearing to be holding a canister in his right hand and 9 aiming it in the direction of the officers while moving his 10 right arm from side to side. And Officer Chapman's body
11 camera, which we will now play, confirms that Mr. Khater was 12 standing only five to eight feet away from the officers.

13 (Playing Government's Exhibit 7, a video, in open court.)

14 MS. WAGNER: And, Judge, the footage and body cam
15 video show that officers Sicknick, Chapman, and Edwards who 16 were standing within just a few feet of Mr. Khater all react
17 one by one to what appears to be getting struck in the face
18 with chemical spray by Mr. Khater. And the officers, all
19 three, immediately retreat from the line, bringing their hands
20 to their faces and rushing to find water to rinse out their 21 eyes.

22 Now, I would like to play Exhibit 8.

23 (Playing Government's Exhibit 8, a video, in open court.)

24 MS. WAGNER: And, Judge, at the 2:23 p.m., on the 25 surveillance footage, Mr. Khater is again observed raising his

1 arm and continuing to spray in the direction of law
2 enforcement officers. At this point, Metropolitan Police
3 Department Lieutenant Bagshaw notices these actions and 4 approaches Mr. Khater.

5 And in Exhibit 9, you can -- you will -- it depicts
6 Lieutenant Bagshaw spraying Mr. Khater as observed both in the 7 video surveillance and Lieutenant Bagshaw's body cam. And 8 then Mr. Khater is seen fleeing the area.

9 Judge, these are three different angles played together.

11 MS. WAGNER: Judge, Officers Sicknick, Edwards, and 12 Chapman suffered injuries as a result of being sprayed in the 13 face with the unknown substance by Mr. Khater.

14 The officers were temporarily blinded by the substance or 15 temporarily disabled from performing their duties, and each
16 needed medical attention and assistance from fellow officers.
17 They were initially treated with water in an effort to wash
18 out the unknown substance from their eyes and on their face.
19 All three officers were incapacitate and unable to perform
20 their duties for at least 20 minutes or longer while they 21 recovered from the spray.

22 With respect to Officer Chapman, he immediately retreated
23 from the line to wash his eyes out with water, and after some 24 time returned to the line to assist his fellow officers, but 25 upon returning he found that his eyes were still burning. He

1 could not fully see and he could not perform his duties to his
2 full capacity, and so he was compelled to withdraw and 3 continue to address his having been sprayed by treating his 4 eyes with water. He confirmed later to investigators that he
5 had, in fact, been sprayed as depicted on the video camera, on 6 the video footage.

7 With respect to Officer Caroline Edwards, the body cam
8 footage of Metropolitan Police Department Officer Hawkins
9 shows Officer Edwards reacting and saying she was hit in the 10 face.

11 If we could play Exhibit 10, please. This is Officer
12 Hawkins' body worn camera.

13 (Playing Government's Exhibit 10, a video, in open
14 court.)

15 MS. WAGNER: Judge, as can you see, Officer Edwards
16 could not see. She had to be aided by a fellow officer who 17 had to give her verbal directions to her and physically lead
18 her through the scaffolding to safety. She certainly could 19 not perform her duties. And the chemical spray burned her
20 skin to such an extent that three weeks later she still had 21 scabbing under her eyes and required follow-up care with a 22 dermatologist. She described the spray to her face to 23 investigators as a substance as strong as, if not stronger
24 than any version of pepper spray she had been exposed to 25 during her training as a law enforcement officer.

1 Officer Sicknick reported to his supervisors and
2 colleagues that he had been pepper sprayed as well. And we
3 have two videos of Officer Sicknick, Judge. We are just going
4 to play a small portion of one of them, but you can see from 5 the video, that even ten minutes after the incident, Officer
6 Sicknick appears to be attempting to walk off the effects of 7 the pepper spray. He is rubbing and rinsing his eyes with 8 more water, and pausing at times while crouched over with his 9 hands on his knees.

10 And Officer Sicknick is the officer wearing blue in this
11 video.

12 (Playing Government's Exhibit 11, a video, in open
13 court.)

14 MS. WAGNER: And if we could play 12, also.

15 (Playing Government's Exhibit 12, a video, in open
16 court).

17 MS. WAGNER: Judge, based on the surveillance
18 footage, law enforcement prepared flyers of photographs of 19 Mr. Khater and Mr. Tanios, which were published along with 20 other individuals involved in the violence at the U.S. Capitol
21 on January 6th.

22 A tipster to the FBI provided information that Mr. Tanios
23 and Mr. Khater knew each other. Law enforcement received two 24 further tips that included a photo of Mr. Tanios at the 25 Capitol on January 6, 2021, that was determined to be from a

1 Facebook page belonging to an individual named George Pierre
2 Tanios, and confirmed that Mr. Tanios was wearing clothing
3 with the insignia of Sandwich University in both his profile
4 picture and his picture at the Capitol. The hooded sweatshirt
5 that Mr. Tanios is wearing in the Capitol picture appears
6 identical to the sweatshirt worn by Mr. Tanios in the 7 surveillance video.

8 Another tipster reported to law enforcement that 9 Mr. Tanios had bragged about going to the insurrection at the 10 Capitol on Facebook and that the tipster indicated that 11 Mr. Tanios owns the quote, Fat Sandwich Restaurant, end quote, 12 which law enforcement was able to corroborate.

13 Investigators also learned that Mr. Tanios and Mr. Khater
14 utilized cellular telephones to communicate on January 6,
15 2021, at the U.S. Capitol. Based on a review of video
16 footage, Mr. Khater was seen making or answering a telephone
17 call at 2:42 p.m., on January 6, 2021. And Mr. Tanios does 18 not appear to be physically near Mr. Khater at that time. The 19 call lasts approximately 20 seconds. And a review of Verizon
20 records for the telephone number associated with Mr. Khater,
21 showed that Mr. Khater was on a 21-second phone call with a
22 number known to be associated with Mr. Tanios.

23 Additional evidence obtained since the affidavit was 24 sworn out includes evidence that was seized from Mr. Tanios
25 and Mr. Khater's residences at the time search warrants were

1 executed in those locations on Sunday, March 14th and Monday,
2 March 15th, as well as information provided by Mr. Khater
3 during a statement given to law enforcement post Miranda
4 warning at the time of his arrest.

5 At Mr. Khater's residence in the dresser of a room that 6 Mr. Khater's father told investigators that Mr. Khater slept
7 in, law enforcement found a hat and gloves that matched
8 Mr. Khater is seen on the video wearing on January 6, 2021, at 9 the U.S. Capitol. On the bed in another room, which 10 Mr. Khater claimed was his own during statements made to law
11 enforcement, they found the Columbia brand jacket with a UNC
12 logo that Mr. Khater is seen in the video wearing on January
13 6, 2021 at the Capitol. And in the pocket of a separate green
14 jacket that was under the Columbia brand jacket law
15 enforcement found a spent canister of chemical spray.

16 At Mr. Tanios' residence, investigators found a black
17 backpack that appears to be identical to the one Mr. Tanios
18 wore at the Capitol on January 6th. Inside that backpack
19 investigators found a Sig Sauer 9mm handgun with Mr. Tanios'
20 wallet and driver's license.

21 Also in the residence, investigators found two canisters
22 of Frontiersman brand bear spray, which appeared to be in 23 tact, except for the safety valves on one of the cans had been 24 removed, and one smaller canister of chemical spray on a shelf
25 in a closet next to ammunition. The Frontiersman bear spray

1 canisters are consistent in color, shape, and size with the 2 canister that Mr. Khater was depicted holding in his hand in 3 one of the videos or still shots from the videos taken at the 4 U.S. Capitol on January 6, 2021.

5 If we could show Exhibit 13, please.

6 MS. WAGNER: Could we switch the camera? Oh, okay.
7 Sorry.

8 (Playing Government's Exhibit 13, a video, in open
9 court.)

10 MS. WAGNER: And the smaller canister of chemical
11 spray found in Mr. Tanios' residence matched the empty
12 canister found at Mr. Khater's residence. If we could show
13 Exhibit 14, which is the photo taken at the time of the search
14 warrant from Mr. Khater's house, and if we could put 15 side-by-side with that, Exhibit 15, which is the search

17 With respect to the statement given by Mr. Khater at the 18 time of his arrest last weekend, he told investigators that he 19 drove from New Jersey to Morgantown, West Virginia, to pick up
20 Mr. Tanios; that the two arrived in Washington, D.C., late in 21 the evening on January 5th or early in the morning of January
22 6th where they intended to attend a Trump rally on January 6, 23 2021.

24 Mr. Khater told law enforcement that Mr. Tanios purchased
25 the bear spray and two smaller canisters of pepper spray.

1 Mr. Khater acknowledged that he knew that the bear spray was
2 not intended for use on humans. Mr. Khater told investigators
3 that the two, he and Mr. Tanios, shared a backpack and that
4 Mr. Tanios carried the backpack for both of them. Mr. Khater
5 told law enforcement that he and Mr. Tanios stayed in same
6 hotel and took a Lyft to the Capitol together. Mr. Khater
7 acknowledged that after the spraying --

8 MR. WALKER: Judge, we object to this. I would like
9 to see a copy of the statement if it's going to be read
10 essentially into the record. I know we have summaries of it,
11 but -- we may have summaries of it, but I would like a copy of 12 that statement if it's now being introduced as additional 13 hearsay.

14 THE COURT: Did you provide them with a copy of the 15 summary, Ms. Wagner?

16 MS. WAGNER: I did not, Judge.

17 THE COURT: Do you have a copy?

18 MS. WAGNER: I don't believe I have a copy of it -- I
19 know I don't have a copy of it with me, but I can try to get 20 one.

21 THE COURT: Okay. I am going to overrule the 22 objection. I will afford the testimony -- or the proffer the 23 way I believe it merits. Go ahead.

24 MS. WAGNER: Mr. Khater acknowledged that after the 25 spraying he and Mr. Tanios stayed and that Mr. Khater climbed

1 the scaffolding to take pictures. And Mr. Khater told law
2 enforcement that he and Mr. Tanios then drove back together
3 and that Mr. Khater dropped Mr. Tanios off in Morgantown, West
4 Virginia.

5 Judge, we have also obtained information from an
6 individual named Scott Biddle. He is the manager of ATR
7 Performance in Morgantown. The manager reported that one or 8 two days prior to January 6, 2021, Mr. Tanios walked into ATR
9 while on the telephone. Mr. Tanios told the manager that he
10 and a friend that Mr. Tanios was on the phone with, were going
11 to the Trump rally in Washington, D.C. Mr. Tanios asked Mr.
12 Biddle if he could take his firearm to D.C. He responded no.
13 Mr. Tanios then asked if he could take a pepper ball gun which 14 was located near the cash register at the store to D.C., and 15 the manager, again, responded no, because it shot projectiles.
16 The specific pepper ball gun that Mr. Tanios asked about is 17 the HDP Prepared to Protect .50 caliber pepper ball pistol.

18 Mr. Tanios then walked over to the section of the store
19 where Mace was located and asked the manager if he could carry
20 Mace in D.C. The manager responded, yes, so long as the Mace
21 was aerosol based. Mr. Tanios purchased two cans of 22 Frontiersman brand bear spray, which is the only bear spray
23 that ATR carries. Mr. Tanios also purchased two pepper sprays
24 that were on key chains. Mr. Tanios told the manager that he 25 and his friend would carry the pepper spray on their person in

1 D.C., and put the bear spray in the car. The manager provided
2 the receipt he believed to coincide with Mr. Tanios' purchase.
3 It was dated January 5th, 2021, at 5:09 p.m. The manager told
4 the agent that that was the only combination of bear spray,
5 pepper spray, that he could remember being sold in the store.
6 And phone records belonging to Mr. Khater show a 39-second
7 call between Mr. Khater's number and Mr. Tanios' number at 8 4:58 p.m., on January 5th, 2021. And again, the receipt was 9 January 5th, 2021, at 5:09 p.m.

