1                                   P R O C E E D I N G S

2                   THE DEPUTY CLERK: Judge, this is Criminal Action
3 21-123, United States versus Vitali Gossjankowski. For the 4 United States, I have Barry Disney. Defendant, I have Ubong
5 Akpan and Celia Goetzl. Our court reporter today is Cathryn
6 Jones, and our American Sign Language interpreter is 7 Mr. Joseph McCleary.

8                   [Thereupon, ASL Interpreter sworn.]

9                   THE INTERPRETER: I do.

10                  THE DEPUTY CLERK: Thank you, sir.

11                  THE COURT: All right. We're here for a status
12 conference. And the last time we were here there was 13 representation that counsel was talking about a possible
14 plea. I think I'm right about this, and that you were still 15 in discussions. Is that right? You can tell me where 16 things stand at the moment.

17                  MR. DISNEY: Your Honor --

18                  THE COURT: I'm having trouble hearing you,
19 Mr. Disney.

20                  MR. DISNEY: Your Honor, can you hear me now?

21                  THE COURT: Yes. Thank you.

22                  MR. DISNEY: Your Honor, the government gave the 23 defense our best plea offer and gave them until today to 24 accept it. They did not accept it. We're ready to set this 25 matter for trial.

1 THE COURT: Ms. Akpan.

2 MS. GOETZL: Good afternoon, Your Honor, Celia
3 Goetzl. On behalf of Mr. Gossjankowski, I just would like
4 to make the record very clear in this case that 5 Mr. Gossjankowski has been willing and is willing to accept
6 responsibility for his actions on January 6th.

7 The government has extended him one and only one
8 offer to plead guilty to assault using a dangerous weapon
9 which is 111 -- 18 USC 111(b) with a guideline range of 47
10 to 57 months. Let me just make sure I have that -- sorry,
11 46 to 57 months. Mr. Gossjankowski since the very beginning 12 of this case has disputed the assault charge, and so he is 13 not willing to plead guilty to the assault because he has 14 disputed that charge since day one.

15 So because that is the government's only offer and 16 they are not willing to extend an offer to any other count
17 of conviction charge or negotiate really at all we do ask
18 that the Court set a trial date.

19 THE COURT: So Count One is civil disorder, Count
20 Two is destruction of an official proceeding, Count Three is 21 assaulting. Is that the one that we're talking about Count
22 Three?

23 MS. GOETZL: Yes, we're talking about Count Three.

24 THE COURT: Is that right, Mr. Disney, that's the 25 only offer on the table?

1 MR. DISNEY: That is correct, your Honor.

2 THE COURT: And Counts One and Two are also
3 felonies, is that correct, Ms. Goetzl?

4 MS. GOETZL: Count Two is a felony.

5 THE COURT: Maybe civil disorder 231(a)(3).

6 MS. GOETZL: And Count Five is also a felony. I'm 7 not sure about civil disorder.

8 MR. DISNEY: I believe that is also a felony, yes.

9 THE COURT: I'm sorry, Mr. Disney, I didn't hear
10 you?

11 MR. DISNEY: That is a felony as well.

12 THE COURT: So Counts One, Two, Three and Five are 13 all felonies, is that right?

14 MR. DISNEY: Yes. I don't have the complaint in 15 front of me, but going off of the computer, yes.

16 THE COURT: 1752(a)(5) is Count Five depends. Oh,
17 I see.

18 MS. GOETZL: Count Four may also be a felony
19 because it's, it's the --

20 THE COURT: If it's alleged which the --

21 MS. GOETZL: That's Section B. They've alleged --

22 THE COURT: Carrying a dangerous weapon makes it a
23 felony. And then, and the same with Count Five, Ms. Goetzl
24 and I are experts on 1752. And by adding a weapons charge
25 it's, it makes them a felony. So we basically have a six

1 count indictment and five of them are felonies.

2           So I take it from what you said, Ms. Goetzl, that
3 the problem that Mr. Gossjankowski has is it not the fact
4 that the offer is to a felony or even to the guideline
5 range, and as we all know the guidelines are advisory 6 anyway, but rather that he disputes the assault and cannot 7 agree under oath to saying he did something that he doesn't 8 think he did or doesn't believe he did? I got that about 9 right?

10           MS. GOETZL: That's correct, Your Honor. He, they 11 have not given us any other offer to consider, so we have 12 not considered an offer to another felony.

