CONSENT MOTION TO ENLARGE TIME TO FILE MOTIONS AND RESPONSES

Defendant Clayton Ray Mullins, by and through undersigned counsel, respectfully moves this Honorable Court to enlarge the time period for filing pretrial motions and responses in the Pretrial Order (ECF no. 205) by two weeks: Pretrial Motions due September 14, 2022; Oppositions due September 28th; and Replies due October 5th.

In support of this consent motion, counsel offers the following information:

- Co-Defendants Stager (ECF no. 212) and Sabol (ECF no. 214) filed consent / unopposed motions to vacate the Scheduling Order (ECF no. 205) on August 30, 2022.
- Co-Defendants Jersey and Whitton have scheduled change of plea hearings for September 7 & 13, 2022, respectively.
- 3) The current virtual motions hearing is scheduled for October 19, 2022, so a two week delay for the filing deadlines would not prejudice the Parties or the Court.
- 4) Most likely there will be no Parties left in the "November Trial Group" so the interests of justice and judicial economy may require a revision of the current Pretrial Order.

Assistant United States Attorney Benet J. Kearney kindly consents to this motion.

Respectfully submitted,

Pat Munroe Woodward, Esq., D.C. Bar No. 436662 1783 Forest Drive, No. 330 Annapolis, MD 21401
