MINUTE ORDER as to THOMAS PATRICK HAMNER. It is ORDERED that a Video (VTC) Status Conference is set for 6/22/2022 at 3:00 PM before Judge Amy Berman Jackson. Signed by Judge Amy Berman Jackson on 6/16/2022. (Text entry; no document attached.)

06/16/2022

MINUTE ORDER as to THOMAS PATRICK HAMNER. On May17, 2022, the defendant entered a plea of guilty to Count Two, and sentencing is scheduled for September 8, 2022, with sentencing memoranda due on August 31, 2022. At the May 17 hearing, as the docket reflects, the Court scheduled a status conference for 2:00 pm on June 16, 2022 to discuss the parties views on how to proceed on the remaining counts -- 1, 3, 4, 5, and 6 -- and it excluded the time between May 17 and June 16 from the Speedy Trial calculation. See Minute Entry dated 5/17/2022. Yet defense counsel did not appear at the hearing today, and indeed, he was in another proceeding at 2:00 pm. The Court is not available to hear from the parties and it is unknown whether the jail video facilities would be available in any event -- later today. Therefore, the parties must confer and file a joint status report by noon on Tuesday, June 21, 2022 or before setting forth their joint or respective positions on a schedule for further proceedings on the remaining counts. Does it make sense to defer further consideration of those matters until after the sentencing date? Is a status hearing needed? If the parties intend to move forward on those counts, does the defendant intend to file motions and if so, how much time is he seeking to do so? Given the circumstances, the Court finds it in the interests of justice to exclude the time from the Speedy Trial calculation until June 22, 2022, and the parties must indicate their views on how to address the Speedy Trial Act after that date in the status report. Further, counsel for the defendant must explain his failure to note this matter on his calendar and to be available to appear on the date and time set at the last hearing. Signed by Judge Amy Berman Jackson on 6/16/2022. (Text entry; no document attached.)
