DEFENDANT DANIEL ADAMS' APPEAL OF DETENTION ORDER AND MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT FOR AN ORDER
GRANTING PRE-TRIAL RELEASE

COMES NOW Defendant, Daniel Adams, by and through undersigned counsel, appeals the Detention Order dated February 17, 2021, detaining Mr. Adams pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)(1) pending trial, and in support thereof, states as follows:

I. Introduction

Defendant was indicted on February 5, 2021 upon charges of Civil Disorder 18 USC § 231(a)(3), Obstruction of an Official Proceeding, 18 USC § 1512, Assaulting, Resisting or Impeding Certain Officers 18 USC § 111(a)(1), Entering and Remaining in a Restricted Building or Grounds, 18 USC § 1752(a)(1), Disorderly and Disruptive Conduct in a Restricted Building or Grounds, 18 USC § 1752(a)(2), Disorderly Conduct in a Capitol Building, 40 USC § 5104(e)(2)(D), Impeding Passage Through the Capitol Grounds or Buildings, 40 USC § 5104(e)(2)(E), and Parading, Demonstrating, or Picketing in a Capitol Building, 40 USC § 5104(e)(2)(G).

A detention hearing was held before the Magistrate Judge Zia M. Faruqui on February 17, 2021. At said hearing, the Magistrate Judge denied Defendant's request for release. Counsel is appointed pursuant to the Criminal Justice Act. Following denial of release, he promptly submitted pursuant to eVoucher a request for the transcript of said hearing, but as of the time of filing the transcript has yet to be received. Counsel will promptly supplement upon receipt.

II. Applicable Law

"If a person is ordered detained by a magistrate judge, or by a person other than a judge of a court having original jurisdiction over the offense and other than a Federal appellate court, the person may file, with the court having original jurisdiction over the offense, a motion for revocation or amendment of the order. The motion shall be determined promptly." 18 U.S.C. § 3145(b). When acting on such a motion, the court reviews the Magistrate Judge's order de novo. United States v. Rueben, 974 F.2d 580, 585 (5th Cir. 1992); United States v. Stewart, 19 Fed. Appx. 46, 47 (4th Cir. 2001); United States v. Cutter, 637 F. Supp. 2d 348, 350 (W.D.N.C. 2009); accord United States v. Beauchamp-Perez, 822 F. Supp. 2d 7, 9 (D.D.C. 2011) (citing United States v. Hudspeth, 143 F. Supp. 32, 35-36 (D.D.C. 2001)). Thus, this Court makes "an independent determination of the proper pretrial detention or conditions of release." Stewart, 19 Fed. Appx. at 47.

The Bail Reform Act ("Act") generally requires courts to impose the least restrictive conditions to ensure the defendant's appearance in court and authorizes courts to amend a bail release order to impose different conditions of release. See 18 U.S.C. § 3142(c). Any discussion of bail is founded on the presumption of innocence. See Stack v. Boyle, 342 U.S. 1, 4 (1951).

The “traditional right to freedom before conviction permits the unhampered preparation of a defense, and serves to prevent the infliction of punishment prior to conviction.” Id. Thus, “in our society liberty is the norm, and detention prior to trial or without trial is the carefully limited exception.” United States v. Salerno, 481 U.S. 739, 755 (1987).

When a defendant seeks to remain free pending trial, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f) governs. The statute provides that the judicial officer shall hold a hearing to determine whether there are any conditions or combination of conditions that will reasonably assure the appearance of the person and whether the person poses a danger to the community. See id. The judicial officer shall also take into account available information concerning the nature and circumstances of the offense charged, including whether the offense is a crime of violence; the weight of the evidence against the person; the history and characteristics of the person, including the person’s character, family ties, employment, past conduct, criminal history, record concerning appearance at court proceedings, and whether, at the time of the current offense or arrest, the person was on probation, on parole, or on other release pending trial, sentencing, appeal, or completion of sentence for an offense; and the nature and seriousness of the danger to any person or the community that would be posed by the person’s release. See 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g).

In making the determination as to whether any condition or combination of conditions of release will assure the defendant’s appearance at trial, findings with respect to risk of flight must be supported by a preponderance of the evidence. See id.

Importantly, there are certain types of cases in which a rebuttable presumption applies, that “no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of any other person and the community,” but that does not apply to Mr. Adams.

III. The Magistrate Judge's Ruling

As stated, supra, counsel has requested a copy of the transcript of said hearing, and will promptly forward to the Court upon receipt. That said, counsel's notes reflect that Judge Faruqui found that Defendant was not a flight risk, but that the events of January 6, 2021 remain ongoing, and that the danger had not passed, and as such, Defendant was a threat to the safety of the community.

IV. Alleged Facts

Counsel need not reiterate much about the general events of January 6, 2021 as they are by now well known to the Court, and the public in general. Instead, this Memorandum focuses on the specific allegations against Defendant, and his sole codefendant.¹

The complaint in this case alleges that Cody Connell, the codefendant (hereafter "Connell") was first identified by law enforcement as someone who had breached the Capitol on January 7, 2021. Connell posted on social media "I have more videos of us breaching the Capitol but not gonna post them. We will be back and it will be a lot worse than yesterday!" See 1:21-mj-0081-ZMF at 2. Connell bragged in advance that he was "gonna be right there in the middle of it." Id. at 4.