10 That is the evidence that we would proffer for the 11 Court's consideration.

12 THE COURT: Thank you. Did you -- it seemed to me
13 the proffer had to do with -- primarily with the 14 dangerousness. What would be the government's position on 15 flight risk?

16 MS. WAGNER: Judge, our -- and I do have argument to 17 make, but I would proffer that as to flight, a known tipster
18 to the FBI has provided information that Mr. Tanios' mother
19 has indicated if he is released the family will attempt to get
20 him to Lebanon where the family has ties. And so if you want
21 to hear our argument now, I am happy to provide it, but our 22 position is that Mr. Tanios is a flight risk as well as a
23 danger to the community.

24 THE COURT: Okay. I will hear your argument, but 25 nothing else to proffer on it?

1 MS. WAGNER: That is the entire proffer, Judge.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

3 Ms. Gross, Mr. Walker, you all may make your proffer or 4 offer witnesses.

5 MR. WALKER: Judge, I'd like to ask for a copy of the 6 statement from the gentleman who apparently works at the 7 firearms dealership. And, Judge, this is the first we are 8 hearing about an informant in this case. We would like to 9 request any documented information relating to that person's 10 statement to the FBI. And again, we think that given the 11 nature of this case and given the seriousness of it, the 12 nature of the allegations, that live witnesses should be 13 present.

14 I mean, that is a scandalous thing to say about a hard
15 working family, of small business people from New Jersey, and 16 many of whom are here and many of whom are prepared to testify
17 today and surely they will rebut that claim. We think that if 18 the government would introduce an allegation like that, that 19 the entire family will conspire to obstruct the judicial 20 process before this Court, that a witness should be required.

21 THE COURT: Okay. I understand your position. And 22 certainly I will take that under advisement after I hear what 23 your witnesses have to say.

24 So are you all ready to present your first witness?

25 MS. GROSS: Judge, we are ready. If we could just

1 have one second quickly to confer.

2 Thank you, Judge. While we are on this topic, I think I
3 would like to have my first witness be Mr. Tanios' mother who
4 is available by Zoom. If the Court could unmute her, her name
5 is -- oh, can you find her on the --

6 THE COURT: I think Ms. Diamond is the one who is in 7 charge of this.

8 MS. DIAMOND: Yeah.

9 THE COURT: So Ms. Diamond -- tell us the name of the 10 individual you are calling, Ms. Gross.

11 MS. GROSS: Magey Tanios. Or it could be under his 12 -- I don't know if it's under her name, or it might be under 13 Maria, which is George's sister. But his mother is with the 14 sister on Zoom.

15 THE COURT: Sister has the same last name?

16 MS. GROSS: Yes. No? Boutros.

17 THE COURT: Any of you all able to communicate with 18 Ms. Diamond? Okay.

19 MS. DIAMOND: I'm here, Judge. What were those names
20 again?

21 MS. GROSS: Maria Boutros, or it could be under Magey
22 Tanios, M-A-G-I-E [sic.]. I do hear somebody. Who is it?

23 MS. BOUTROS: This is Maria. I am next to my mother,
24 Magey. And my father is here right next to me as well.

25 MS. GROSS: Perfect. Thank you so much.

1 THE COURT: Go ahead and ask her -- at this time, I
2 would ask that the witness -- and again her name is?

3 MS. GROSS: Magey Tanios.

4 THE COURT: Ms. Tanios, if you would raise your right
5 hand, please, and be sworn by the clerk.

6 MAGEY TANIOS, DEFENSE WITNESS, SWORN

7 THE COURT: Okay. You may proceed. And again, I
8 have to ask our reporter, hold on a second. Are you hearing
9 that okay?

10 COURT REPORTER: Yes, sir.

11 THE WITNESS: All right, Judge. This not too good.
12 I have to speak.

13 DIRECT EXAMINATION

14 BY MS. GROSS:

15 Q. Hi, Ms. Tanios. This is Beth Gross. I represent your 16 son, and I am sitting next to him in court. I don't think you
17 can probably see me, but I am raising my hand for you. And 18 George is next to me here. I just want to ask you a few
19 questions for the Court. Okay?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Could tell the Court your full name, so they have it for 22 the record?

23 A. Okay. My name is Magey Pieria Tanios.

24 COURT REPORTER: Spelling, please.

25 Q. Could you please spell it for us?

1 A. M-A-G-E-Y. Rest of it too? T-A-N-I-O-S.

2 COURT REPORTER: There is another name.

3 MS. GROSS: Oh, the middle name.

4 Q. Your middle name, ma'am?

5 A. P-I-E-R-I-A. I'm sorry.

6 THE COURT: I'm sorry, Ms. Gross. There is someone
7 else appearing on the screen. I think the witness should be 8 sequestered. I don't know who that is.

9 MS. GROSS: If we could just mute that one.

11 BY MS. GROSS:

12 Q. Okay. Sorry, ma'am. We are going to start all over
13 again. Okay. So I am just going to ask you a few questions
14 about your relationship with George. George is your son; is 15 that right?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And can you tell us a little bit about where George was 18 raised. Where did you raise your family?

19 A. I raise my family -- you want me to tell you how I came 20 to United States?

21 Q. Sure.

22 A. If you don't want --

23 Q. Sure. That's okay.

24 A. (Indiscernible) --

25 COURT REPORTER: I'm sorry --

1 A. -- lost my father. I lose my mother. I lost my sister.

2 THE COURT: Hold on, Ms. Gross. I apologize, I
3 interrupted at such a moment, but -- (To the court reporter)
4 Did you have trouble understanding?

5 COURT REPORTER: The first part, yes.

6 A. I said I want to come to United States. United States,
7 she is the country for all the world. I said I need peace. I
8 came to United States when I am 20 years old. I start -- I
9 work from beginning, no money, no nothing, with a broken
10 heart. I raised my kids to work a 12-hour day, 12 hours in a
11 day with a small (indiscernible) in New Brunswick. If you
12 like to ask about us, where we are, please go ahead. And 13 (inaudible) --

14 (Zoom audio interference.)

15 A. -- I raised my kids with the church. I go every Sunday.
16 I send him to private school. My son, he is not bad kid. I
17 raised him with praying every morning, with praying at night.
18 I be honest with you. I don't like bad kids. And my son,
19 when he did that, he is wrong place, at wrong time.

20 Q. I understand. Can you tell us what did you do -- you
21 mentioned your employment whenever George was a young boy.
22 What did you do in New Brunswick? That's where you lived; is 23 that correct?

24 A. Yes. We lived in small (indiscernible) near the 25 courthouse and city hall (indiscernible).

1 Q. You ran a luncheon?

2 A. Yes, more or less. Lebanese food.

3 Q. You guys were small business owners in New Brunswick?

4 A. Yes, about 30 years.

5 Q. Okay. And George went to school his whole life and lived
6 his whole life in the same town?

7 A. Yes, in St. Peter School. It's Catholic school we send 8 my kids.

9 Q. Okay. And does George have any brothers or sisters?

10 A. Yes. He have a brother, he (indiscernible) and have one
11 sister (indiscernible).

12 THE COURT: And I would say, Ms. Gross, I can't 13 imagine how difficult it is for her. I don't have a problem
14 with you repeating things if the government does not.

15 MS. GROSS: If I lead a little bit, I apologize.

16 Q. Okay. I am going to ask you a few pointed questions,
17 ma'am, and then I will let you end. Okay?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Do you keep in touch with George now that he has been in 20 West Virginia?

21 A. Of course. He had three beautiful kids (indiscernible).

22 Q. Have you once lived in Morgantown when George was living
23 here as well?

24 A. I lived three years only.

25 Q. You lived here for three years when George was working

1 here?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And you ran a restaurant in Morgantown with him; isn't 4 that right?

5 A. Yes. That's true and (indiscernible).

6 Q. And now that restaurant is no longer in Morgantown; is 7 that correct?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Okay. And after that, you moved back home to New Jersey?

10 A. I moved back to New Jersey because all of my 11 (indiscernible). I want --

12 Q. Do you talk to George regularly on the phone?

13 A. Of course. He is my son. He have three kids, of course,
14 but we (indiscernible) talk about politics.

15 Q. And he has -- you have three grandchildren that are 16 George's; is that right?

17 A. Yes. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. Is there anything else that you think that I
19 should be asking you for the Court to know? I want you to be 20 able to just calm down a little bit, so I don't want to ask
21 you too many questions to upset you.

22 A. Don't worry. Don't worry.

23 Q. Okay.

24 A. I am saying the truth. That's it.

25 Q. I have one more question that might upset you, okay, but

1 I have to ask. So today, I don't know if you could hear a few
2 moments ago, but it was alleged that you had told someone that 3 if George were to be released, you would get him out of the 4 country; is that true?

5 A. (Indiscernible) 40 years in the United States what you
6 talking about? What you talking about? I am (indiscernible).
7 This is my country. That's United States. God bless United 8 States.

9 Q. I understand.

10 A. What you talking about?

11 THE COURT: Ms. Gross --

12 A. I raised my kids, here. We are Americans.

13 Q. I understand that, ma'am. If you could just answer yes
14 or no. I assume your answer is no by the way you are 15 reacting; is that correct?

16 A. No, of course not.

17 Q. Okay. We are good on questions right now for you, ma'am.
18 I appreciate your testimony, and I just -- you know, I very 19 much appreciate your time here. And I understand you are 20 upset, and that is okay. But we are going to move on to a
21 different witness for George at this time. Okay?

22 THE COURT: Don't leave.

23 A. Thank you so much.

24 Q. You stay here on the Zoom here for a second. The 25 government has the opportunity to ask you some questions.

1 Okay?

2 A. Exactly. Thank you.

3 Q. You're welcome.

4 THE COURT: Did you have any questions, Ms. Wagner?

5 MS. WAGNER: No. I don't have any questions for 6 Ms. Tanios.

7 THE COURT: Ms. Tanios, while your testimony is done,
8 we will mute you, but you are welcome to continue to watch the 9 proceedings. Thank you --

10 THE WITNESS: Thank you so much, Judge. Thank you,
11 Judge.

12 THE COURT: -- for being here.

13 Ms. Gross, you may call your next witness.

14 MS. GROSS: Thank you. The rest of our witnesses
15 will be in person, Judge. So I think we can alleviate some of 16 the Zoom issues.

17 I would next like to call Amanda Plumley, which is 18 Mr. Tanios' fiancée.

19 THE COURT: Thank you.

20 MS. GROSS: And (inaudible) will go get her for me.

21 THE COURT: If you would come in, please, and walk to 22 the front of the courtroom. Yes, please, just right where the 23 clerk is.

24 AMANDA PLUMLEY, DEFENSE WITNESS, SWORN

25 THE COURT: Ma'am, it's okay for you while you are

1 enclosed to pull your mask down --

2 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

3 THE COURT: -- so you can be better understood, and 4 there is also water if you would like.

5 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

7 BY MS. GROSS:

8 Q. Hi, Amanda. If you could please just say your full name
9 and spell it out for the court reporter.

10 A. Amanda Lynn Plumley. A-M-A-N-D-A, L-Y-N-N,
11 P-L-U-M-L-E-Y.

12 Q. Okay. Thank you. Amanda, if you could just give us kind 13 of a little bit of background about your relationship with 14 George. Who is George to you?

