ORDER

The defendant’s motion for an emergency modification to her release conditions is granted. The defendant is allowed to travel with her father and his wife to Durham, North Carolina from March 31, 2021 to April 3, 2021. During that time, her father shall be the third-party custodian required under the conditions of release. All other terms and conditions of release remain in effect and her father shall ensure that they are followed.