Defendant and Connell are reported to have gone up the Capitol Steps, with Connell posting on social media all the while. Defendant reportedly asked the crowd "[l]et's go. Are you ready to push?" Id. at 8. Law Enforcement are aware of this because Connell posted it. Indeed, there is no allegation of any social media streaming by Adams at all.

¹ Counsel had hoped to receive discovery prior to the filing of this Memorandum, but it has yet to be received. Counsel remains hopeful that some will be sent prior to a hearing in this matter.

There is purportedly a video of Adams “physically engaging” with officers at the top of steps to the Capitol building. Adams by all accounts comes off worse in this altercation and is left holding his head at the end of the video. The Government’s initial detention memorandum states that Defendant “[t]hroughout the entire encounter, Adams holds a smartphone and records his actions, sometimes looking into the camera.” See ECF 12 at 4. Thus, he is presumably physically engaging with one hand only, while the other films. What is undoubtedly true is that as a result of said altercation, he was “bloodied.” Id. Indeed, at the initial detention hearing Defendant showed the Magistrate his head on the video screen, and the scar that was still visible.

Connell later reports on social media that he and others breached the Capitol and that they “got clubbed and shot with rubber bullets.” He ended that discussion with another on social media by stating that it’s “gonna come” to civil war. Additionally, Connell is known to have had discussions with others about purchasing long-rifle firearms, ammunition and body armor to bring with them. Id. at 9. He bragged that the only way he would return to his home state of Louisiana was in a body bag. Id. Despite all of these facts - - Connell remains free pending trial in this matter, while Defendant is incarcerated.

V. Argument

This memo focuses on the narrow issues of a) will Defendant come to Court? And b) is he a danger to the community during the pendency of this case? A focus on those narrow issues results in a resounding answer that he will indeed, attend all hearings, and will be no threat to anyone during the pendency of this matter.

Counsel submits that this Court should not permit the grossly disproportionate treatment between Defendant and Connell. Mr. Connell has never been held in pretrial detention, Defendant has never been released.

Defendant, if released by this Court, will promptly relocate to his home in Texas. He has no objection to this Court entering conditions of release that prohibit him from leaving that state, except for in-person Court hearings or attorney meetings.

With regard to Mr. Connell's statements such as he planned to return and do worse, or that civil war in the foreseeable future, there is absolutely no evidence to suggest that Defendant endorsed that statement - - or that he even saw it.

Defendant carried no weapon on January 6, 2021. His lawfully owned weapons were removed from the house upon his arrest, and counsel will not be requesting their return during the pendency of this matter.

Defendant has, in effect, no real criminal history. There are thirty-two letters attached to this Memorandum, as Exhibit A, all of which speak to Defendant's exemplary character. From rescuing people following hurricanes, to being willing to give friends and neighbors 'the shirt off his back,' to how hard he has worked from childhood on, to coaching youth baseball, and on it goes.

Mr. Adams' is no threat to anyone in Texas - - to the contrary - - he is an asset to all those around him. Defendant's wife is a third-party custodian poster child. She has no record, and stays at home full time. She is happy to deliver Defendant's passport to any courthouse, should this Court so order it.

There is no allegation that Defendant is a member of a far-right organization. There is, in short, no basis to believe he is a danger to anyone and every basis to believe that he will be an asset to his community and a provider for his family. Defendant's resume is attached as Exhibit B. As the Court will no doubt note, he has several marketable qualifications, and has a work history to be envied. Moreover, as the attached letter by John Kuhn makes clear, he is aware what Mr. Adams is charged with and nevertheless, there is a good job waiting for him.

At the detention hearing before the Magistrate, the Government mentioned how early in the process Defendant and Connell entered the Capitol, but what was missing from the discussion was how early Defendant left it. To the best of counsel's information and belief, Defendant was inside the Capitol for only a few minutes. Ostensibly trying to find paper towels or bandages due to the blood coming from his head. He then promptly left.² There is no allegation that he made it into any of the more private parts of the building itself. He was not on the Senate Floor. He did not enter the offices of any Members of Congress.

Lastly, it is also clear that Defendant's conditions of confinement are onerous, given the nature of the charges. He is being held in relative isolation in C2A and C2B of the Correctional Treatment Facility. Initially, there was black mold on the wall of his cell, which Defendant endeavored to clean during the one (1) hour per day that he was allowed to leave his cell. He has no access to the law library. He has not been supplied any razor and is forced to burn his facial hair off with Nair. The only tap from which Defendant can get water to hydrate and wash previously had some sort of a moldy type substance coming out of it. Defendant typically attached a sock to the tap before filling up his water bottle, in a bid to filter out impurities. At one point, he placed a sick call for nine (9) consecutive days, before he was seen by medical. He has previously slept on the floor because, when he lying in bed, he was often soaked by the dripping coming from the walls. When counsel visited him, he arrived at the facility at 11:54 AM and saw his client at 1:05 PM. He was informed that this was because Defendant is “Special Handling” and there are a very limited number of Officers that can transport him. Indeed, the very fact that counsel felt the need to visit him during a pandemic, which was his first in person visit in almost a year, speaks to the fact that, in Mr. Adams’ case, pretrial confinement is especially problematic.³

VI. Conclusion

For all of these reasons, counsel requests that this Court release Mr. Adams to the third-party custodianship of his wife in Texas, and limit his travel outside the state. Defendant does not oppose any other conditions this Court might believe necessary such as surrendering of his passport, or obtaining no firearms.

