Letter from Defendant, Stephen Quick

March 3, 2022

To Whom It May Concern,

I am a happily married family man. The love of my life Laura and I share a sixteen-year marriage. We have amazing identical ten-year-old twin boys, Jack and Wyatt; three cats, Truman, Stewie, and Millie; and two dogs, Jango and Margo. We purchased our house in 2006.

In 2012 I became business partners with my two brothers, James and Michael Quick. We have a store front and do custom design, watch/jewelry repair, and sell fine jewelry. I am the bench jeweler. The business, named Artisan Jewelers, runs mostly on word of mouth through our valued customers.

When not with family or at work I serve at my church on the production team, running cameras for service, and in the live remote feed. I also volunteer for charity work within my community.

I used terrible judgment by entering the US Capitol building through the window. My actions were unacceptable and totally out of character. I am truly embarrassed and extremely remorseful.

Sincerely,

Stephen Quick

Character Letters

June 11, 2021

To whom it may concern:

This letter is to communicate my observations of Stephen Quick and the consistency in character he has demonstrated over the many years I've known him.

While working in Springfield, MO for the past eight years I have had an opportunity to see individuals respond to legal cases. As you can imagine, in some situations people will find themselves in trouble and quickly turn to faith for a short term battle or remorse. In Stephen's case, he has been a consistent volunteer in our ministry for many years. We have never known Stephen to be anything but an encouragement to those around him. He is punctual, thoughtful, kind and positive. Stephen has helped with the production elements of our weekend services. He has served faithfully on a team, and he has provided leadership for the team.

I do not believe Stephen should be defined by the events of January 6, 2021. As someone who is passionate for this country, he made the trip to Washington, D.C. to attend a rally. He found himself caught up in a fast moving crowd, but never intended to do anything that would be outside of the law.

I have zero reservations in offering my recommendation of Stephen's character. Stephen's decades of commitment to his friends, family and community speak to his character. We have benefitted from Stephen's commitment to the mission of our church, and I hope you will see that he has never had a struggle with being a positive citizen in our community and in our country.

Sincerely,

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I have known Stephen Quick for the past twelve years. During those twelve years I have talked to him and done business with him several times each year. Steven has worked in his family business all the time I have known him. I have found him to be knowledgeable, fair and extremely honest in his business dealings.

As I have come to know him on a personal basis, I have found him to be a devoted family man and the loving father of twin boys. Stephen is a devout Christian and attends and actively serves the North Point church on a continuous basis. Stephen also serves the community through his family's business by generously donating to such groups as Least of These and the Highlandville Fire Department.

Stephen's character should speak for itself. Unfortunately he has found himself caught up in a not-so-funny comedy of errors. He attended what he considered to be a patriotic rally as opposed to the type of rally held by BLM and/or Antifa. He is supposed to have broken the law when he allegedly entered the building housing the Senate of the U.S. With no harm or damage being done, this is where the intent of the law versus the letter of the law should come into play.

Stephen has a strong love of country, this country, and is an extremely patriotic individual. In my estimation he would never intentionally violate any local laws or regulations, let alone those concerning this nation's capital. He has never been arrested, with the exception of this incident. In spite of the allegations against him, he maintains a strong love of country.

In summation, I consider Stephen to be a law abiding, God loving--God fearing devoted family man. He is concerned about his community and his honesty is above reproach. Stephen is a person I readily accept as a friend and I, without hesitation, recommend to others.

Sincerely,

JOHN C. (JACK) PROFFIT

Your Honor:

We are the Taylors and we are proud to offer our recommendation of Steve Quick who we have personally known for 12 years.

During the time we have known Steve, he has been a nice, polite level headed family man who works hard and who always trys to make his customers happy. He is polite, respectful, community oriented and loves his family, his community, and his nation.

He is a man of good character and good judgement . He is an outstanding member of our community and a good friend.

Sincerely,

Greg and Peggy Taylor

The image shows two handwritten signatures in black ink. The top signature is for Greg Taylor, written in a cursive style. The bottom signature is for Peggy Taylor, also in cursive and appearing more fluid and larger than the first signature.

I've been a friend of Steve Quick since I was young. His primary concerns since getting married have been taking care of his family and his business. He has a calm demeanor and tries to see the best in people. He certainly doesn't fit the description of terrorist in my mind. Domestic, or otherwise. I don't think he is the type of person anyone has to worry about becoming violent, or destroying property. A lot of people got swept up in the excitement of January 6th and I think you will find that curiosity and support of a similar opinion as many others there that day was more at play than malicious, or violent intent.

This is "our" jewelry store. We shop pretty much exclusively here. They offer many unique pieces which I like because I don't want to see 1000's of other women wearing the same pieces as myself. They have many more pieces than they have display room so you can just ask if you don't find what strikes your fancy in the case.

Very friendly and helpful staff! They went above and beyond for us, and I can tell they have exceptional service with each and every customer. Speedy service and great quality -it took less than 2 weeks to get a custom ring made. This will be my new go-to jewelry store and I would recommend them to anyone looking for exceptional service with reasonable prices!