13           THE COURT: Why don't you schedule a meeting with 14 Mr. Disney's supervisor or higher-ups in the U.S. Attorney's 15 office and talk about a plea to one of these other counts.
16 Seems like a waste a time to try the case just because he 17 refuses to acknowledge because he can't in good conscience
18 that he assaulted someone when apparently he's willing to 19 acknowledge that he had a dangerous weapon in his 20 possession. He pled to one of the other felony counts.

21           I don't want to put words in your mouth,
22 Ms. Goetzl or in your client's mouth it, but it seems to me
23 that it's kind of a waste of jury time, my time, everybody's 24 time to go trial when the guidelines are advisory anyway,
25 and the point of dispute is something that he can never

1 agree to. So why don't you go talk to Mr. Disney some more
2 and some other people and at the Justice Department or the
3 U.S. Attorney's office and come back with a different plea
4 offer, a plea and we'll be fine.

5 MS. GOETZL: Your Honor, we would like to do that.
6 We've been told by Mr. Disney and his co-counsel in this 7 case that they have spoken with their supervisors and that 8 --

9 THE COURT: Well, you should go speak to them.
10 Set up a meeting with whoever their supervisors are. I'm 11 not going to set a trial date when we can get a plea to 12 something that's just as good. He's willing to plead to a
13 felony. I don't know what more the government's wants. A 14 felony is a felony. I don't know what the guidelines are,
15 but they're probably ones that involve possession of a
16 weapon or probably pretty high.

17 And you know no felony with one exception, right,
18 nobody has gone to trial or pled with I think one exception
19 has gotten as much as 57 months, so it's not going to 20 happen. So I don't know why the government is being so
21 obstinate. Let's get a plea to a felony but not this one.
22 That's my view. I don't want to spend two weeks in trial
23 picking a jury and trying a case and sentence him to 24 something that's probably going to be under the guidelines
25 anyway. And because he can't agree under oath which he has

1 to do at a plea hearing to something he says he didn't do.
2 And I assume you've seen all the discovery and he's seen all
3 the discovery, Ms. Goetzl?

4 MS. GOETZL: Yes.

5 THE COURT: Now maybe the government can prove it,
6 and that's what a trial is for. I get that, but seems like
7 a waste of time. So that's my suggestion. You all go ahead
8 have more discussions with each other, with higher-ups, with 9 supervisors, go to the United States attorney if you have 10 to. Everybody's busy.

11 I don't know how many trials Mr. Disney has set in 12 these cases. I bet Ms. Akpan has a few. I've got a few.

13 MS. AKPAN: I do, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: I got a few trials and I'm a senior
15 judge and I don't want to spend all my time trying cases.
16 I'm supposed to be taking it easy. I've got trials now
17 until Christmas, and I got another January 6th case in the 18 spring.

19 So I don't see why we have to try this one, see if 20 you can get a conviction on Count Three when he's willing to 21 plead to one of the other counts. You know, I'm not the 22 prosecutor, I'm the judge. And that's their final decision,
23 it will be their final decision, but I think you should go
24 up to the chain and talk to some more people before we set a 25 trial.

1 MS. GOETZL: Understood, Your Honor. I will make
2 every effort to engage in negotiations.

3 MR. DISNEY: Your Honor, I would ask that you
4 direct the defense to send us an email telling us what they 5 will plead to.

6 THE COURT: Fair enough, Mr. Disney. And again,
7 I've been doing most of the talking but there are at least
8 two other counts which I believe Counts four and five would 9 say that he used and carry a deadly and dangerous weapon.
10 And as we know even though the indictment is in the conjunct
11 of it's really either or in terms of what he might have to 12 agree to for a plea. So you know I think that's a fair
13 request from Mr. Disney.

14 What counts, count is he willing to agree to if he 15 doesn't believe -- the difference between statutes are 16 different, but the statute in Count Three says he has to 17 admit to using, whereas the statutes in Count Four and Five
18 as I understand it, correct me if I'm wrong, would require 19 him to agree that he either used or carried a deadly or 20 dangerous weapon.

21 So if he's willing to plead to one of those two
22 counts perhaps Mr. Disney and his supervisors would agree.
23 I just want you to explore everything. And the ultimate
24 decision from the United States Attorney's office is Count
25 Three or nothing then I'll try the case.

1 MR. DISNEY: Understood, Your Honor. Thank you.

2 THE COURT: Do you want to set another date? You
3 want to --

4 MR. DISNEY: I would think, yeah, let's set
5 another status date, Your Honor. We would like to hear, the 6 defense to give us a solid this is exactly what we'll plead
7 to. We'll take that to our supervisors and then report back
8 to you.