To whom it may concern:

We have known Daniel Adams for several years. Our friendship started when we found out that he was going to be coaching our son in T-Ball. Our first practice he let us know that he picked our son because he was the same age as his grandson and we lived right down the street from each other. We all got to know each other more through t-ball but continued our relationship because he was a genuine, caring person and was fun to be around. We'd be driving down our street and see him with his kids and grandson out tossing the baseball and we'd join them. We'd spend a great deal of time together with all of our kids and neighborhood kids. He'd invite us over for Crawfish or any sort of family gathering and would never expect anything in return. We trust Daniel and consider him a great friend. If we needed a hand at our house he would be the first one to volunteer to help, if we needed a bigger boat to go fishing in he'd offer his own, if we used our boat he always offered to fill it up with gas. If someone was down on their luck, he would offer to help them too. When the cars were going too fast down our street he put the little signs out that say "slow-kids playing" to make sure that he was protecting the kids on the street from getting hit. When his step-son needed some money Daniel helped him get ALL of the equipment needed to start up his own business. We watched him teach him to work hard in life to earn a living -- something that Daniel does! He is his daughter's biggest fan and when she's dancing on stage you know he'd be there cheering her on. He'd even be there when she wanted to paint his toenails or finger nails -- We've seen it. There are hundreds of stories that we can tell you that show his good character, even ones that we've only heard about and not seen with our eyes. He's made a great impression on so many people. When we sit there and think of a good husband, a good father, a hard-worker, a man that loves his country, a man that values his family and the people around him we think of Daniel Adams.

Daniel Adams has been a friend of mine for about 17 years.

Daniel has grown in his career from being a welder to supervisor, quality control
CWI.

Just as he's grown in his career he's grown in his life to raise his children and be a great husband.

Daniel is the type of person that loves hunting fishing teaching his children the values and enjoyment that it brings.

I'll be praying for my friend and his family in these trying times and for better times.

To Whom This May Concern:

Daniel Adams has been my neighbor and friend for over twelve years. Daniel is a wonderful helpful friend and neighbor to us all. He always helps anyone who is in need. Has helped my parents and I multiple times with household issues and car issues. He also helps by keeping a watchful eye of our home and surrounding neighbor's homes and helps keep our property and families feeling safe.

For years Daniel has been very involved in our community with coaching youth baseball and football teams, impacting the lives of these children and their families. Daniel is a joy to be around with his amazing attitude and willing to help and be encouraging whenever he can. The kids and adults love him.

Daniel is a wonderful family man and a hard worker, he takes excellent care of his lovely wife, children, and grandchildren. I have seen over the years how he loves them and would do anything for them. I have had the pleasure of being involved with his children and watching them grow into great young men and a wonderful young lady. Daniel has great character and I hope you will find this in him and excuse him of the charges brought against him.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Bishop

To Whom it may concern,

My name is Luke Bolton I live in Dickinson Texas. I have know Daniel Adams since 2014 when I was introduced to him by what would soon be my future wife. I've always thought highly of Daniel and have seen through personal evidence that he is a great father, husband, and provider.

He like myself has children from another marriage and pays child support. And like me that is an obligation he takes serious and is punctual with every month. That alone shows the character of a man to live up to his responsibilities and not shy away from the duties that he is obliged to.

I lost my wife in December and Daniel was there at her memorial to give me a big hug and moral support in my time of need. That's the kind of man he is.

Daniel is a patriot and a God fearing lover of his country. It's my belief that a lot of honest people with good intentions attended that rally with nothing but having a peaceful demonstration in mind. Unfortunately something happened and there seemed to have been some mob mentality that broke out and he got caught up in that.

Please think of Daniel's wife, young daughter, and his children from his previous marriage that rely on him for financial assistance.

Sincerely

Luke Bolton

Re: Daniel Adams

Good day,

My name is Elizabeth Buchanan. I am Daniel Adams oldest Sister. I have watched that boy grow from a boy to a man, to become the most awesome Dad, Husband, friend that a lady could ask for. Daniel Adams has raised five children. His baby girl, Cameron, is the star in his eye. He stepped up to the plate to be a Dad to his step son Hunter. Hunter is now 18 and has always called Daniel, well, Dad. Daniel is the kind of son is Momma is in love with. Daniel always is there for anything our Mom and Step Dad needs. He is active in all of our lives, always being there no matter what. Daniel has worked his whole life from the age of around 15. He is now a Certified Welding Inspector, starting his welding career in high school. Daniel has been all over this nation to work and is not afraid of a job. There are three of us kids, myself, Daniel, and our baby sister Katie. Daniel is a good man. Our Momma loves and adores that boy. Daniel is one to help any time. He went to rescue people in Beaumont, Texas when Hurricane Harvey came through, has coach little league, and been to everyone of his daughter Cameron's dance recitals. There is so much that could be said about Daniel. I could go on and on. Daniel is a good man and a good person. I have no doubt in my mind that if the courts could see it to be for Daniel to come home, that he will follow whatever is required of him. Daniel is a hard worker, a good provider, a wonderful Daddy, and our brother, a good man.

There is so much good that could be said about Daniel Adams, but I won't take up any more of your time. We all are praying for his release, knowing he will follow whatever conditions are required of him. His wife and baby girl really need him at home.

Thank you so much,

Elizabeth Buchanan

Dear Sir,

Daniel is my cousin and to say he is an amazing man is an understatement.

