United States v. Robert Reeder

Reeder is a registered Democrat. He did not care much for President Trump, although he favored some of President Trump's policies and he was not a strong supporter of his Democratic opponent in the election. He was not a member of any organized political group and had no advance plans to attend the January 6th rally. It was a last minute, spur-of-the moment decision. He did not attend as part of any organized group. He had no prior intention to be part of a group that was going to march to the Capitol. To the contrary, it had been his plan to attend the rally and then spend the remainder of the day visiting the museums and monuments on the Mall.

Mr. Reeder is not politically active, is not and has never been a member of any right-wing or anti-government or extremist group and has, unfortunately, been publicly grouped with many others who views he abhors. Mr. Reeder is a registered Democrat, and was not a Trump supporter, although he did like the patriotic spirit that he believed that President Trump was trying to instill in Americans.

Message I have listened to everyone else's hatred and rhetoric for months, now I am having my day. Don't like it? You know where the delete button is, or just keep scrolling... Let me be clear, I am not a Biden fan at all. He is corrupt, a liar, suffering from dementia. He has done nothing to improve anything in 47/48 years in politics. I truly believe

Biden was just the stepping stone for Kamala Harris to take over the White House. Nancy Pelosi is already trying to put a 25th amendment in place to remove an unfit president. I don't believe that has a thing to do with Trump having Covid. I think that's to remove Biden if elected for dementia and Harris to take over. "This is my opinion so don't bother to bash it, I haven't bashed yours!!!!!!!" SLIDE ON BY!!!!!! The so called clown in the White House just brokered two Middle East Peace Accords, something that 71 years of political intervention and endless war failed to produce. The so called buffoon in the White House is the first president that has not engaged us in a foreign war since Eisenhower. The hated so-called clown in the White House has had the greatest impact on the economy, bringing jobs, and lowering unemployment to the Black and Latino population of ANY other president. Ever! Trump has exposed the deep, widespread, and long-standing corruption in the FBI, the CIA, the NSA, and the Republican and Democratic parties. Trump turned NATO even like him. I want a strong leader who isn't afraid to kick some ass when needed. I don't need a fatherly figure - I already have one. I don't need a liar - that's what Hollywood and CNN, MSNBC, ABC, NBC, CBS and the New York Times are for. I don't need someone to help me, but I also don't want an obstacle or a demented, senile washed-up Swamp Monster. God bless Donald Trump - the most hated, disrepected and unappreciated President in history who has done far, far MORE for us all and our country than any President in history.

educate me again as to what Biden has accomplished for America in his 47 years in office? Besides the Whole Biden Family getting Richer, while turning backs on all Americans! I'll take a 'clown' any day versus a fork tongued, smooth talking hypocritical corrupt liar. Please let it be known, I am not sure I would want to have a beer with him (if he drank, which he doesn't) or even be his friend. I don't care if I even like him. I want a strong leader who isn't afraid to kick some ass when needed. I don't need a fatherly figure - I already have one. I don't need a liar - that's what Hollywood and CNN, MSNBC, ABC, NBC, CBS and the New York Times are for. United States v. Robert Reeder

III. REEDER'S CONDUCT AND ACTIVITY ON JANUARY 6, 2021 AND THEREAFTER

Overview

Robert Reeder is a fifty-five year old man who began January 6, 2021 sitting in his home in Maryland watching TV. He saw on TV that there was going to be a rally in D.C. near the White House where President Trump was to speak at 11 am.

Having nothing better to do and believing that the rally would be an interesting event to attend, he left his home and boarded the Metro and headed by himself into D.C. where he arrived around 11:30 when the rally was already in progress.

At the rally it was difficult to hear, and Mr. Reeder did not even hear Mr. Trump's speech. After going to the Mall, Reeder had intended to go visit several of the monuments and memorials while in D.C., however, he changed his plans when he heard people talking about going to the Capitol and that Trump was coming with them. He decided to also go, but did not walk with the main crowd on Constitution Avenue, and instead walked by himself with a different and smaller crowd on the Mall.

I would like to request a full review and investigation and hearing into voter fraud during the 2020 elections. There is enough proof and Reporting and Witnesses, that massive voter fraud took place in several key States that changed the outcome after election day.

Message I have several friends that posted this morning that Facebook has censored the video they posted, that truly shows voter fraud in Georgia, where after everyone went home, they pulled out secret suitcases with tens of thousands of ballots, and ran them through the machine without anyone else in the room... But that's only the tip of the iceberg, that has been revealed over the last four days of testimony in three Battleground States.

Time 2020-12-11 20:57:01 UTC

Message Unbelievable!... almost A month-and-a-half after the election, the Democrats are still finding mysterious ballots, in there fourth attempt to overthrow the election results that have been recounted 3 times in favor the Republican... Democrats just can't stop cheating and lying!

ROBERT REEDER WAS A
LAWLESS RIOTER

United States v. Robert Reeder

When he got near the Capitol building, he started taking pictures and videos of the crowd and walked towards the bandstands where he was suddenly exposed to tear gas. In an effort to find water to wash out his eyes, he went to the entrance of the Capitol building, where 5-6 police officers were standing alongside the doorway with the doors wide open. He asked for directions to a bathroom or water fountain. The officers were standing near the walls and neither verbally nor otherwise attempted to keep Mr. Reeder from walking into the building.

As Reeder entered the building, he did not "breach" the entry. He walked through an open door and no one attempted to stop him or advise him that he should not enter the building.

Many others had already entered the building and were calmly walking in the building.

United States v. Robert Reeder

How could Reeder know he was not allowed in the Capitol?

- Barricades
- Law Enforcement Officers
- Alarms
- Tear Gas
- Pepper Balls

United States v. Robert Reeder

Reeder's conduct was individual and significantly and substantially different from many others in the "crowd." He did not engage in "forced entry," did not participate in "breaking windows and assaulting members of law enforcement" and was not one who "encouraged and assisted those acts to gain entry into the US Capitol."

(2) whether the defendant engaged in any violence or incited violence

There is no evidence to suggest that Reeder engaged in any violence or incited violence by others and, as noted in his interview with the FBI agents, he condemns the violence and destruction that occurred.

United States v. Robert Reeder

(7) the defendant's statements in person or on social media

Reeder recorded himself on his private cellphone. Once he returned to his residence on January 6th and after he became sickened by what he observed on TV what was going on at the Capitol the last thing he was interested in doing was posting anything on social media. Reeder did not post anything after January 6th and deleted his Facebook account shortly thereafter. Unlike others who during or after the events of January 6th who posted comments or videos or pictures on social media boasting of their presence or activities on social media, Reeder recognized the mistakes he made in participating in the events at the Capitol and was embarrassed and remorseful for his involvement and had no interest in boasting or justifying his presence at the Capitol once he had returned home and fully understood what was going on at the Capitol building.
