

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

PHILIP YOUNG,

Defendant.

Case No. 21-mj-547 (RMM)

ORDER APPOINTING COUNSEL

As stated during the August 26, 2021 initial appearance for Defendant Philip Young (“Mr. Young”), the Court has taken into consideration Mr. Young’s financial affidavit and information proffered on the record at the initial appearance and finds that Mr. Young has financial resources that exceed the amount needed to provide him and any dependents with the necessities of life but are insufficient to pay fully for retained counsel. The Court therefore finds that Mr. Young is eligible for appointment of counsel under the Criminal Justice Act but is also financially capable of making monthly payments toward his representation pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3006A(f). Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that Christopher O’Malley, Assistant Federal Public Defender at the Federal Public Defender’s Office of New Jersey is appointed to represent Mr. Young in this matter, nunc pro tunc to August 26, 2021. It is further ORDERED that Mr. Young shall pay the amount of $400.00 per month by the 15th of each month, starting October 2021, as reimbursement for the costs of his defense until the resolution of this matter. A separate Order will be entered with the details of the payments. Defendant may seek relief from these Orders in the interests of justice if his financial situation changes materially or for any other appropriate reason.

SO ORDERED.