Growing up during our younger years, Daniel was always helping around the yard and garden. Helped my dad and our grandparents.

He never complained. He was always happy, smiling and genuinely a good young man.

He grew into a wonderful family man. He's a hard worker, loyal employee, which is evident in his many promotions and wage increases. He adores his wife Tonya and loves his kids. He spends time with his family hunting, fishing, scuba diving, building things/projects with them and never misses a dance performance or recital of his baby girl Cameron.

Daniel is a family man, which was very evident to us, his extended family, when we lost our 19 year old son this past October. He and Tonya drove 5 hours one way, to be with us the weekend of our son, Tyler's memorial.. he held my hand. Cried with me. Prayed with me. Hugged me as we said goodbye to our son.

Daniel is there for his family and his friends. He helps his neighbors. He has coached ball. He has been a mentor to several young people and encouraged them to live a life that is worthy and honest.

I am proud to call him my family. I'm honored he's my cousin.. more like a baby brother, especially considering his mom, two sisters and he all lived with us a couple different times while growing up.

He is a good man. A loyal man. I'm proud of the man he has become.. his whole family loves him and is proud of the kind of man he has become.

I know with my whole heart he is someone who can be trusted and counted on.

Those kind of people are few and far between so it makes me honored to say he's my family..

Sincerely,

Mrs. Sammie Connell-Bynog

Re: Daniel P. Adams

To whom it may concern:

I have known Daniel Adams for numerous years, and I have always known him to possess solid core values including integrity, truthfulness, generosity, and kindness.

In my experience, Daniel has proven himself to be an extremely hard-working, compassionate man with exceptional reliability and dedication to his core values. Daniel is an exceptionally devoted husband, father, grandfather who has spent countless hours servantly giving to not only his family, but his community as well.

Whether Daniel was coaching youth sports teams, driving through flooded waters to assist with evacuation efforts during Hurricane Harvey, or merely helping a neighbor during a time of need, he has always maintained a friendly, warm smile of hope and given himself selflessly.

Daniel is truly an upstanding citizen and an indispensable asset to not only his family and friends, but the community as well.

To whom it may concern,

I've known Daniel ever since he married my cousin Tonya Adams. He has always been a fun, loving, and hardworking individual that cares about the well being of his family, friends, and neighbors. I personally have never known Daniel to ever put his family or others in jeopardy. In fact it's the opposite. When Hurricane Harvey hit Houston, Tx. he was on the front lines risking his own life using his boat, vehicle, and other equipment to rescue people that were stranded or clinging onto their lives to bring them to safety. He would take the shirt off his back to help someone in need. He only wants to protect his family and neighbor.

I know what happened at the Capital was wrong, and I have no idea how he got mixed up into this situation; but I know he is a good man and his family needs him. If he is released on bond, I wouldn't be able to comprehend him to abandon any terms given to him. He has children, a wife, and a brand new home they just moved into. It's all such a messed up confusing situation, and I am in shock that my cousins are even going through this. I am praying for peace and understanding for my cousins and anyone who has the authority to help his situation.

Dear whoever it my concern,

Hello my name is Daltin, I am the son of Daniel Adams. I am writing today to inform you on the person my father is, hopefully it reaches the judge of my fathers case and they read it with as much compassion as I have wrote it with. Me and my father have never been close, I lived with him when I was 12 and 13. I thought he was a monster because my mother manipulated my young mind, my father kept me clothe, kept me housed, and kept me secured. Like every man he has made mistakes, but when I was in need there was only one person who was waiting in the dark to come to my aid. He is the most honest and humble man I have ever met, my father took care of my son when I couldn't. He took care of him like he was his own. For that I have a dept which can never be paid, I owe him atleast this much to send a hopeful letter so that he can be with his family. I love my father and cannot try to repay my debt if he is away. My father is a man of his word, please allow him to be with his family. I have seen him give everything he's got for the people in need, every time I talk to one of his friends they tell me stories about him, how he helped them get where they are, They all love and respect him. He once told me he would rather have 4 quarters then a 100 pennies, Daniel Adams is a philosopher, he has taught me alot about life, there is no one I respect more. I cant express enough my gratitude that I have for him.

To whom it may concern. My name is Shane Ervin and I write this today on behalf of my friend Daniel Adams. I've known Daniel for 20+ years. We worked together and became great friends.

Daniel is a great guy with a huge heart! He's a family man and puts them first. He loves his friends and is loyal to a fault. Lastly, Daniel loves his country. I'm here to say without a doubt that if Daniel is released that he will not run nor hide, that's not him. I'll be glad to speak on his behalf any time!

To Whom It May Concern,

Good Morning, I am writing to you on behalf of Daniel Adams and to give you a glimpse into who he really is. Daniel and his family moved into our community last year and I had the pleasure to meet him not long after they moved in. I am on the board of our neighborhood HOA and was looking for volunteers to help clean up the parks as well as helping some of the elderly residents with task that they are unable to do themselves. Daniel and his wife, Tonya were the first one to volunteer to help. This was my first peek at his true character, after that Daniel, Tonya and Cameron, their daughter would come over to my house at least weekly to swim in the lake, and eat dinner, and during this time I have really gotten to know him and his amazing family. It brings a smile to my face to see how his eyes light up when he speaks about Cameron, when he laughs telling stories about their vacations, and how warm, friendly and down to earth he is. Daniel's number one priority is taking care of his family. He lost his job due to COVID, and he had to go out hunting to feed his family, but, he still found it in his heart to share with his neighbors the deer meat that he had. He has been a blessing to our community. I know of several families that when in need have contacted him and he has been there with a smile on his face, from digging ditches, to mowing the grass, from feeding neighbors to attending the meetings for the volunteer fire department. Daniel is a man of great character, and I am sure that he will follow any and all pretrial conditions set by the court.