15 A. George is my partner of ten -- almost ten years, the 16 father of our three children. We have two dogs. We have 17 worked together throughout the years, and -- I'm sorry.

18 Q. It's okay. I can ask you more specific questions.

19 A. Yeah, please.

20 Q. That's okay. You mentioned that you guys have been 21 together for ten years. Where did you meet?

22 A. We meet at -- through my old roommate. She worked for 23 him at his bar, and we met at a bar.

24 Q. That's okay. Where is the bar located?

25 A. Morgantown, West Virginia.

1 Q. Okay. And when you met George, you guys just started
2 dating in Morgantown through your friend; is that right?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Okay. And eventually, your relationship got more
5 serious. Did you guys move in together?

6 A. Yeah.

7 Q. And do you have -- you mentioned you have three children
8 together. How young are your children?

9 A. Our older son is four. And this past summer we had 10 identical twin boys, and they are seven, almost eight months
11 now.

12 Q. Okay. What's George like as a father?

13 A. Fun.

14 Q. That's okay. I know George currently runs a business.
15 Can you tell us about the business? You run it together?

16 A. Yes. It's a, you know, like a late night sandwich shop,
17 and, you know, we have been changing through the Covid and 18 rebranded it a little bit. We have a lot of like virtual
19 restaurants. It's more delivery, take out focused. We used
20 to be downtown and we had to move, but -- so he works a lot;
21 late night hours, and...

22 Q. Sure. And those restaurant businesses, are they all
23 based out of Morgantown as well?

24 A. Yeah. It's all from one building, like, we would have,
25 like -- kind of, like, ghost kitchens, virtual restaurants.

1 Q. Okay. And you guys own the main business. What is it
2 called?

3 A. Sandwich University.

4 Q. Okay. And how long have you guys been running that 5 together?

6 A. Almost six years --

7 Q. Okay.

8 A. -- I think, yeah.

9 Q. Okay. And you described it as kind of like a -- is it
10 mostly college students eat at the Sandwich University?

11 A. When it was downtown, it was more focused on the 12 late-night crowd. We have rebranded it, so it's more of just 13 anybody, take out delivery.

14 Q. Okay. And up until Covid, that business was pretty 15 lucrative for you guys?

16 A. Yeah.

17 Q. Can you tell me about your home in Morgantown? Have you
18 worked -- have you guys lived there long?

19 A. We have always lived in Morgantown, but the residence
20 that we are at right now, we just moved there this past summer
21 because we are a growing family.

22 Q. You moved into a bigger place?

23 A. In June, yeah.

24 Q. But you have been living in Morgantown together the 25 entire time you have been together?

1 A. Not the entire time, like, within the first year of 2 dating we moved in together, yeah.

3 Q. Okay. Have you ever lived outside of Morgantown with 4 George?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Okay. Can you tell me a little bit about George's
7 personality? Is he a calm person?

8 A. Yeah, for the most part. I mean, he works hard and hangs
9 out with his family.

10 Q. Okay. So that's what he does whenever he is not working, 11 he is at home?

12 A. Yes. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. Whenever -- I know that George has a passport. Do
14 you have that at your house?

15 A. Yes. I already sent it -- well, I didn't send it, but I
16 sent a photo to the probation officer who contacted me.

17 Q. Okay. If we needed the passport to be handed over, could 18 you bring it?

19 A. Yes. Yes. Absolutely.

20 Q. Okay. And I know whenever George got arrested, it was a 21 stressful time, but you were very cooperative with law
22 enforcement; is that right?

23 A. Yes, extremely. And they were very kind as well.

24 Q. Okay. Let me just check with my co-counsel here. You
25 also have a few firearms in the home; is that correct?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Do you have access to those?

3 A. I have already had a registered gun owner come and take
4 them, and everything is gone.

5 Q. Okay. So they are no longer in your home?

6 A. No. I let the probation officer know that as well.

7 Q. Okay. Great. Is there any -- any other weapons or 8 anything like that in the home?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Okay. As far as George, whenever things were -- before
11 this happened, George worked a lot of hours per week; is that 12 correct?

13 A. Uh-huh.

14 Q. How many hours do you think he worked a week?

15 A. Eighty to 100.

16 Q. Hard worker?

17 A. Yeah. Well, I -- we have children, so I could no longer
18 be in the store as much.

19 Q. So George works more and you are home more?

20 A. Yeah.

21 Q. Okay.

22 MS. GROSS: I think that's pretty much it that I have 23 for you for now, Amanda. Thank you so much.

24 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

25 THE COURT: Do you have any questions, Ms. Wagner?

1 MS. WAGNER: No, I do not.

2 THE COURT: Okay. You may be excused.

3 And do you see any reason that you would want her to 4 remain in the courtroom, Ms. Wagner?

5 MS. WAGNER: I don't, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Okay. You are welcome -- you just need
7 to distance yourself. You are welcome to stay in the 8 courtroom. You just need to distance yourself, but you are 9 welcome to stay in the courtroom if you would like.

10 MS. GROSS: Thank you, Judge. I do have another
11 witness. Her name is Shadoe Lowers.

12 THE COURT: Ma'am, if you would stop right where you
13 are, and the clerk is going to administer an oath, and then 14 you may have a seat.

15 SHADOE LOWERS, DEFENSE WITNESS, SWORN

16 THE COURT: You may have a seat here, and once you
17 are seated, you may remove your mask so we can hear you more 18 clearly. There is also water if you would like.

19 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

20 DIRECT EXAMINATION

21 BY MS. GROSS:

22 Q. Hi Shadoe. Can you see me pretty good?

23 A. Yes, I can.

24 Q. Okay. If you could please just say your full name and 25 spell it for the court reporter.

1 A. My name is Shadoe Lowers. S-H-A-D-O-E, L-O-W-E-R-S.

2 Q. Thank you, so much. Shadoe, if you could just tell the
3 Court just the background of your relationship with George.
4 How do you know him?

5 A. I am a friend and former employee of George.

6 Q. Okay. And when you say "former employee," of what --
7 what place were you his employee and when was that?

8 A. I worked for a business that he previously owned as a
9 bartender at Fourth and Goal.

10 Q. Okay. And was that in Morgantown?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And when was that again, sorry? Do you remember the 13 date, the year?

14 A. About 2011, 2012.

15 Q. Okay. Was that in downtown?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. And I know that you -- Amanda had previously
18 mentioned that she was introduced to George by her roommate.
19 Were you her roommate?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. So you introduced George and Amanda?

22 A. Yes, I did.

23 Q. How long ago was that?

24 A. 2011, 2012.

25 Q. Okay. And have you guys remained close ever since?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. How often would you say you see Amanda or George?

3 A. Every several months.

4 Q. Okay.

5 A. Talk to them pretty often, though.

6 Q. Okay. You guys communicate on the phone?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Did you move somewhere else? You are not in Morgantown
9 anymore?

10 A. No. I live two hours away.

11 Q. Okay. And whenever you introduced Amanda and George,
12 was -- she was your roommate, right?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Were you guys WVU students together?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Okay. Was she -- was Amanda also working at the bar or 17 no?

18 A. She -- we worked together at another bar, but she did not 19 work at Fourth and Goal.

20 Q. Okay. Whenever George was basically your boss at Fourth
21 and Goal, kind of what was he like as an employer?

22 A. You know, he is a tough boss. No nonsense. But he 23 always worked around my schedules. Like I said, I worked at 24 another bar and I was a student, so -- he knew that being a 25 student was my priority, so he was tough, but he was

1 reasonable.

2 Q. Okay. Would you say -- was there ever any instances at 3 the bar that George had to, you know, have a problem within a
4 bar, college students fighting or any violence in the bar?

5 A. As a college bar, especially downtown, I mean, there is a
6 lot of fights and violence, yes.

7 Q. How was George -- how did George react to incidents like 8 that?

9 A. He always handled it without resorting to violence
10 himself. With the help of the bouncers and himself he would 11 take care of the situation without resorting to violence
12 himself.

13 Q. So you have not known George to be a violent person?

14 A. I cannot remember a time he has ever been violent.

15 Q. Okay. As far as your relationship with George now, I
16 know you know George as a friend, what is George like as a
17 friend and father?

18 A. George is a great father, and he is a great to my friend
19 Amanda. His oldest soon adores him. He is very encouraging.
20 As a friend, you know, as I have made different career choices
21 and have grown, I mean he has witnessed me be a college
22 student to a young adult and he has always encouraged me, and 23 supported my decisions. He is an entrepreneur himself, so he 24 has always encouraged that of us.

25 Q. That's really great. Thank you so much. I don't have

1 anything else, Shadoe. I appreciate your testimony.

2 A. Thank you.

3 THE COURT: Do you have any questions for the 4 witness, Ms. Wagner?

5 MS. WAGNER: I do not, Judge.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Any objection to her remaining in 7 the courtroom if she so desires?

8 MS. WAGNER: No, Judge.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Ma'am, you are welcome to stay in 10 the courtroom if you would like, just distance yourself. If 11 you need to leave, I understand that too, and we will excuse
12 you.

13 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

14 THE COURT: Thank you.

15 MS. GROSS: I have another witness, Judge. He goes
16 by Michael, but his full name is --

17 THE COURT: Well, just bring him in and he will --

18 MS. GROSS: It's a name that's hard for me to 19 pronounce.

20 THE COURT: -- introduce himself, and spell it on the 21 record. If you would call your next witness, please.

22 MS. GROSS: Michael Scottodiluzio.

23 MR. WALKER: Your Honor, that witness is coming in.
24 We offer Mr. Tanios' passport to the Court or to the US
25 probation office during the pendency of this case if that is

1 agreeable to the Court.

2 THE COURT: Thank you. Thank you, Mr. Walker. I
3 think it is appropriate to present it to the probation
4 officer. Who --

5 MS. GROSS: It's Ms. Grilli.

6 THE COURT: Oh, there she is in the front row. Thank
7 you.

8 Sir, if you would come forward, please. Walk all the 9 way forward, stand -- if you would state your name, please,
10 and then spell it for the record.

11 THE WITNESS: Yes. It's Michela Scottodiluzio.
12 M-I-C-H-E-L-A, S-C-O-T-T-O-D-I-L-U-Z-I-O.

13 MICHELA SCOTTODILUZIO, DEFENSE WITNESS, SWORN

14 MS. GROSS: Can I call you Michael?

15 THE WITNESS: Yes.

16 MS. GROSS: That would be a lot easier for me. I
17 appreciate it.

18 THE COURT: And, sir, you are welcome to remove your 19 mask, so you can be heard more clearly.

20 MS. GROSS: And we have his name for the record; is 21 that correct?

22 COURT REPORTER: Yes, ma'am.

23 DIRECT EXAMINATION

24 BY MS. GROSS:

25 Q. Hi Michael. I am just going to ask you a few questions,

1 pretty open-ended. If you could just start by telling us how
2 you know George.

3 A. So I met George when I moved to Morgantown a few years
4 back. I also own a restaurant. And we made acquaintances by,
5 you know, through work.

6 Q. Sure. What restaurant do you -- or did you own or do you
7 own?

8 A. It's called The Pizza Place.

9 Q. Okay. And is that in Morgantown as well?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay. So did you start your business in Morgantown just 12 a few years ago; is that right?

13 A. Correct. October of 2018.

14 Q. Okay. And when you say you met George through business,
15 just describe that to me, your meeting through the business.

