

Honorable Judge Amy Berman Jackson,

I am writing this letter as a character witness for my husband, Kevin, who is currently awaiting sentencing in the court of law. I have known Kevin for over 30 years, and during that time, he has always been a dedicated and honorable person who places his family above everything else in this world.

As Kevin's wife, I have seen firsthand the dedication and passion he brings to everything he does. He is a man of great integrity and honor, and he has always taken his responsibilities seriously, whether in his personal or professional life.

Kevin spent 26 years serving in the United States Military, retiring with an honorable discharge. His time in the military shaped him into the person he is today - one who is committed to service, loyalty, and sacrifice. Kevin's experiences in the military instilled in him a sense of duty to his country and his fellow citizens, and he has always carried this sense of duty with him throughout his life.

During his time in the military, Kevin served our country with distinction, earning numerous accolades and commendations for his service. He was a dedicated soldier who always put the needs of his unit and his fellow soldiers above his own. His military service instilled in him a sense of discipline, perseverance, and courage that has stayed with him throughout his life.

As a husband and a father, Kevin has always been a positive role model to our children, teaching them the values of hard work, honesty, and integrity. He has instilled in them a sense of respect and dignity for others, and he has always been there for them, providing guidance and support when needed.

When I first heard about Kevin's involvement in the events of January 6th, 2021, I was shocked and devastated. I never thought that he would be caught up in something like this. However, I know that he made a terrible mistake and that he is deeply remorseful for his actions. He understands the gravity of what he did, and he is committed to making amends for his mistake.

Kevin's actions on January 6th, 2021, were not in line with the values he has held dear throughout his life. I believe that he is a good man who made a terrible mistake, and I hope that he will have the opportunity to make things right and continue to be a positive influence in our family and community.

It is difficult for me to reconcile Kevin's actions on January 6th, 2021, with the man I know and love. I believe that he was caught up in the moment and made a terrible mistake. However, I also know that he has taken full responsibility for his actions and is committed to doing everything he can to make things right.

Looking forward, my hope for Kevin is that he will have the opportunity to continue to be a positive influence in our family and community. I do not believe that one mistake should define a person's life, and I am confident that Kevin will be able to move forward in a way that honors the values he has always held dear. While the road ahead may not be easy, I am committed to supporting him in any way I can, and I believe that he has the strength and resilience to overcome this challenge and emerge from it a better, more compassionate person

I respectfully request that you take into consideration Kevin's past, his years of service to his country, and his dedication to our family when considering his sentencing. Kevin has never been in trouble with the law like this before, and I believe that this was a one-time mistake that he deeply regrets. He has already taken steps to make amends for his actions and has shown a willingness to take responsibility for his mistakes.

In conclusion, I ask that you consider Kevin's character, his past, and his commitment to service when making your decision. I thank you for your time and consideration and hope that you will take this letter into account as you weigh the facts of the case.

Sincerely,

Isela Cronin