I understand how truly difficult it is for you to make a decision like this without really getting to know Daniel. I trust in God that you will look at this letter and the other letters from friends and family and get a better understanding of who he really is. Daniel has been a blessing as well as an asset to our community, and we are anxious to have him back home.

Thank you,

Kimberly Hagan

Daniel is my only son and my middle child. He has always put others needs before his own. He's a great father. Very active in his children's life and activities. Baseball coach and team leader. Daniel has always worked hard and is a good provider for his family. He has a very strong work ethic and a good example for others to follow.

It gives me great comfort knowing he will be there for us in our later years. He is a true blessing to me and our family. Daniel is loved very much by everyone.

Always a son, always a brother. always a dad, always a husband, always a friend, always a child of God.

Love n miss you. Your mom.

Attention Gary E Proctor,

To whom it may concern,

We have known Daniel Adams for over 14 years and his wife Tonya for over 21 years. Daniel, Tonya and their children have been and will always be family.

In that time, we have seen that Daniel has done everything for his family, friends and relatives. For instance, he gained custody of his children to make sure they were in a safe environment and also fought for grandparent custodial rights for his grandson.

Daniel has worked hard to provide for his wife, children and grandchildren to make sure they were in a life style that was happy, safe, secure and comfortable.

We cannot at any time remember Daniel being aggressive, violent or angry in any manner.

Our son Brody was in a near fatal motorcycle accident and hospitalized for several weeks in Houston. When we could not be there with him, Daniel and his wife Tonya was there for us and him. He was and will always be there for our son Brody.

Daniel has always helped others in his "welding" profession find employment, if he was able.

Daniel leases a hunting lease from us in San Augustine TX for that last 4 years and he always abides by all the rules and regulations of the lease and the state.

We have no doubt that Daniel Adams will follow any pre-trial agreements and will follow all rules presented by the courts. Thank you,

Neal and Shirley Hood

To whom it may concern,

I Mark A. Johnson, have known Daniel Adams for a little over 2 years. I have come to know him good over the last 2 years, as we shared an office at work for over 6 months and worked on the same project for almost 2 years. We have been on cruise vacations with him and his family. Daniel is a hard-working guy, never missing work unless it was absolutely necessary. Daniel gets along good with everyone on the job site, and always lending a hand when needed. Even if it was outside of his field of expertise. I can always count on Daniel to help me out when ever, and wherever I need help.

I know Daniel would follow any pre-trial conditions placed upon him, just to be with his family again. At work he was constantly telling me stories of his and his wife's adventures of scuba diving and fishing. He was always showing us pictures of his daughter at dance recital, or pictures of the chicken coop he built for his chickens.

I believe Daniel Adams is a good man, and a good family man. I believe him to be a good asset on a jobsite, in his community and at home.

RE. Daniel Adams

To. The Honorable Judge

I have known Daniel Adams as a good friend, Employee and a Texan for over the last 13 to 14 years. I was both troubled and surprised to hear about his recent case as he has always been a rather solid person. It is for this reason I am happy to write this letter of reference for Daniel Adams. I understand the seriousness of this matter however, I hope the court will show leniency.

Daniel Adams has always been an upright character in the community. In our friendship and in are work history together he has always been there for me when needed. Especially when it comes to work relationships always willing to lend helping hand or helping knowledge to make everyone better. He has truly been a good friend over the past years.

I addition to our friendship, I know him as a usually an upstanding member of society. While it is unfortunate that he has made some bad decisions.

I believe that as this moves forward, he will emerge a better person. It is my hope the court takes this letter in consideration at the time of sentencing.

Despite the current case, I still believe Daniel Adams to be an honorable individual, a valuable member of society and a good human being. Thank you!!!

Sincerely,

Ryan Kleiber

To whom it may concern,

I would like to take the opportunity to tell you about the character of Daniel Adams.

I have know Daniel for approximately 15 years. We work in the same industry and have worked around each other and with each other during this time. Daniel has been a mentor and a leader in his chosen craft, and at one time was one of the best in the world.

Our sons began playing little league football together in the fourth grade. During that time I spent many an afternoons at practice and Saturdays at little league football games with Daniel. He was always there to support our children from the time they were in little league, through junior high school and into high school.

While in high school, our boys decided that they wanted to be in the Maritime training program, Daniel was one of the parents that spent time helping the students while they crafted a hand made wooden boat. Daniel also began the process to be an adjunct educator for the LaPorte independent school district so that the kids could start a LPISD/ State fishing team.

I have a business partner that has a fabrication shop in Huffman Texas, this shop is in need of shop welders, If Daniel is allowed to bond out of jail, we can assist him in gaining beneficial employment that will allow him to return to being a tax paying productive citizen of the United States of America and the State of Texas,

It is my belief that Daniel Adams is not a danger to his community nor to any other human being. It is my belief that if Daniel Adams is granted bail, he would follow all mandates as directed by the courts.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

To whom it may concern:

I would like to start by saying my family has known the Adams' family for about 10yrs now. Not only are they our friends, but they are now family. We first met Daniel Adams when our oldest sons started playing little league baseball together. Daniel was one of the coaches. He cared for all the boys like they were his own and he still does. He is a very caring person that truly cares about others and would give the shirt off his back if he thought someone needed it. He's a hard worker and great family man. He goes above and beyond to provide for his family.