16 A. So being new in town, I was just kind of reaching out to 17 other locally-owned businesses trying to collaborate and help
18 build a brand and kind of outreach, build a new customer base
19 and stuff.

20 Q. How did George, you know, communicate with you, or how 21 did he help you in that manner?

22 A. So we worked together previously, kind of collaborating
23 with our two different menus, and making -- you know, selling
24 items with menu items from both of our stores.

25 Q. So you actually collaborated with your products

1 themselves, the food?

2 A. Yes, uh-huh.

3 Q. Okay. And what was that like with George? Was that a
4 good relationship?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay. And whenever -- you said you own a restaurant now.
7 Do you also -- you don't live in Morgantown anymore; is that
8 correct?

9 A. No. I do.

10 Q. Oh, you still do. Okay. So you still have a
11 relationship with George in Morgantown?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. Do you hang out with him just for business or also 14 friendly?

15 A. We have hung out a few times outside of -- outside of 16 business as well.

17 Q. Okay. And what is his demeanor like? What is his 18 character?

19 A. He seems like a very -- to me, like, he is a trustworthy
20 person. I have never had any issues. He has always been 21 honest, and, you know, we have never had a bad relationship.
22 I was -- actually prior to Covid, I was looking to host an 23 event for kids with special needs, and he was one of the first 24 people that I reached out to and got a commitment with to --
25 he was going to donate food for the event.

1 Q. Okay. Have you ever known George to have a violent
2 demeanor or be violent?

3 A. No.

4 Q. Okay. I don't have any other questions for you. Thank 5 you so much.

6 A. Thank you.

7 THE COURT: Do you have any questions, Ms. Wagner?

8 MS. WAGNER: I do not, Judge.

9 THE COURT: May he also remain in the courtroom if he 10 so desires?

11 MS. WAGNER: Yes.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Sir, you need to put your mask
13 back on. Your testimony is finished. You are welcome to stay
14 in the courtroom if you would like, just distance yourself
15 with your mask. However, if you need to leave, you're a 16 business man, you are welcome to leave and you are excused.
17 Thank you.

18 Ms. Gross.

19 MS. GROSS: Thank you, Judge. I think (inaudible) is 20 going to get -- I have another witness that is in person. His 21 name is James Keller.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Gross, how many other
23 witnesses do you anticipate?

24 MS. GROSS: I have one more that is via Zoom, and 25 that's it.

1 THE COURT: Okay. I was just going to -- I started
2 to hesitate to keep people in chambers, but we are good in the 3 courtroom.

4 MS. GROSS: Never mind, Judge. I just have -- I
5 don't have James available. I just would like to call his 6 sister, who is already on our line. And she is there with his 7 mother. Her name is Maria, but she is with Magey which is on 8 the Zoom.

9 THE COURT: Ms. Diamond, if you can locate the 10 witness with that information and go ahead and unmute her, so
11 she may testify.

12 MS. GROSS: There she is. Maria, can you hear me?

13 THE WITNESS: Yes. Good morning.

14 MS. GROSS: Okay. Great.

15 DIRECT EXAMINATION

16 BY MS. GROSS:

17 Q. If you could state your full name and spell it out for 18 the court reporter that would be great. Thank you.

19 A. Sure. It's Maria, M-A-R-I-A, Boutros, B-O-U-T-R-O-S.

20 Q. Thank you so much. Maria, I'm going to do a little 21 almost substitution --

22 THE COURT: Hold on. I don't think she is sworn. We 23 have to swear you in Maria.

24 MARIA BOUTROS, DEFENSE WITNESS, SWORN

25 BY MS. GROSS:

1 Q. Maria, I'm going to get you to do a little bit of
2 background for me just because it was a little bit more
3 difficult with your mom to kind of get through a few things.

5 A. Okay.

6 Q. If you could kind of give me the family background that
7 your mom was trying to tell the Court, basically, you know,
8 your family history, why are you in New Jersey, how did you
9 guys get there, and then we will move on to the next question.
10 Okay?

11 A. Sure. So my parents came to the states to give us a 12 better life, with everything going on in Lebanon during the 13 civil war. So they moved here just to start fresh. They 14 started from nothing. They put us in great schools. We grew
15 up around the church, always being around family. We are very 16 family oriented. Majority of my family, both mom and dad's
17 side are all in New Jersey.

18 George was actually the first one baptized in our church,
19 which has been like a growing community. But he unfortunately 20 moved away to Morgantown. And it's been upsetting. We have,
21 you know, he has a family. We have always wanted them to be 22 closer.

23 Q. Sure. Sure. I understand.

24 A. Sorry.

25 Q. Go ahead. And I don't want to interrupt you, but I just

1 wanted to ask you, you mentioned about your church, your local
2 church. What is that church's name?

3 A. St. Sharbel.

4 Q. Okay. And your whole family goes there; is that right?

5 A. Every Sunday.

6 Q. Okay. And are you George's older sister or younger?

7 A. No. I am his baby sister.

8 Q. Okay. How far in age are you guys separate?

9 A. Between seven and eight years apart.

10 Q. Okay. So George has been a part of your whole life; is 11 that right?

12 A. Yes. I -- actually growing up, I always call him dad.
13 He was just always very protective, wanted the best for me.
14 My dad is more laid back and calm, so George was always there
15 to push me to do better.

16 Q. Okay. And can you just describe George's -- you know,
17 whenever George was in school, you were a good bit younger
18 than him, but what was George like in school?

19 A. Very outgoing, passionate, driven, honest. He always 20 pushed himself to be the best. If he wanted something, he had 21 to work for it, and -- may I have a tissue? Sorry.

22 Q. That's okay.

23 A. Just honest, motivated, hard working. Always working. I
24 always would tell him, stop working, stop working, you have to 25 spend time with the family. He always wanted the best for

1 everyone around him.

2 Q. And you don't know George to have a violent character, do
3 you?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Can you describe his demeanor normally to you and 6 everyone you know?

7 A. He is a jokester, funny, and just always -- he just 8 wanted the best for everyone around him.

9 Q. You don't know George to have a violent criminal past, do
10 you?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Have you ever seen George be violent?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Whenever George moved to Morgantown, how often would you
15 say you guys have communicated?

16 A. All the time actually. If he was working, I was always 17 speaking to his fiance, every single day.

18 Q. So you have a very close relationship still?

19 A. Yes. Yes. Of course. We try to see each other as much 20 as possible. Mostly at least holidays so that we can have the 21 whole family together.

22 Q. Sure. Have you ever been to Morgantown to visit George 23 and his family?

24 A. Yes. Of course.

25 Q. Okay.

1 A. I used to live there years ago, but I moved back to start
2 my own family. I was there about three and a half years.

3 Q. Okay. Were you here when your mom was also here?

4 A. Of course, for a short period of time, about one year.

5 Q. Okay. And have you ever been in any business with George 6 at all?

7 A. Yeah.

8 Q. So you were one of his employees as well?

9 A. Yeah.

10 Q. Okay. And how is George as a boss compared to a brother?

11 A. Tough too. He opened up a small convenient store. I
12 didn't know what I was doing. I had just gotten out of 13 college. He threw me into the store and said, "You have to 14 figure out everything by yourself," and I did the best I 15 could.

16 Q. And was that store in Morgantown?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. Was that one of the first businesses he opened up?

19 A. One of the first.

20 Q. Okay. I don't think I have any other questions about 21 your relationship with George. I just wanted to say thank you
22 to you and your family for participating. Thank you so much.

23 THE COURT: Did you have any questions for the 24 witness, Ms. Wagner?

25 MS. WAGNER: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Ma'am, you may continue to watch
2 the proceedings, although we are going to mute you now. Thank
3 you for being here today.

4 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

5 MS. GROSS: Judge, that concludes our witnesses, live
6 and on Zoom.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 MS. GROSS: Hold on. I have to confer with 9 Mr. Walker about that actually.

10 THE COURT: You may do so.

11 (Defense counsel confer off the record.)

12 MS. GROSS: Judge, actually we would like to call
13 another witness and I assume it's via Zoom, Agent Palmertree.

14 THE COURT: Is he available?

15 MS. WAGNER: Judge, I believe he is on Zoom.

16 THE COURT: What would be --

17 MS. WAGNER: Our position is, Your Honor, he is not 18 subject to cross-examination because we did not present his 19 testimony. And we believe that the Court can take into 20 consideration his affidavit, and weigh the government's 21 proffer and we don't believe the defense is entitled to 22 cross-examine him.

23 MR. WALKER: Judge, we don't want to cross-examine 24 him. We want to call him as a witness in our case and we want
25 to conduct a direct examination, it's our intention.

1 THE COURT: What do you expect from that -- because I
2 have to tell you, Mr. Walker, it doesn't -- it just seems like
3 it's an opportunity to discover information in a stage that is 4 early in the process, that typically would not be available.

5 MR. WALKER: Judge, we want to find out -- we think
6 that the Court needs to know and we need to establish the 7 nature of the investigation. We want to ask about the 8 particular observations and the interviews that the agent
9 conducted to make the determinations that our client is guilty
10 of a federal crime. We want to test and explore the weight of 11 the evidence as it relates to all of the charged offenses.
12 This Court has to consider -- I mean, this just goes back to 13 the Hammond case. This Court has to consider the weight of 14 the evidence. And the only way at this point in time for our 15 office to explore that and develop that aspect of the case,
16 which is a critical factor, is to call the agent as a witness.

17 Now, obviously, we don't have this witness under subpoena
18 because it was our understanding and we, in fact, agreed that 19 the agent could appear today by Zoom. He is available. And 20 we are asking for an opportunity to ask him all about the 21 investigation and what his findings were. Thank you.

22 THE COURT: Where do you think the government's 23 evidence is inadequate as to the events that happened, and 24 that your client was there when it occurred?

25 MR. WALKER: Judge, I don't think that I have a

1 burden to establish --

2 THE COURT: No, no. I understand that.

3 MR. WALKER: -- that there are certain problems with 4 the government's case before I call the witness. We want to 5 ask questions. We want to find out what he knows.

6 The government gave a summary. The government gave a
7 proffer. We want to hear what the actual evidence is. I
8 think it is irresponsible and not the best course to present
9 the information in support of detention in this case without 10 calling a single witness.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Let's go ahead -- I am going to 12 make the agent available. So if you would, please -- if the 13 agent will appear, please, and then I will place him under 14 oath. You may ask questions, Mr. Walker.

15 Okay. Agent, if you would identify yourself for the 16 record, please.

17 THE WITNESS: Can you hear me, Judge?

18 THE COURT: Yes, sir, I can. Thank you.

19 THE WITNESS: My name is Special Agent Riley
20 Palmertree with the FBI. My first name is spelled R-I-L-E-Y.
21 My last name is spelled P-A-L-M-E-R-T-R-E-E.

22 THE COURT: Okay. If you would raise your right
23 hand, please, to be sworn by the clerk.

24 RILEY PALMERTREE, GOVERNMENT'S WITNESS, SWORN

1 THE COURT: You may proceed.

3 BY MR. WALKER:

4 Q. Agent Palmertree, good afternoon. This is Richard
5 Walker. Can you see and hear me?

6 A. I can.

7 Q. Okay. I'm an assistant federal public defender here in 8 West Virginia, and I am one of the attorneys representing 9 Mr. Tanios. You are probably aware of that.

10 Have you listened to the hearing so far today?

11 A. Yes, I have.

12 Q. All right. So I want to ask some questions about your 13 investigation. When did you become involved in the 14 investigation of Mr. Tanios?

