ORDER

On May 13, 2021, Magistrate Judge Ivan D. Davis of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia ordered the defendant Christopher Warnagiris released on personal recognizance, subject to conditions. Order Setting Conditions of Release (“the Order”), United States v. Warnagiris, 21-mj-0167 [Dkt. No. 3]. On June 28, 2021, Mr. Warnagiris appeared via Zoom videoconference before the undersigned for an arraignment and status conference. In light of the representations of counsel for Mr. Warnagiris, counsel for the United States, and Mr. Warnagiris himself at the June 28, 2021 arraignment and status conference, it is hereby

ORDERED that subpart (7)(f) of the Order is VACATED; it is

FURTHER ORDERED that subpart (7)(f) of the Order is amended to read as follows: “abide by the following restrictions on personal association, residence, or travel: Do not depart the Eastern District of Virginia or the Western District of Virginia without prior approval of Pretrial Services or the Court; do not enter the District of Columbia except for any Court appearances or with prior approval of Pretrial Services or the Court”; and it is

FURTHER ORDERED that subpart (7)(g) of the Order is revised by striking the phrase “co-defendant,” so that subpart (7)(g) reads as follows: “avoid all contact, directly or indirectly, with any person who is or may be a victim or witness in the investigation or prosecution, including: No contact with any potential witness or victim for the charged offense unless in the presence of counsel.”

SO ORDERED.
