Judgment in a Criminal Case Sheet 3A - Supervised Release

JudgmentPage	- 5	of	9

DEFENDANT: MATTHEW BLEDSOE a/k/a Matthew John Bledsoe

CASE NUMBER: 21CR204-01 (BAH)

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your 1. release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time
- After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and 2. when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the 3. court or the probation officer.

4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.

You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.

You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to 6. take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.

- You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
- If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
- You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

DEFENDANT: MATTHEW BLEDSOE a/k/a Matthew John Bledsoe

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Judgment-Page

The defendant is ordered to make restitution to the Architect of the Capitol in the amount of $2,000.00. The Court determined that the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest and therefore waives any interest or penalties that may accrue on the balance. Restitution payments shall be made to the Clerk of the Court for the United States District Court, District of Columbia, for disbursement to the following victim: Architect of the Capitol, Office of the Chief Financial Officer, Attn: Kathy Sherrill, CPA, Ford House Office Building, Room H2-205B, Washington, DC 20515.

The defendant is ordered to pay a fine in the amount of $2,000.00. The Court determined that the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest and therefore waives any interest or penalties that may accrue on the balance.

Financial Payment - The defendant must pay the financial penalty in accordance with the Schedule of Payments sheet of the judgment. He must also notify the court of any changes in economic circumstances that might affect the ability to pay this financial penalty.

Financial Payment Schedule - Having assessed the defendant's ability to pay, payments of the total criminal monetary penalties is due as follows: Payment in equal monthly installments of $150.00 per month to commence after the date of this judgment.

Financial Information Disclosure - The defendant must provide the probation officer access to any requested financial information and authorize the release of any financial information. The Probation Office may share financial information with the United States Attorney's Office.

Financial Restrictions - The defendant must not incur new credit charges, or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer.

Substance Abuse Testing - The defendant must submit to substance abuse testing to determine if he has used a prohibited substance. He must not attempt to obstruct or tamper with the testing methods.

Re-entry Progress Hearing - Within sixty days of release from incarceration or placement on supervision, the defendant will appear before the Court for a re-entry progress hearing. Prior to the hearing, the probation officer will submit a report summarizing the defendant's status and compliance with release conditions. If the defendant is supervised by a district outside of the Washington DC metropolitan area, the United States Probation Office in that district will submit a progress report to the Court within 60 days of the commencement of supervision; upon receipt of the progress report, the Court will determine if the defendant's appearance is required.

The financial obligations are immediately payable to the Clerk of the Court for the U.S. District Court, 333 Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20001. Within 30 days of any change of address, the defendant shall notify the Clerk of the Court of the change until such time as the financial obligation is paid in full.

The Probation Office shall release the presentence investigation report to all appropriate agencies, which includes the United States Probation Office in the approved district of residence, in order to execute the sentence of the Court. Treatment agencies shall return the presentence report to the Probation Office upon the defendant's completion or termination from treatment.
