

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA	:
v.	:	Criminal No. 1:21-mj-00279-RMM
JACOB TRAVIS CLARK,	:
Defendant.	:

PROPOSED ORDER<sup>1</sup>

Based upon the United States’ Unopposed Motion to Continue and to Exclude Time Under the Speedy Trial Act, it is:

ORDERED that the United States’ Unopposed Motion to Continue and to Exclude Time Under the Speedy Trial Act, is hereby GRANTED; it is further

ORDERED that this proceeding is continued to _____, 2021, at _____; and it is further

ORDERED that the period of delay be excluded from computing the time within which an information or indictment must be filed under the Speedy Trial Act because the ends of justice served by such a continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and Defendant in a speedy trial. See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7).

ORDERED that the time period from the date of the Motion to Continue through and including the date of the next hearing is hereby excluded from the computation of time within which trial must commence under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161 et seq.

<sup>1</sup> The defense communicated to the government that it did not oppose the continuance or the exclusion under the Speedy Trial Act but also that it did not consent to the findings proposed by the government. By apparent miscommunication, the government filed a proposed Order that the defense in fact opposes. The defense does not oppose the Motion itself and proposes this Order so that the record accurately reflects the defense position.