15 A. I became involved in an overall investigation around 16 January 7, 2021, regarding the incidence that occurred on the 17 Capitol January 6, 2021.

18 Q. Is your duty station in Washington, D.C.?

19 A. It is.

20 Q. Can you explain when you became aware of Mr. Tanios and 21 tell us how you began the investigation of him specifically?

22 A. I can't remember the exact date that I became aware of 23 Mr. Tanios. Probably some time around late January and early 24 February, I, in doing my own investigation on the incidence 25 that happened on the Capitol on January 6, 2021, I became

1 aware of an incident wherein law enforcement officers were 2 sprayed with a chemical.

3 Q. Who brought that to your attention? What was it that 4 cause you to learn about that?

5 A. Capitol surveillance video that was recorded on the 6 Capitol on January 6, 2021, and MPD body cam video recorded by 7 an officer's body cam on January 6, 2021.

8 Q. When did you receive the identity of Mr. Tanios? How was 9 it that you identified him or became aware that he was, in 10 fact, present?

11 A. I can't give you the exact date it was provided via 12 tipster information to the FBI.

13 Q. So was it through social media?

14 A. One was through social media, I believe, the other was 15 direct information from a tipster.

16 Q. Okay. So you had video, and you had a tip, what did you
17 do next to pursue the investigation against Mr. Tanios?

18 A. I investigated further via the tipster to ask if the 19 tipster was able to get me the identity of the individual whom 20 I associated with Mr. Tanios, who at that time was marked by 21 a -- simply a number, just as Mr. Tanios was.

22 Q. Okay. What did you learn?

23 A. The identity of the other number was Mr. Khater.

24 Q. Now, when you say a number that means you had assigned a
25 number or someone assigned a number to all of the individuals

1 involved in the incident that you were investigating?

2 A. That's generally correct, yes.

3 Q. Okay. And you're referring to the incident where there
4 was pepper spray presented and allegedly directed towards
5 three officers on Capitol grounds.

6 Is that the incident that you were investigating?

7 A. Correct, that's an offshoot of my broader investigation.

8 Q. Right. What did you do next after you identified the 9 identity of Mr. Tanios and Mr. Khater, what did you do next in 10 your investigation?

11 A. I sought information from individuals who could 12 corroborate that identification.

13 Q. And what did you learn?

14 A. I learned -- I corroborated those identifications through 15 interviews with people who would be able to potentially 16 identify those individuals.

17 Q. Okay. So you reviewed video, you had a tip, you learned
18 about Mr. Tanios's identity, and you confirmed his identity.

19 What did you do next?

20 A. Probably I continued the investigation to find out where 21 these individuals were.

22 Q. Did you find out?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. How did you --

25 A. I found out where they were.

1 Q. Okay. And did you learn that Mr. Tanios was in 2 Morgantown, West Virginia?

3 A. I did.

4 Q. Right. So what else did you do? Did you -- did you talk
5 to any witnesses who were on the Capitol grounds? Did you
6 interview the police officers? Tell us what you did. I mean,
7 you tell us what you did.

8 A. I conducted an investigation, just like I usually do and 9 interviewed victims, of course, that was part of it.

10 Q. Okay. So you interviewed the three police officers who 11 were present?

12 A. Are you talking about the three police officers in the 13 affidavit? The one is deceased so I only interviewed two.

14 Q. Edwards? Did you interview Edwards?

15 A. I did.

16 Q. Did you interview Chapman?

17 A. I did.

18 Q. Okay. Did they identify Mr. Tanios or Mr. Khater?

19 A. No.

20 Q. All right. Did you interview any other individuals who 21 were present, eyewitnesses other than those two?

22 A. I interviewed Lieutenant Bagshaw among others. I have to 23 look at my case notes to see just how many individuals I
24 talked to that were in that vicinity at that particular time.

25 Q. Well, did you talk to any eyewitnesses who had relevant

1 information about Mr. Tanios who were at the Capitol grounds?

2 A. About Mr. Tanios?

3 Q. Right.

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. What did witnesses tell you about Tanios?

6 A. The witness told me that he and Tanios were together at 7 the Capitol on January 6, 2021.

8 Q. Okay. And now are you referring to Mr. Khater?

9 A. I am referring to Mr. Khater.

10 Q. All right. Now, did Mr. Khater tell you about the 11 conspiracy that is alleged in Count 1 of the indictment, the 12 conspiracy to injure members of the Capitol Police Department
13 and members of the Metropolitan Police Department?

14 A. Mr. Khater said that Mr. Tanios carried a backpack for 15 the both of them that had pepper spray and water in it.

16 Q. All right. And was there an agreement that Khater and 17 Tanios made prior to coming to Washington, D.C.?

18 A. What kind of agreement?

19 Q. Was there -- right. Well, as alleged in Count 1 was 20 there an agreement to do anything with the backpack or the 21 items in the backpack? Did Khater tell you that they had 22 agreed?

23 A. Khater, from my memory, made no such descriptive comments
24 about their -- that type of corroboration.

25 Q. Okay. Well, obviously in Count 1 we are talking about a

1 conspiracy charge. What was the agreement between Tanios and 2 Khater as it relates to Count 1?

3 A. I don't know what the conspiracy was, I can only tell you
4 what I see in the video regarding the two working together.

5 Q. Did you not testify in front of the grand jury?

6 A. What is your specific question?

7 Q. Did you testify in front of the grand jury about Count 1?

8 A. About that corroboration?

9 Q. About -- did you testify about Count 1 of the indictment
10 in front of a federal grand jury? I am looking at the 11 indictment, have you seen it?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Did you provide testimony in support of that indictment?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. In Count 1 of the indictment, the third line
16 indicates that Khater and Tanios agreed to injure a U.S.
17 Capitol police officer and to injure a Metropolitan police
18 officer.

19 What is the evidence in support of that agreement based 20 on your investigation?

21 A. In that I am referring to the video of the two working 22 together. That's what I can say on that.

23 COURT REPORTER: Can you repeat that, please?

24 Q. Can you please repeat that?

25 A. Yeah. Could you do me a favor and just ask the question

1 one more time so can I make sure I understand what you are 2 asking me.

3 Q. What is the evidence that Khater and Tanios conspired and
4 agreed together to injure a U.S. Capitol police officer and a
5 Metropolitan police officer?

6 A. The video of them working together is what I am referring 7 to.

8 Q. Okay. So the evidence of the conspiracy is limited to 9 the video evidence that you have provided to the federal 10 prosecutor?

11 A. As far as can I remember at this moment in time that's 12 what I am referring to.

13 Q. Okay. So Khater never told you that he had talked about 14 injuring a police officer with Tanios?

15 A. Khater, his name is Khater. And no, Khater never said
16 that they had made such a plan together.

17 Q. Okay. Tanios never told you that he and Khater had 18 discussed going to Washington, D.C. or going to the Capitol
19 grounds to injure a police officer from the Capitol Police
20 Department or from the Metropolitan Police Department?

21 A. I have not spoken to Mr. Tanios, so no.

22 Q. Have you observed any other communication between -- or 23 are you aware of any other communication between Khater and 24 Tanios where there was some text message, Facebook message,
25 message on WhatsApp relating to their agreement to allegedly

1 conspire and agree to injure a police officer?

2 MS. WAGNER: Judge, if I could just reiterate our
3 objection to this. Your Honor, this whole line of questioning
4 is a backdoor around the government's right to put on a
5 proffer as opposed to present the agent --

6 THE COURT: I understand your objection.

7 Mr. Walker, the purpose of -- I understand part of the 8 consideration the Court is with respect to the government's 9 case, I have heard those proffers. I think if you have 10 anything in regard to his flight risk or dangerousness that 11 you want to talk to the agent, I think you can address that.
12 I will give you some more leeway with the investigation, but I
13 am going to cut it off pretty quick.

14 So if you want to talk to him about the evidence about 15 dangerousness or flight risk, those are my considerations
16 today. So go ahead.

17 MR. WALKER: Judge, again, we were exploring the 18 weight of the evidence.

19 THE COURT: I understand.

20 MR. WALKER: I'm going to need you to tell me when I
21 am prohibited from asking further questions, because I fully 22 intend to go through every count in the indictment and ask
23 this agent what the evidence is that supports the critical
24 elements of the most serious charges.

25 So you'll have to tell -- I'm going to ask questions --

1 you'll have to tell me to stop, because I am not going to stop
2 until we have a full record as it relates -- I'm not going to 3 voluntarily stop until we have a full record as it relates to 4 the weight of the evidence, Judge, for all the reasons that 5 I've discussed today.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 MS. WAGNER: Judge, if I could just respond to that.
8 We have proffered evidence as to every element of each of 9 these offenses, including that there was evidence that 10 Mr. Tanios and Mr. Khater, were communicating about purchasing
11 the bear spray, as Mr. Tanios was purchasing it, their travels
12 together, Mr. Tanios' role as the person carrying the pepper
13 spray and Mr. Tanios' role as seen in the video where 14 Mr. Khater asked him for the bear spray and he says, "Not yet, 15 it's not time."

16 And this was not a, no, don't use the spray, this was a,
17 it's not time yet to use the spray. And so we have proffered
18 evidence on each of these elements and we are prepared to draw
19 for the Court how we think those line up in our arguments.
20 But we believe that what Mr. Walker is doing here is forcing 21 the government to put on a witness when we have put on a
22 perfectly appropriate proffer with video evidence that 23 Mr. Tanios and Mr. Khater coordinated their activities and 24 that Mr. Khater assaulted these police officers with pepper
25 spray that Mr. Tanios purchased and carried and gave to

1 Mr. Khater when he asked for it.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Go ahead, Mr. Walker.
3 But I will listen to your next question. But if you are going
4 to ask him about danger of flight risk you should do that now
5 because I don't know how much further I'm going to let you go
6 with the other questioning.

7 MR. WALKER: That's fine, Judge. Thank you.

9 Q. Agent Palmtree, [sic] --

10 MS. WAGNER: Judge, it's Palmertree.

11 THE COURT: His name is there, Mr. Walker.

12 BY MR. WALKER:

13 Q. Agent Palmertree, is there any other evidence that you
14 are aware of, other than video, that is evidence of Tanios and 15 Khater's agreement to injure police officers as alleged in 16 Count 1?

17 A. Nothing off the top of my head outside of the video that 18 had audio and video.

19 Q. And we have that. Thank you.

20 Now, as it relates to Count 2, you're aware that 21 Mr. Tanios is charged in aiding and abetting Khater's alleged 22 assault on Officer Sicknick with pepper spray. Can we agree 23 on that?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. All right.

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Now, can you tell me, is there any evidence that
3 Mr. Tanios knew the codefendant would approach Officer
4 Sicknick with OC spray or pepper spray?

5 MS. WAGNER: Judge, same objection.

6 THE COURT: Sustained. Mr. Walker, if you want to 7 ask him anything about dangerousness or flight risk, you may.
8 But, and I'll preserve your objection on the record, I'll note
9 it, but this is not a trial for them to prove their case.
10 It's not discovery for you to find out more. And I think it's 11 past the point as to the weight of the evidence.