He would never let anyone go without if he could help in anyway. Our families are very close and he is great person and anyone that knows him, knows that if they called him for any reason he would drop what he was doing and help in anyway he could.

Please contact me if you have any more questions. Thank you for your time.

I am Sarah Cisneros Lulue. My cousin is Tonya Adams. Her husband Daniel has not only become my family but one of my most trusted friends. My family and I have had the pleasure of being his neighbor for 8yrs. Over those years I have seen him help others countless times at the drop of a hat. If anyone needed help, day or night he would be there. Even if he just met you, he'd help you. I've seen him help people pay their bills, find them jobs, and even bring them into his home for over a year to help support them and their child while they were going through a hard time.

As soon as it was safe, he took his boat out to try and rescue as many people as he could during Hurricane Harvey all day and night. When it was all over he helped his friends clean up their homes that were flooded.

We are very selective with who we allow to watch our children and Daniel Adams is one of the few that I completely trust to care for them. He has rocked them when they were sick, played, and taught them new things. There is so much love between my kids and Daniel.

I have seen just how hard he works for his family. Long hours, driving long distances, with few days off. Then would still come home and care for his daughter. He is an amazing husband and father. He always makes sure they are well provided for. He lives for his wife and children. Providing, teaching, and sharing in their interests.

Daniel is sweet, kind, funny, and one of the best men I know. And I am proud to call him my family.

My name is Wesley Lulue and I have know Daniel Adams for 11 years, and 8 of them were as my neighbor. Daniel is a man with a huge heart and goes out of his way to help others. When Hurricane Harvey hit Houston, people needed help and he called me immediately to take his boat out and rescue people from their homes. At the end of that day he traveled to Port Author, TX and continued the efforts throughout the night. You know the saying "he would give you the shirt off of his back"? Daniel is the type of person that makes this statement relevant. He has always been amazing to my children, and is one of few men I would whole heartedly trust my children to be alone with. The way he treats them, the way he responds to them, the way he cares for them just makes me smile when I see them together. My children are 4 and 2 years old and they call him "Uncle Bow" and the way their eyes light up when he is around is a testament of what kind of heart he has. He is a great person, he is my true friend, and one of the few I trust without question. He is an amazing provider and will do whatever it takes to make sure his family is taken care of. I have seen him work 7 days a week, 12 hour shifts, for months at a time to provide for them. His priority from the moment I met him has been to better his family, and coincidentally he helped my family in doing so. I could not be more proud and thankful that he is such a big part of my family's life.

Hello

My name is Mark McComb, and I have known Daniel for over twenty years.

We have worked side by side, spent many weekends fishing with his children, watched countless Sunday football games, and I have been welcomed at his table to celebrate many holidays.

I have read the charges, and I can honestly say that this is completely out of character for Daniel Adams.

Daniel is known to be kind, generous, and responsible. He spends most of his spare time working on home improvement projects, or attending his children's events. Daniel and his wife Tonya are often the first to raise their hands when the school needs volunteers for a fundraiser, or a team needs help with an event.

At work Daniel is well respected and considered to be knowledgeable, and dependable. At home Daniel is a devoted husband, and a loving and attentive father.

In short Daniel Adams is a very good man.

I am proud to know him, and consider myself privileged to call him my friend.

Mark McComb.

I've known Daniel Adams for about 9 years now. He's always cared deeply about his wife and kids and has been a mentor to my son in helping him learn the welding trade. He works hard to provide for his family and always helps his friends and community in their time of need, regardless of his schedule.

I've worked with Daniel off and on for over 16 years.

During that time he completed the course and worked very hard to become a welding inspector.

He's always bettered himself and wanted to have a good life for him and his family.

He is one of my friends that I would call if help was needed. He'd literally give you the shirt off of his back if it helped someone.

We hate to see such a great person with a heart like his, have his character in question. He's a mediator... mentor... teacher and a very kind man.

I'd also like to add that he'd never intentionally do anything to put his wife, children or his integrity in question.

To whom it may concern:

I have had the pleasure of knowing Daniel for approximately 12 years. He is married to my stepdaughter, Tonya. I have proudly been her "mom" for 30 years.

Through the years, I have seen Daniel being a good citizen, devoted husband, father, and son-in-law. He has always been able to keep a job and pay his bills. When he wanted to further his career, he took the necessary courses and was able to be top in his field. I believe he is well respected in his industry.

Daniel is a generous, loving and kind man. He is willing to help whenever he can. He was baseball coach for his boys, and if he could coach dance he would be right up there on stage with his daughter. I witnessed him take his boat out to help rescue people during hurricane Harvey. He is a good-hearted person.

In closing, I would like to say Daniel may not be perfect, who of us are, but he loves his family, works hard, and wants good for all.

