3. Any results or reports of physical or mental examinations, and of scientific tests or experiments, or copies thereof, including the results of any polygraph examinations, made in connection with the case and which are material to the preparation of the defense or are intended for use by the Government as evidence in chief at the trial.

4. Any recorded testimony of the defendant before a grand jury which is related to the offense charged.

5. Any books, papers, documents, photographs, tangible objects, buildings or places or copies or portions thereof, which are within the possession, custody or control of the Government, and which are material to the preparation of the defense or are intended for use by the Government as evidence in chief at trial, or were obtained from or belong to the defendant.

6. The Federal Bureau of Investigation identification sheet, or any other list, indicating defendant's prior record.

(b) The defendant further requests that the government disclose to the defendant the following:

2. The existence and substance of any payments, promises or immunity, leniency or preferential treatment made to prospective Government witnesses within the scope of United States v. Giglio, 405 U.S. 150 (1972) and Napue v. Illinois, 360 U.S. 264 (1959).

3. A record of prior convictions of any alleged co-conspirator accomplice, informant or witness who will testify for the Government at trial.

4. Whether the defendant was the subject of any electronic surveillance, and if so, shall set forth in detail the circumstances thereof.

5. Any evidence that the government intends to offer at trial pursuant to Rule 404(b) of the Federal Rules of Evidence.

6. The identities of any confidential informants who were actual participants in criminal activities. This request is made pursuant to Roviaro v. United States, 353 U.S. 53, 77 S.Ct. 623, 1 L.Ed.2d 639(1957).

(c) This discovery request is a continuing one and the Government must promptly notify counsel for defendant of the existence of additional evidence or material that is discovered prior to or during trial and is subject to discovery or inspection under any provision of law.