12 It's rare that we have video and audio that helps the 13 Court and others see what is occurring, so --

14 MR. WALKER: Can I tell you the questions that I
15 intended to ask?

16 THE COURT: Yeah, you can tell me.

17 MR. WALKER: Judge --

18 THE COURT: Were they about each count?

19 MR. WALKER: It's very simple. My approach is very 20 simple. I was able to get my hands on the actual model jury
21 instructions for all of the counts of conviction, and 22 particularly as it relates to Count 2, I was able to obtain 23 model jury instructions for the offense of aiding and 24 abetting. And one element of aiding and abetting is that the 25 defendant participated in something that he wished to bring

1 about, and I fully intended to ask the officer several
2 questions -- the agent -- about the evidence that Mr. Tanios
3 wished to bring about an assault of the alleged victim
4 identified in Count 2.

5 I would ask the same question as it relates to Count 3,
6 and to Count 4. I also would have asked the agent what
7 evidence there is that Mr. Tanios knew -- just another element
8 of aiding and abetting -- that the codefendant intended and,
9 in fact, assaulted with pepper spray the three officers named
10 as victims in Counts 2, 3, and 4.

11 And I would ask other questions along those lines. I
12 think it's really important, Judge, rather than him just to 13 have a story line, which is essentially what the government
14 has provided through his proffer to go through and understand
15 what the evidence is that supports every element of all of the 16 offenses that are identified in the indictment.

17 So that would be my plan. I think that it's entirely
18 appropriate. Obviously, Judge, I'm not here to try to obtain
19 discovery. We'll get plenty of discovery in this case. We're 20 not preparing for trial. I am upset by that insinuation from 21 the government and frankly from the Court, because that's not 22 what we are here to do today. We have someone that we 23 represent who has been charged with many serious offenses.
24 He's a family man. He lives in Morgantown. He owns a
25 business. And one of the factors -- we have already presented

1 evidence that he is not a flight risk. We've already
2 presented evidence that he's not a danger to the community.

3 What we need to do is we need to explore the weight of 4 the evidence. And this witness in particular is the only
5 person available who can do that because he's the case agent
6 and he testified before the grand jury.

7 So that is what we want to do because we want Mr. Tanios
8 to be released back to his family. Now, you mentioned the 9 trial. I called the attorneys that I know personally in 10 Washington, D.C. and they told me we would be lucky to get a
11 trial in a year because of the pandemic, because of the number
12 of cases that are coming out of the incident on the Capitol
13 grounds. So we won't have a trial probably for a year, Judge.
14 And that's why we are going to go fight, and we are going to 15 leave no stone unturned when it comes to having Mr. Tanios
16 released because he has never been in a situation like this 17 before. He has never been incarcerated. He's not spent any 18 time in the West Virginia Regional Jail and he certainly 19 hasn't spent time in the D.C. jail. This is going to be hard
20 time for him if he is not released and we need to make a 21 record, because obviously this will be reviewed one way or the 22 other.

23 And, Judge, we also can go to the Court of Appeals in 24 Washington, D.C. as well. And we fully intend to do that if 25 he is detained. That's my purpose. That's my only purpose.

1 It's very reasonable. As matter of fact, I think that I would
2 be ineffective not to do that in this particular case.

3 Thank you, Judge.

4 THE COURT: Do you have anything else you want to 5 add, Ms. Wagner?

6 MS. WAGNER: Judge, I don't think that the Court is 7 being deprived of the ability to weigh the evidence unless we 8 draw it line for line to Mr. Walker's jury instructions. We 9 have provided the Court with a sworn affidavit, the Court was 10 already familiar with, ten pieces of video footage,
11 photographs that show exactly what the government has alleged,
12 and exactly the basis for those allegations, the basis for the 13 government's charge against Mr. Tanios, his connection to 14 Mr. Khater, his role in these offenses, and we believe that 15 the Court has sufficient evidence to make the detention
16 determination to weigh the evidence as it is. And as the 17 Court said, it's rare that we have so much video footage of 18 two people engaged in coordinated action.

19 We have witness statements that corroborate that. We 20 have Mr. Khater's statements that corroborate that. And so I
21 think the Court has what it needs to make a determination as 22 to the weight of the evidence.

23 MR. WALKER: Judge, I would just like to say the 24 video doesn't tell the whole story in this case. And that's 25 what we want to get to. We want to develop evidence in detail

1 fully for the Court. And I object to the Court's decision
2 precluding me from asking additional questions to this agent
3 relating to the weight of the evidence. Thank you.

4 And it also relates to dangerous too, Judge. Because I
5 think that the government's primary argument will be, you
6 know, this is not a dangerous person, there's not anything
7 otherwise have anything dangerous --

8 THE COURT: Mr. Walker, go ahead and go through your 9 questioning with him. Go ahead, agent, you can respond to 10 him.

11 MR. WALKER: Thank you.

12 THE COURT: You are not going through all the 13 elements. You can ask him what other evidence he has, if he 14 has it he can tell you that, if he doesn't, then he doesn't.

15 BY MR. WALKER:

16 Q. I want to talk to you about Count 2 of the indictment,
17 Agent Palmertree, are you familiar with that? I was asking 18 you some questions about that.

19 What is the evidence --

20 MR. WALKER: Judge, I am going to read from the jury
21 instructions. I want to ask him, what is the evidence that 22 the assault --

23 THE COURT: Mr. Walker, no. Just ask him in general, 24 and --

25 MR. WALKER: Judge, now we are back to the story line

1 that the government has crafted. I want to ask him specific
2 questions, and I'm going to ask the questions the way I want
3 to ask the questions until you instruct me not to. And I
4 think that is where we are, Judge. So I will just bring this 5 up with the -- if necessary, with the District Court in 6 Washington, D.C. and I will ask to supplement the record in
7 this case with the testimony of Officer Palmertree because I
8 am not being permitted to ask the questions the way I want
9 to -- I'm sorry, Judge. I have the utmost respect for you,
10 but I want to ask the questions the way we think they need to 11 be asked not the way the Court thinks they should be asked.

12 THE COURT: Well, I am the decision-maker and I
13 understand the evidence that I need. But go ahead,
14 Mr. Walker, you may proceed.

15 BY MR. WALKER:

16 Q. Agent Palmertree, what is the evidence that the assault
17 on Officer Sicknick was something that Mr. Tanios wished to 18 bring about?

19 MS. WAGNER: Judge, I would just add a further
20 objection here. Mr. Walker is asking Mr. -- or Agent
21 Palmertree to essentially make legal conclusions here and we
22 have presented -- we have made the proffer. Him parsing it
23 out, was asking Agent Palmertree to state for the Court which 24 piece of evidence goes with which element, and that is not 25 something he is -- he is trained to give testimony about his

1 investigation which he has now done. We have also done
2 through the proffer.

3 At this point he is asking Agent Palmertree to basically
4 make legal arguments about --

5 THE COURT: I understand the argument, Ms. Wagner,
6 it's overruled.

7 I do want him to talk about what facts that will assist
8 me in regard to what weight I should accord the proffer in the 9 video. And so, I mean, to the extent that you can keep it to 10 the facts, Mr. Walker, and not legal conclusions that would be 11 helpful, because I think that is what you are looking for. So 12 go ahead.

13 BY MR. WALKER:

14 Q. You want to answer the question?

15 A. Can you just ask it one more time? I need to be clear on 16 what I am answering.

17 Q. What is the evidence that the assault on Officer Sicknick
18 is something that Mr. Tanios knew about?

19 A. There is no way to know if Mr. Tanios knew Officer
20 Sicknick.

21 Q. What is the evidence then that Mr. Tanios wished to bring 22 about the assault on Sicknick?

23 A. Again, there is no evidence that Mr. Tanios had even seen
24 Mr. Sicknick or knew Mr. Sicknick existed.

25 Q. Is your answer the same for Officer Chapman? Is there no

1 evidence, based on your investigation, that Mr. Tanios knew
2 his codefendant would go with OC spray and assault Officer
3 Chapman?

4 A. Yeah. There is no evidence that I know of that suggests
5 that Mr. Tanios knew Officer Chapman.

6 Q. Yeah, right. I'm not asking if he knew him personally,
7 but is there any evidence that Tanios knew these specific
8 officers were in an area and that his codefendant would go
9 over there and assault those three, is that something they 10 discussed? Is that something that a witness told you they 11 talked about, or something that the codefendant told you
12 about?

13 A. That's what the video shows, that's what I see in the 14 video.

15 Q. Okay. There is video. Other than the video, no other
16 evidence?

17 A. That they -- for that specific moment?

18 Q. Yeah.

19 A. Yeah, that's what we are going off of for that specific 20 moment is the audio and video, the close-up audio and video
21 that we were able to obtain that shows collaboration.

22 Q. Right. So --

23 A. Coupled with an understanding from the interview with one
24 of the individuals in the video was that Mr. Tanios carried
25 the backpack for both of them. Mr. Tanios bought the sprays

1 for both of them. Two of the sprays being sprays that were 2 clearly not sprays that were to be used on human beings.

3 Q. Those two sprays that are not to be used on human beings
4 are you referring to the quote unquote, bear spray?

5 A. That's correct.

6 Q. And did Khater use the bear spray that day?

7 A. Not that I know of, but that's for further
8 investigation -- the investigation is still going on regarding 9 the bear sprays.

10 Q. Okay. So it's your understanding that Khater used the 11 smaller canister of OC spray with the black handle that was 12 sort of like on a key chain or could be a key chain?

13 A. That's according to my investigation which is still going 14 on.

15 Q. Is that what you told the grand jury?

16 MS. WAGNER: Objection, Your Honor. He is asking for 17 grand jury --

18 THE COURT: Sustained. Ask him about the evidence.

19 BY MR. WALKER:

20 Q. That's all the evidence that you know right now, right?

21 A. Could you just ask your specific question again?

22 Q. You don't have any reason to believe that the bear spray
23 was deployed that day at all, do you?

24 A. I have the bear spray cans myself and I haven't submitted
25 them for analysis, so that's what I would need to do. That's

1 a very serious thing that I have to be sure on in a scientific
2 way the best I can.

3 Q. Okay. Now, you're aware that at some point a search
4 warrant was executed and firearms were located at Mr. Tanios's 5 home?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. Are you in possession of any of those firearms or are 8 they still with the family?

9 A. We are not.

10 Q. Okay. Do you have --

11 A. I don't know where the firearms are.

12 Q. Right. Is there any evidence in this case that 13 Mr. Tanios has ever misused a firearm?

14 A. In this case? I haven't researched anything to that 15 capacity in this case.

16 Q. Is he a prohibited person?

17 A. Not that I know of.

18 Q. Were the guns stolen?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Were they otherwise unlawful?

21 A. Did you say, were they otherwise unlawful?

22 Q. That's my question.

23 A. Not that I know of.

24 MR. WALKER: I have no further questions. Thank you,
25 Judge.

1 THE COURT: Did you have any questions, Ms. Wagner?

2 MS. WAGNER: No, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Okay. May he be excused?

4 MR. WALKER: As far as we are concerned, yes, sir.

5 Thank you, Agent Palmertree.

6 THE COURT: Agent Palmertree, you're excused from 7 testifying further from this proceeding; however, you are 8 welcome to continue to observe it by Zoom. Thank you.

9 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Did you have anything else,
11 Mr. Walker?

12 MR. WALKER: We are requesting a five-minute recess,
13 Judge. Thank you.

14 THE COURT: Okay. You may have a five-minute recess.
15 Let's be back at just a minute or two past 12:45. Thank you.

16 (Recess taken from 12:40 p.m. until 12:48 p.m.)

17 THE COURT: After a brief recess we are back on the 18 record in the matter of United States of America vs. George 19 Pierre Tanios. I think we are done with the presentation of 20 evidence, counsel, Ms. Wagner?

21 MS. WAGNER: Yes, Judge, we are prepared to make 22 argument when the Court is.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Walker?