Respectfully,
Monica Smith

To whom it may concern,

My name is Elmer Paul Sneed of 3979 county road 962B Alvin, TX 77511. My birthdate is 02-04-1975. I'm writing this in regards to Daniel Paige Adams's (who will be referred to as Daniel) upcoming bond hearing in relation to the events of Jan 6th 2021. I've known Daniel for over 10 years, a relationship that originated at work. And while we're completely opposite in a lot of ideas and have argued over many things, we became close friends because we are both decent, good human beings that ended up respecting one another for that. I've never written a character letter for anyone before and to be honest out of the many friends I've come to know over the years, there's only about 3 of them that I would. I've been sitting here awhile wondering how to sweeten this up and I realized I actually don't have to, at all. So this is Daniel.

He's a construction worker that's spent half his life working 10-16 hours a day to provide for his family. Since I've known him, he's coached baseball to keep his son on a good path in life, and always talked about all the kids on his team like they were his. He and Tonya took one of his son's children and the child's mother into their home so his grandchild would have a good upbringing.

At work (in the petro/chemical refineries as only a welder at the time, during immediately dangerous to life evacuations, he would make sure everyone was out of the heater or area we were working in and evacuating themselves before evacuating himself.

We personally lost everything in the hurricane Harvey flooding and he was the first person here helping us. During Harvey he risked his truck and life by driving into the Beaumont, TX area during flooding to aid with rescuing people. And it seems like after every storm he was somewhere helping someone.

He loved welding but pursued inspection work and weeks of classes to gain certifications in the inspection field for the benefit of his family.

About Jan 6th, I talked to him the day before and he was simply excited about going to see Trump's last rally. I honestly don't believe he left with any ill intentions at all. But we've all heard the former President's rhetoric that day. I know for a fact without even having spoken to him that he regrets what his family is going through. I can say without any doubt that if given bail, he'd abide by any rules and return to his court hearing/hearings without any issues. His family has always come first, always, and I don't think he would want to put them through any extra unnecessary stress, especially his young daughter.

Letter of character for Daniel Adams. 2/12/2021

My name is Derek Stewart. I work for a very prestigious engineering firm called Burns and McDonnell. I am an inspector for the company. Daniel Adams is my ONEOK client representative and has been for the previous 11 months on the MB-4 project in Mont Belvieu. Mr. Adams was also my client representative on the past MB-2 and MB-3 projects several years ago. I write this letter with great enthusiasm and concern. Mr. Adams has always been a pleasure to work with. I have not seen any aggressive behavior from Mr. Adams. Mr. Adams has a good working relationship with everyone he encounters here onsite. We have seen Mr. Adams defuse heated situations between Sub-Contractors. Mr. Adams has always gone the extra mile to be courteous and kind to all. My colleagues and I find it absolutely ludicrous to even consider that Mr. Adams has struck a fellow man. In the years we have known Mr. Adams he has always displayed impeccable self control. To his/her honor or whom it may concern, thank you for taking this letter into consideration.

Sincerely,

Derek Stewart

To Whom it may concern,

My name is Patricia Swaby. I am a neighbor to Daniel Adams and his family. This letter is to attest to the character of Daniel Adams, as I know him. He is a good solid family man that is giving and caring to his family and to others whether friend or stranger. I first met Daniel Adams and his family in March of 2020, when they became our neighbors. I can say I have nothing but respect for him.

Upon first moving here Daniel began working to clear their land. He was gracious in sharing dirt from his property to ours, including his labor and tractor to spread it. He would not accept money for the work. He stated, "that's what neighbors do, they help each other." I knew that day he was a good man. Since then, I have seen and witnessed Daniel extending many kind deeds. He and his wife enjoy hunting and fishing. They share a blended family; each have children from past marriages and a daughter together. Seldom do I see them not doing something that does not involve their children. Hunting season just passed. Daniel and his wife enjoy hunting. He took a cousin to the lease and mentored him while he shot his first deer. He takes the family and extended family out on Lake Livingston fishing frequently. He enjoys his family life and outdoor activities. He is a grandfather. His young grandson Gage, I believe to be 4 years old, enjoys spending time visiting. From what I have witnessed he is good with the child.

Daniel is a hard worker and a true family man. From the time they first started working on their property I have watched him work many days sunup to sundown. The improvements that he has made on their property would take some people years. They enjoy being together as a family and love the country life. I have never witnessed any drinking, partying, or rowdy lifestyle at their home. The only people I have ever seen are their kids and extended family. Daniel loves to hunt, cook, enjoy time with his family and work on their property. He was in the process of building a fence when this occurred.

It is not for me to say, but I will state my view. I did not know of Daniel's trip to Washington until the day of January 6th. I did not know of the circumstances or extent of events until his wife came to our home the day Daniel was arrested. I do not feel that Daniel went to DC with the intent to harm or cause malice to anyone or anything. I believe he got caught up in a movement that was incited by our then current President, Donald Trump, and acted in a way that in hindsight he would have never done on his own without the incitement of the current crowd. President Trump created 'the perfect storm' to enrage and evoke those that were not there for violence. The crowd of peers brought chaos. I do not believe in my heart of hearts Daniel Adams went to DC to be involved in a riot. He is an honorable, respectable man and would never sacrifice his family, home or life for such actions.

I wanted to send over an email in regards to Daniel's character. I've known Daniel since 2004. He worked for me for several years and we became friends outside of our work environment. Not only was he an incredible employee, but I learned what a kind and giving person he was. When I was going through a very difficult divorce he didn't hesitate to help and even offered me a place to stay. He is an incredible father to his children and a great husband. I've watched him and his wife have a relationship that most should be envious of. I watched Daniel do a 12 hour work shift and go coach his son's baseball team after work. When a mutual friend passed away, he did not hesitate to financially help his family, even if he didn't have the extra money to do it. When one of our co workers got heavily addicted to drugs, he went out of his way to help this individual get into a rehab facility. When our areas were devastated by the Hurricanes and flooding, Daniel took his boat and went to the rescue. He saved and helped so many people during that time, I was proud to call him a friend. I could go on and on about the selfless acts that Daniel has done throughout the years of me knowing him.

