PROCEEDINGS: INITIAL APPEARANCE/REMOVAL HEARING

Parties appeared for initial appearance/removal hearing on a warrant filed in Case No. 1:21-mj-183, United States District Court, District of Columbia, pursuant to Rule 5.1. Court advised Defendant of his constitutional rights, including his right to counsel. The Court reviewed the Financial Affidavit completed by the Defendant and determined that Defendant qualifies for court appointed counsel. Defendant does not contest that he is the individual in the warrant from the District of Columbia. After being fully informed, Defendant knowingly, voluntarily, and intelligently waived his right to a preliminary hearing. The United States does not request detention at this time. Zoom link information for the hearing set in the District of Columbia has been provided to counsel.

Pursuant to the Due Process Protections Act, the court reminds the government of its obligations under Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), to disclose evidence favorable to the defendant and material to the defendant's guilt or punishment. The government is ordered to comply with Brady and its progeny. The failure to do so in a timely manner may result in consequences, including dismissal of the indictment or information, exclusion of government evidence or witnesses, adverse jury instructions, dismissal of charges, contempt proceedings, sanctions by the Court, or any other remedy that is just under the circumstances. Consistent with the Due Process Protections Act, the Court orally confirmed this disclosure obligation on the record and issues this written order stating the same.

After hearing statements of counsel, and being otherwise sufficiently advised, the Court HEREBY ORDERS AS FOLLOWS:

1. Jarrold James Beck is appointed to represent the defendant under the Criminal Justice Act.
2. The Court FINDS probable cause to believe that a crime has been committed and that the defendant committed the offenses alleged in the Criminal Complaint. The matter is bound over to the grand jury in the District of Columbia for further consideration.
3. Defendant released on conditions as set forth in a separate Order of release to appear VIA ZOOM in the District of Columbia, on Friday, February 5 ,2021, at 1:00 p.m. before Magistrate Judge Robin M. Meriweather.

ADVICE OF PENALTIES AND SANCTIONS

TO THE DEFENDANT:

YOU ARE ADVISED OF THE FOLLOWING PENALTIES AND SANCTIONS:

Violating any of the foregoing conditions of release may result in the immediate issuance of a warrant for your arrest, a revocation of your release, an order of detention, a forfeiture of any bond, and a prosecution for contempt of court and could result in imprisonment, a fine, or both.

While on release, if you commit a federal felony offense the punishment is an additional prison term of not more than ten years and for a federal misdemeanor offense the punishment is an additional prison term of not more than one year. This sentence will be consecutive (i.e., in addition to) to any other sentence you receive.

It is a crime punishable by up to ten years in prison, and a $250,000 fine, or both, to obstruct a criminal investigation; tamper with a witness, victim, or informant; retaliate or attempt to retaliate against a witness, victim, or informant; or intimidate or attempt to intimidate a witness, victim, juror, informant, or officer of the court. The penalties for tampering, retaliation, or intimidation are significantly more serious if they involve a killing or attempted killing.

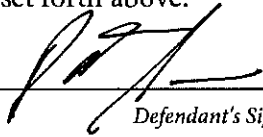

If, after release, you knowingly fail to appear as the conditions of release require, or to surrender to serve a sentence, you may be prosecuted for failing to appear or surrender and additional punishment may be imposed. If you are convicted of:

- (a) an offense punishable by death, life imprisonment, or imprisonment for a term of fifteen years or more – you will be fined not more than $250,000 or imprisoned for not more than 10 years, or both;
- (b) an offense punishable by imprisonment for a term of five years or more, but less than fifteen years – you will be fined not more than $250,000 or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both;
- (c) any other felony – you will be fined not more than $250,000 or imprisoned not more than two years, or both;
- (d) a misdemeanor – you will be fined not more than $100,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

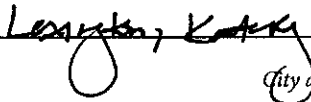

A term of imprisonment imposed for failure to appear or surrender will be consecutive to any other sentence you receive. In addition, a failure to appear or surrender may result in the forfeiture of any bond posted.

Acknowledgment of the Defendant

I acknowledge that I am the defendant in this case and that I am aware of the conditions of release. I promise to obey all conditions of release, to appear as directed, and surrender to serve any sentence imposed. I am aware of the penalties and sanctions set forth above.