24 MR. WALKER: No further evidence from Mr. Tanios.

25 THE COURT: Okay. You may go ahead and make your

1 argument, Ms. Wagner.

2 MS. WAGNER: Thank you, Judge. Our position is that
3 Mr. Tanios should be detained because there are no conditions
4 of release that will reasonably assure his appearance as 5 required and the safety of the community.

6 And just going through the 3142(g) factors, the nature
7 and circumstances of the offenses charged against Mr. Tanios
8 weigh in favor of detention. First and foremost is that 9 Mr. Tanios has been charged with three crimes of violence.
10 18 U.S.C., Section 111(b) has been determined to categorically
11 be a crime of violence. And so that in and of itself does, we 12 believe, weigh in favor of detention.

13 And at its essence, Mr. Tanios' crime was to coordinate
14 with another individual a premeditated physical assault
15 against three people, and would have been more except for 16 Lieutenant -- his name is escaping me, but the intervention of 17 law enforcement.

18 Stripping away the context that the location that this 19 attack took place, the fact that it took place at the United 20 States Capitol on January 6th, at its core, if this were any 21 other defendant who had engaged in a conspiracy in a
22 premeditated fashion to assault law enforcement, there would 23 be no question that they are a danger to the community and 24 should be detained.

25 To the extent Mr. Tanios argues that it was Mr. Khater

1 and not he who actually assaulted these police officers with 2 the pepper spray, the evidence that we proffered showed that
3 the two were very much working in concert on January 5th,
4 2021, Mr. Tanios, walks into the ATR store in Morgantown on 5 the phone with Mr. Khater. He purchases two canisters of 6 Frontiersman bear spray and two other chemical sprays. He 7 tells the store owner, or the store manager that he is on the 8 phone with a person who he is going to D.C. with.

9 They then do drive to D.C. together. Mr. Khater picks up
10 Mr. Tanios in Morgantown. They stay together at the same
11 hotel. They take a list together to the Capitol.

12 And the evidence that they were working in concert is 13 also contained in the video surveillance. Mr. Khater and 14 Mr. Tanios are seen and heard talking together. Mr. Khater
15 asks Mr. Tanios for the bear spray that Mr. Tanios is carrying 16 for both of them. Mr. Tanios tells him, "not yet." Doesn't 17 tell him, no, don't do that, he says to, "Wait, it's too 18 early."

19 And this is evidence that he was not merely taking a
20 minor role in Mr. Khater's offenses as the defense suggested 21 in -- or not suggested, stated in their response to the 22 detention motion that was filed on Friday afternoon.

23 When Mr. Khater does spray shortly thereafter, there is a
24 push to breach the line, and that appears to be coordinated 25 with the time that the crowd breaches the line. And

1 Mr. Khater sprays the officers, he falls back into the crowd
2 and Mr. Tanios is not directly with him, but -- and Mr. Tanios
3 has an ear piece in, but Mr. Khater calls him on his cell
4 phone. That's on video, it's corroborated and connected
5 Mr. Tanios by the phone records.

6 And, of course, Mr. Khater's statement to the police,
7 basically laying out how they got there, how they stayed
8 together, how they rode together, who bought the bear spray
9 and the pepper spray, that Mr. Tanios was carrying it for both
10 of them and the backpack, that corroborates what the video
11 surveillance shows and the information provided by Mr. Biddle
12 at ATR shows that this was a coordinated effort and that it
13 was planned out in advance.

14 Judge, one other thing in relation to the nature and 15 circumstances that we believe the Court should take into 16 consideration here is the injuries to the victims. This was 17 not one victim. Three law enforcement officers and would have 18 been more but for Lieutenant Bagshaw's intervention.

19 And so we would ask that the Court consider that in the 20 nature and circumstances of the offense which we believe is 21 based in favor of detention.

22 And, Judge, the weight of the evidence here we believe 23 our proffer, the video surveillance, weighs in favor of 24 detention. The Court has for its consideration video footage
25 from various sources, various angles that captured Mr. Tanios

1 and Mr. Khater's conduct, their concerted action and before
2 the attack, and then obviously Mr. Khater's spraying of the 3 pepper spray.

4 We have the victim witness statements from Officers
5 Chapman and Officer Edwards. And we know that Officer
6 Sicknick told his supervisor that he had also been sprayed.
7 And that corroborates, again, is corroborated by the video
8 evidence.

9 We have cell phone records of Mr. Tanios and Mr. Khater
10 showing that they were acting in concert, both the day before,
11 and the just after the assault on the officers.

12 We now have Mr. Khater's admissions that this was -- that 13 this was planned and coordinated action. Mr. Tanios purchased
14 and carried for both of the men chemical spray, they rode 15 together, stayed together. Shared a Lyft to the Capitol, rode 16 home together. We also have the materials obtained from the 17 search of the two residences that tie both Mr. Khater and 18 Mr. Tanios to what we know happened at the Capitol from the 19 video surveillance and the other individual footage.

20 At Mr. Tanios' residence they found the backpack that he 21 was carrying that day for both men. Three unused canisters --
22 two unused canisters of bear spray and one pepper spray. The 23 clothes that Mr. -- the Sandwich U clothes were which were 24 similar to what Mr. Tanios wore at the January 6th incident.
25 And have information from ATR obviously that those -- that

2 Judge, with respect to the history and characteristics of
3 Mr. Tanios, we have no doubt that Mr. Tanios' family loves him
4 very much. But what we would just ask the Court to consider
5 that these ties to the community, Mr. Tanios' three small 6 children, we would just point out that these family and 7 community ties were all in place before he committed these 8 crimes that he is accused of. So we would ask you to consider 9 that when weighing the history and characteristics of the 10 defendant.

11 And with respect to the nature and seriousness of the 12 danger to any person or the community, we believe this very 13 strongly weighs in favor of detention. Again, Mr. Tanios,
14 coordinated a premeditated assault on these officers, and it
15 would have been more had there not been an intervention.

16 And, Judge, again, stripped down to its essence, this was 17 an assault, a coordinated premeditated assault on individuals
18 and I would also just point out in the discussions with 19 Mr. Biddle at ATR, the implication of Mr. Tanios' questions
20 about being allowed to take a gun and being allowed to take a
21 pepper ball projectile gun, I would just raise those because I
22 think those do have implications about what Mr. Tanios was 23 thinking that day.

24 And although Mr. Tanios did not do the actual spraying,
25 he did assist Mr. Khater in purchasing the chemical spray and

1 planning. He, although, he was not at the front line himself,
2 we believe that he was and we believe evidence shows that he
3 was assisting Mr. Khater in every other step of the 4 coordinated attack.

5 And, Judge, with respect to any suggestion that home
6 detention or electronic monitoring might be appropriate here,
7 I would just note to the Court that this -- that Mr. Tanios
8 and Mr. Khater planned and carried out what was an unprovoked
9 attack on three police officers. And I believe that that 10 should give this Court extreme pause in releasing Mr. Tanios
11 under a court order, because we believe that if he would 12 engage in an unprovoked attack on three police officers, he is 13 not going to abide by court order. And we think a major
14 question, at least in our minds, is whether Mr. Tanios would 15 be a danger to our probation officers, under supervision he 16 would be, or other law enforcement in this community who might 17 find themselves in the same position as Officer Sicknick,
18 Edwards, and Chapman.

19 And, of course, Judge, we already articulated our 20 position on flight risk, and we meant no disrespect to 21 Mrs. Tanios, about her being -- I understand that this is her
22 country and that this is Mr. Tanios' country, but we believe 23 that there is a potential for and a network for Mr. Tanios to 24 elude facing these charges, and that's our concern. And so we 25 believe that he is a danger to the community and a flight risk

1 and he should be detained until trial.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, Ms. Wagner.

3 Ms. Gross or Mr. Walker.

4 MS. GROSS: Thank you, Judge. Well, Judge, I just
5 want to go over the Bail Reform Act. The Bail Reform Act
6 favors the release of Mr. Tanios. The government has the 7 burden here today. I know the Court is aware of that, but 8 it's our assessment that the government definitely did not 9 prove by a preponderance that there is no combinations of 10 conditions that could assure his appearance.

11 Basically, Judge, when you look through the Bail Reform
12 Act we have to look at the nature and circumstances of the 13 offense. There is no doubt that this is a serious offense
14 allegation. No doubt. We are not questioning that, we take 15 this very seriously. But that's what it is, Judge. These are 16 allegations.

17 That doesn't make Mr. Tanios any less innocent until 18 proven guilty. We have to think about that when we are 19 talking about the nature and circumstance of the offense, we 20 are talking about the government's version of the nature and 21 circumstances of the offense. That's all you're hearing.
22 You're hearing their story line, their interpretation of what 23 the facts of the case are. And when we are talking about the 24 circumstances of the offense, when you are talking about these 25 exhibits that the government put on today, these are puzzle

1 pieces, small snippets, tiny limited seconds of evidence that
2 they are providing to us where we don't have the right to see
3 the rest.

4 We don't know what else happened. We have no idea. We 5 see their limited interpretation of videos, and their view of 6 those videos because they are tiny little pieces of them, hand
7 picked by the government to show to the Court today, and to 8 show the public today, in a part of their proffer. Their 9 proffer was just so limited.

10 So the nature and the circumstances are just that. They 11 are the government's version, and still as of today,
12 Mr. Tanios is innocent until proven guilty. The Bail Reform
13 Act doesn't change that. We don't automatically assume that 14 the nature and circumstances of every offense in a complaint
15 or indictment are automatically true, and that Mr. Tanios or 16 any other defendant is guilty based on those allegations.
17 That's what they are. They are allegations.

18 So nature and circumstances of the offense, you know,
19 that was not proven by a preponderance of the evidence. That 20 doesn't -- that shouldn't weigh in favor of keeping Mr. Tanios
21 detained.

22 Let's go to the weight of evidence. Well, we heard the 23 weight of the evidence. The weight of the evidence are these 24 videos that I am talking about. The weight of the evidence
25 any snippets, tiny little pieces of videos taken of

1 Mr. Tanios, allegedly, and the codefendant that day at the
2 Capitol. Those are, again, interpretations of what really
3 happened. We don't know what really happened.

4 And the weight of the evidence, like we said, is limited.
5 It's so limited. They purposefully limited it to the Court
6 today by doing their proffer.

7 We know hardly nothing about the weight of evidence.
8 It's minimal. It's limited. So is it serious? Yes. But 9 what do we know? Not much. We know that that is George 10 Tanios. That's all we know. He was there. We know that the 11 communication that we are talking about, I'm very unhappy to 12 hear, you know, "in concert," "in coordination," there was no
13 evidence of any of that today. Those videos, the 14 coordination, the concert, in acting in concert together, 15 premeditated, those are all interpretations of what we saw in 16 this video. It's just interpretation.

17 We know there were calls. We know that -- well,
18 allegedly, we don't have the calls. We know that there is a 19 video of them talking to each other. But we have no idea the 20 full circumstances. We know nothing. We know the smallest
21 amount of evidence. And still, that tiny amount of the weight 22 of the evidence is not substantial.

23 It's not enough, they didn't meet their burden on number
24 two. History and characteristics. We have multiple witnesses
25 today, Judge, that have known Mr. Tanios for a very long time.

1 We had his mother, we had his sister, we had his fiancée, we
2 had his long-term business -- people that own a business in 3 Morgantown that know Mr. Tanios. We had an employee of 4 Mr. Tanios.