Dear Sir,

I am writing this on behalf of my husband, our six children and myself. You see, Daniel is more than a husband and a dad (not a father, a dad) to his children, but a best friend, inspiration, mentor, and and the only uncle my children have known.

I trust Daniel with my life and my children's lives. Daniel is smart, talented, funny, a natural born craftsman, a nurturer, and he is anything but a quitter. Daniel has faith in the good Lord above and eat, sleeps, and breathes for his family. He respects his momma, puts his wife first and NEVER misses seeing his baby girl on stage at a dance recital!

Besides our mom, Daniel is the one to go to in a time of need-and all his children, nieces, nephews and close friends know it. Daniel doesn't turn his family away and is loyal to his friends.

I have seen pure joy in my brother when he was coaching his sons little league team. I have seen true compassion in my brother when he was out rescuing people when, one of many, hurricanes hit our area. He has shown my children (and his own) love and patience when he was teaching them how to fish. I have seen my brother be kind and in his best element when he was teaching them how to hunt. My daughter wants to be a welder, like her Uncle Daniel. My son speaks of being a game warden because of what Daniel taught him while hunting and fishing. Everyday of his adult life as a husband, dad, son, brother, friend and uncle, I have seen my brother be completely selfless.

I'm proud to have HIM for my big brother. I would not trade him for anything in this world.

Sincerely,
Daniels Little Brat Sister,
Katie Wells

My name is Tonya Adams, Daniel and I will celebrate our 13th wedding anniversary next month. I am more than willing to be a third party custodian for Daniel to be released on any pre trial conditions. I have never been convicted of a crime and all of the firearms were removed from our property on January 16,2021. I have access to Daniel's passport and will gladly deliver it to the nearest federal courthouse to turn it in if necessary. In the event that Daniel does not follow any pre trial conditions set for him, I will not hesitate to contact the court. I have no doubt that if released Daniel will abide by any terms he needs to follow, I will see to it myself. The kids and I just want and need him home.

I have known Daniel Adams as a good friend and coworker for over 8 years. When my family and I relocated to Texas for work, I interacted closely with Daniel daily. Daniel was representing the client whom my company was working for. Daniel proved to be a standup person professionally, always demonstrating integrity. I was surprised and troubled to hear about a recent case that Daniel has been involved in, and I felt compelled to write on behalf of him.

Daniel has provided mentorship as well as being a positive influence on several folks we work with. I have seen on many repeated occasions where Daniel has led by example regarding work ethic, attendance, and performance. I have not only worked with Daniel on a professional level but have got to know him on a personal basis as well. Daniel is a great family man. I have enjoyed being involved with Daniel spending quality time with his sons fishing and daughter. Daniel is heavily involved and invests quite a bit of time within his community helping with sports and other activities. I have a very high opinion of Daniel based on how he treats others.

Although I cannot speak on Daniel's behalf with regards to recent events, I feel very confident that Daniel will take responsibility for his actions and cooperate fully with any court pre-trial conditions. I am sure that Daniel would like nothing more than to be home with his family.

SY

My name is Sarah Young. I am a registered nurse working at 2 hospitals on covid units here in Texas. I met Daniel Adams about 14 years ago. Our sons played for the same baseball league and his wife Tonya Adams and I were friends growing up. Daniels step son Hunter was my son Blake's best friend throughout childhood. No matter if it were at my house or Daniels they were inseparable. I used to coach and train youth baseball/softball prior to becoming a RN. I decided one season to take my sons baseball team for the local la porte baseball league. There were not enough coaches and we relied heavily on parent volunteers. There were never many parent volunteers either. Although Daniel worked a full time job he jumped at the opportunity to help coach. He did great with the boys. He was always willing to go the extra mile. He participated in practices, games, and even met on off days to give the boys some extra work. Daniel was very good with all the kids and they respected him. He taught them discipline on and off the field. He made coaching the kids fun and they enjoyed learning from him and quite often horse playing and joking with him. We'd often have parents versus kids games and Daniel and Tonya were the first to join in. After that season I stopped coaching to focus on training kids and returned to school to get my RN. Daniel stayed active in the community coaching and assisting coach his kids teams throughout their youth baseball journey. He made it a point to show interest and be involved with his step sons as they grew and now does the same with his own daughter. Daniel is a very good friend to have. He'd do anything for anyone. This is the man who in the face of a flood, hurricane, or disaster jumps in his truck to help rescue people in his community. He is someone in our community that our kids can look up to. He is a loving husband and devoted father. Daniel wanted to see what what happening in this country first hand. He doesn't understand the divide. I am in awe of an individual who can look at reality from all sides prior to passing judgement. Daniels intent in going was to seek out the truth and see it for himself. Myself and our entire community back Daniel. I trust Daniel with my own children's lives... a trust that is not earned by many. Daniel adams is one of the good guys in our community and the youth deserve to have him to look up to. I sincerely hope you understand the magnitude of Daniels presence in our community and the impact he has in helping develop our youth.