9 THE COURT: How soon do you think that's feasible,
10 Mr. Disney?

11 MR. DISNEY: Your Honor, I don't believe that 12 would take very long. If you want to set this for two 13 weeks. Can we do it -- I said I know everyone is busy.

14 THE COURT: Pardon?

15 MR. DISNEY: I said I know everyone if busy.

16 THE COURT: I know everyone is busy, but I think
17 we should get a final decision. I didn't mean to come down
18 as hard as I did.

19 MR. DISNEY: No, understood.

20 THE COURT: At least I didn't mean my tone to be 21 as harsh as it is. Ms. Goetzl knows I never yell at 22 anybody. So can we do the first, second, or third of 23 August?

24 MS. AKPAN: Your Honor, I'll be in a trial that 25 week, so if we can get a little bit more time.

1           THE COURT: I'm afraid I can't do then until after
2 Labor Day, and I think we should get this resolved before
3 then.

4           MS. AKPAN: Well, then I'm sure Ms. Goetzl will,
5 I'll defer to her schedule.

6           THE COURT: You may not be ready to do it next 7 week, but --

8           MR. DISNEY: Your Honor, would you consider a
9 status report being filed instead of --

10          THE COURT: Sure. You want to, Ms. Akpan can 11 participate in a status report. That's a very good
12 suggestion, Mr. Disney. You all want to submit a joint 13 status report.

14          We'll set a date in a minute that says we have 15 reached an agreement or we reached a tentative agreement or 16 agreement in principle and please set a plea hearing for the 17 end of August or right after Labor Day, or no agreement and 18 maybe then you could suggest when both Mr. Disney and Ms.
19 Akpan, Ms. Goetzl would be available for a jury trial or 20 nonjury trial, I assume it's a jury trial. And about how 21 long you think it would take and then we can work backwards
22 on motions hearings and stuff like that.

23          I think that's a good idea, Mr. Disney. So at the 24 end of next week or the beginning of, first couple of days
25 in August for a joint status report?

1 MR. DISNEY: We just say August -- well, I'll let
2 the defense suggest August 3rd to have that filed.

3 THE COURT: Why don't we say August 2nd.

4 MS. GOETZL: Sure. I just want to make sure I
5 have enough time to arrange for a meeting with 6 Mr. Gossjankowski and our interpreter, so the 2nd or the 3rd
7 would be fine with us.

8 THE COURT: You need to talk, you need to talk
9 with your client so he knows what's going on. I'm 10 unavailable at the beginning of August. All right. Let's 11 say by noon on August 3rd, or earlier if possible there will 12 be a joint status report.

13 MR. DISNEY: Thank you.

14 THE COURT: And it will be fish or cut bait.
15 Either there's an agreement or agreement in principle to a 16 plea to a particular count or discussions have ended and 17 we'll, you'll give me your suggestions for trial date based 18 on everybody's schedule.

19 MR. DISNEY: Thank you, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: All right. I didn't mean to yell at 21 anybody.

22 MR. DISNEY: Part of the job.

23 THE COURT: Not always. So Mr. Gossjankowski, do
24 you understand you have a right to a speedy trial?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do.

1 THE COURT: And are you willing to waive that
2 right through August 4? Let me ask it this way -- let's
3 start through August 4?

4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, that's fine. Yes, Your 5 Honor.

6 THE COURT: Should we also ask, Ms. Akpan and 7 Ms. Goetzl, shall I also ask your client if he waives it
8 through the date of the plea or trial? Or would you prefer 9 to have further discussions with him and include some 10 representation in the joint status report?

11 MS. GOETZL: We can do that, Your Honor. We can 12 have discussions with him and include it in the status
13 report.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Because if we're not going to 15 meet again in person we need some representation about the 16 speedy trial. And I assume if there's an agreement in 17 principle and an upcoming plea date that would be easy and 18 if not, we're going to go to trial. You give me some dates
19 we'll have one or more interim status conference in either
20 hearings, I'm sure.

21 Okay. So in the interest of justice for the 22 reasons we've been discussing I find in the interest of the 23 justice to toll the running of the speedy trial through 24 August 4th.

25 All right. Is there anything else anybody wants

1 to raise today?

2 MR. DISNEY: No, Your Honor.

3 MS. GOETZL: Not on behalf of Mr. Gossjankowski,
4 thank you.

5 THE COURT: Thank you all.

6 MR. DISNEY: Thank you, Judge.