5 We know that he is a local person to Morgantown. He's 6 lived there for over 15 years. We know he owns property in 7 Morgantown. We know he has a home in Morgantown. We know he 8 has three children, four and under, that live in Morgantown.

9 We also know that his character, all of these people
10 testified to, that his character is nonviolent. There is no
11 evidence that Mr. Tanios has ever been violent. There is no
12 evidence that Mr. Tanios has a background in violence or that 13 has prior convictions in violent crimes. None.

14 So, therefore, his -- I know the government wants to 15 minimize his character, and his family ties, employment, 16 community ties, they want to minimize that, of course, but 17 that is strong. His family ties and ties to the community of 18 Morgantown are strong. We showed that he has an abundance of 19 ties to the community.

20 As far as him -- also, you know, being a flight risk,
21 Judge, we had his mom tell you, front and center, that she has 22 no idea what that unsubstantiated claim is that we just heard
23 about today that someone says that his mom said he's got to 24 get out of here. We just signed paperwork over for his 25 passport. He's not going anywhere. Ms. Grilli has it right

1 now. His passport is -- might as well be hers, that is gone.

2 You know, his family has worked tirelessly to help try to 3 secure a plan for his release, by being cooperative, by 4 helping probation get everything they could need.

5 His fiancée is in here, I'm sure she would give anything
6 under the sun to probation if they wanted to search anything
7 in their house she would be happy to do. They want him on 8 location monitoring? Happy to do it.

9 They have been super cooperative this entire time because 10 Mr. Tanios believes he has nothing to hide. He is 11 cooperative. He wants to participate in his own defense. So
12 we are asking for his release for that very reason.

13 Is he a danger to the community? Certainly, certainly 14 the government does not believe they proved by clear and 15 convincing evidence that Mr. Tanios is a danger to the 16 community by those videos. That is absurd. Those videos,
17 again, show nothing. They don't show anything but 18 interpretation of the government's thoughts on what they think
19 it shows. It doesn't show dangerousness. There is no proof
20 of dangerousness. We've had no testimony, zero evidence, to 21 prove that Mr. Tanios has ever been dangerous or was dangerous
22 that day. I don't have anything further.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Anything in response?

24 MS. WAGNER: Just briefly, Judge. I don't believe 25 that Ms. Grilli has the passport for whatever it's worth at 1 that point.

2 MR. WALKER: I just signed the paper giving it to 3 her, so --

4 PROBATION OFFICER: I asked his fiancée and she said
5 that it's at home.

6 THE COURT: Okay. That's not --

7 MS. WAGNER: Right, I just wanted to --

8 THE COURT: No, that's fine, thank you, Ms. Wagner.

9 MS. WAGNER: And, Judge, as far as, I just want to 10 point out two things, Judge. The grand jury has returned an 11 indictment on, again for Mr. Tanios and Mr. Khater for the 12 events on January 6th. So I disagree with the 13 characterization that this is a story line or that these are 14 just any snippets of evidence that we want the Court to see to 15 grant our motion.

16 Judge, we have provided video footage and proffered
17 evidence that the video footage -- what took place in the 18 video foot was coordinated between Mr. Tanios and Mr. Khater.
19 We've corroborated that by cell phone records, witness
20 statements, and receipts of Mr. Tanios' purchase of the 21 chemical spray, and Mr. Khater's statements to the police
22 about his activities with Mr. Tanios. And Mr. Tanios'
23 statements to the manager of the gun store. He was on the 24 phone at the time he purchased the chemical spray. He told
25 the manager that he was purchasing -- that he and the person

1 on the phone were going to D.C., to the Capitol, and so the
2 notion that we have just selected snippets of video, is -- I
3 think it's an unfair characterization. And, Judge, you know,
4 we didn't play every moment of the video footage, but it's 5 been provided to the Court.

6 And on the video, you can see that Mr. Tanios and 7 Mr. Khater are acting in concert and that is corroborated by 8 other evidence.

9 And, Judge, we would ask that you do detain Mr. Tanios
10 given the nature and circumstances of the offense. We believe
11 he poses a danger to the community and particularly to anyone
12 who is going to be responsible for supervising him, and we 13 would ask for his detention.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, Ms. Wagner.

15 Well, I always say to my law clerk before I walk into a 16 room on detention, is a solemn moment. I am very aware that 17 my rulings affect certainly the person in front of me and 18 everyone who loves them and cares deeply about them.

19 I also understand that it affects the people who perhaps 20 have been harmed by his actions and other's actions. I have 21 had the opportunity to review your brief, Ms. Gross, also the 22 opportunity to review the bond report prepared by Ms. Grilli, 23 and both of those tell a similar story which is that his 24 criminal history is, if any, is very minor and minimal and of 25 no concern to the Court, his criminal history.

1 Certainly he is blessed with a mother and sister and
2 family who support him very deeply. It's a story I'm familiar
3 with. He has a fiancée who cares very deeply for him, that is 4 obvious to the Court and I hope you are thankful for that,
5 Mr. Tanios.

6 I am not unmindful that he has a four year old and two
7 twins who are seven or eight months old. And so I understand
8 that, and I take that into consideration.

9 But I think the context of everything that happened on 10 that day and before are what inform me in my decision-making
11 and I think it needs to. We all know what happened on January
12 6th. Everyone in our country knows what happened on January
13 6th. We also generally know -- although, I don't know why
14 Mr. Tanios was there and Mr. Khater was there -- but we know, 15 looking at it now, that they were supporting the president who 16 would not accept that he was defeated in an election. And it
17 was on that day when Congress, under their oath, the 18 Constitution was to certify the electoral college. That's not 19 happenstance that they picked January 6th. It was the day.

20 And so we have created this just culture, radicalized by 21 hate, and just refusal to really accept the result of a
22 democratic process. And so given that, two college friends
23 decide, let's go. Why? So many other things they could have 24 done. Stay at work, stay at home with your children that you
25 love. Visit your mother.

1 There were no songs of joy and peace. We've all seen it,
2 nothing but hate and anger. And so I don't know what would
3 draw someone to that and it worries me deeply. And it draws
4 good people who otherwise would not be indicative of their
5 character. But what causes you, cause your friend to talk
6 beforehand to go to a weapons store to talk about getting 7 dangerous sprays? This isn't a weekend visit to see the 8 bosses in D.C.

9 And then so you talk beforehand to buy these things, you
10 want to know whether it's legal to go to D.C., what is planned
11 for this trip. They stayed together. They went on their way.

12 And then you see this conversation and why do you have 13 this spray in your backpack in the first place? It didn't get 14 there by accident. It's not really typical what people would 15 take to a gathering in our nation's Capitol. But it's there.
16 And then there is this conversation and it's removed and I'm 17 very satisfied with the evidence. There is no question
18 Mr. Tanios was there, Mr. Khater was there, and they were 19 there together.

20 Now, did he know that what the spray was going to be used
21 for? I can think of no good reason what it was going to be 22 used for. Especially in light of the fact that you go a mile
23 or two to walk up to our nation's Capitol on the day of a
24 peaceful transition of power, and we all witnessed it.
25 Forcing yourself against law enforcement officials that had

1 nothing but bike racks.

2 Why would you just not turn the other way and go home?

3 The fact that all of them weren't thinking of that is just 4 frightening to me. And that was the choice. The choices all
5 along the way. He didn't spray it. He handed the horrible
6 spray to the sprayer, and indirectly into a law enforcement's
7 eyes without any provocation. Men and women just trying to do
8 their job from having individuals attack our Capitol.

9 I have taken an oath to the Constitution, not to the 10 President, not to the Governor, not to the Chief Justice, not 11 to the Speaker of the House, not to the President of the 12 Senate, but to the Constitution. And those were the people
13 who were meant to protect the building where the work of the 14 Constitution was taking place. The peaceful transfer of 15 power. And why anyone thought they could be there to 16 interrupt -- excuse me, in any small way, is just not healthy
17 thinking for our society. And to the extent that we are 18 casual about that, accept that as normal, it needs to stop.

19 But the lawyers before me are familiar with how I make 20 rulings and when I make rulings, but one of first things I
21 always take into consideration is our interaction with law
22 enforcement. When you get stopped, do you run in your car?
23 Do you run away from them? Do you pull a gun?

24 I can't accept anyone who will not respond to law
25 enforcement under these circumstances other than a peaceful

1 way. And to not have just simply turned around and go home,
2 we don't need to camp, let's go home. It's not what was said.

3 And there are two compelling things in my mind, seeing 4 just that stream of spray going into their eyes. And then the 5 woman officer just with her head rubbing her eyes, turning
6 away. What did she do that day, other than show up to do her
7 job, staring down thousands of angry people?

8 And then the officer who is now no longer with us, it's 9 almost surreal, sort of locking in solitude rubbing his eyes
10 on the Capitol steps.

11 It's hard for me not to look at this as anything other 12 than an assault on our nation's home, and everything that is 13 important to us as a people. And I struggle because I don't 14 know if that represents who you are, Mr. Tanios, I don't think 15 it represented who a lot of people were on that day. But what 16 is it that causes that behavior? And all I can think of is 17 that there is something that causes such hate, such irrational
18 behavior, such desire to show up and attack our country and 19 officers in such ways that gives me little confidence as to 20 whether it will stop.

21 I'm very satisfied with the government's evidence. I
22 understand this is a one-time event, but you know there are 23 people serving life sentences for one-time events. It is not
24 representative of their character, but it happens. And there
25 are mothers and sisters, and fiancés and children who will

1 suffer every day because of their conduct. Why you weren't
2 thinking about that beforehand, I don't know, because it
3 wasn't hard to understand.

4 And so you talk about danger, and believe me, I have been
5 thinking about almost nothing other than this for a week.
6 It's what I go to sleep with, it's what I wake up with. And I
7 am reminded and when I talk about the anger, and the danger, I
8 think of a quote that I read often from Martin Luther King
9 when he was giving a sermon in 1956 at Ebenezer Baptist in 10 Atlanta. So he was saying that there are great things facing
11 us today, there is not so much that an atomic bomb that you
12 can put in airplanes and drop on the heads of hundreds and 13 thousands of people. As dangerous as that is, the real danger
14 confronting civilization today is the atomic bomb which lies 15 in the hearts and the souls of men, capable of exploding into 16 the violence of hate and into the most damaging selfishness,
17 that's the atomic bomb that we have got to fear today.

18 The problem is with men, with their hearts and souls of 19 men, that is a real basis of our problem. Yeah, it shook me
20 when I saw those things happen. And so in many ways it's not 21 going away, and I think it's the biggest fear we should still 22 have.

23 And so this won't mean anything to the family, I will 24 ache for the absence of someone that you love. But my 25 obligation is to the safety of our community. And I don't

1 think I have ever seen anything play out in a way that was
2 more dangerous to our community. And I have no question in 3 your own way, Mr. Tanios, you chose to be part of that.

4 So for those reasons I am going to remand you to the 5 custody of the marshal and you shall be detained pending
6 further proceedings, and we shall be adjourned. Thank you.

7 MR. WALKER: Will you issue a written order, please?
8 We are obligated to ask you to reduce --

9 THE COURT: Yes, I'm going to --

10 MR. WALKER: -- your findings to writing and if you
11 do that then we would more quickly be able to appeal, because 12 obviously it could take longer to get the transcript. Thank 13 you.

14 THE COURT: I will issue a written order. I expect
15 to issue it today. And I know that we were fortunate to have 16 a court reporter here to expedite that transcript. And again,
17 my decision is subject to review by the District Judge.
18 Nothing further, we will be adjourned. Thank you.
