Subject: Plea for Leniency for Daniel Scott case no. 21-cr-292-02 (RCL)

Dear Honorable Judge Royce,

We hope this letter finds you in good health and high spirits. We are writing to you today as concerned friends and a former employer of Daniel Scott, who is currently facing the possibility of incarceration. We kindly request your consideration for leniency in his case due to the circumstances surrounding his life, including his family and his ill wife.

We have had the privilege of knowing and working with Daniel Scott over the last three years and we can confidently attest to his character and integrity. Throughout our professional relationship, he exhibited commendable dedication, honesty, and diligence. His work ethic and commitment were unwavering, and he always displayed a strong sense of responsibility. He consistently demonstrated the qualities of a true, honest, and nice person, earning the respect and admiration of both his colleagues and us.

Moreover, we must emphasize the critical situation in Daniel Scott's personal life. His family heavily depends on him, and his wife is currently battling a severe illness. Incarceration would not only disrupt their lives but also impose tremendous emotional and financial hardships on them. Considering the adverse impact on his family and the fact that Daniel Scott has shown genuine remorse for his actions, we sincerely urge you to exercise leniency and explore alternative options to imprisonment.

We trust in your wisdom and impartiality in making decisions that align with justice tempered by compassion. Thank you for your attention to this matter, and we are hopeful that you will consider the unique circumstances surrounding Daniel Scott's case. Should you require any additional information, please do not hesitate to reach out.

Respectfully,

Robert Vanreyendam & Marguerite Jackson
