Re: United States v. Ethan Nordean et al., Cr. No.: 21-cr-175 (TJK)

Dear Counsel:

I write to memorialize another production related to the above-captioned case as part of the government's efforts to produce preliminary discovery on an ongoing basis. This production relates to evidence obtained pursuant to a search warrant [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Today the government is sending each of you a 16 terabyte hard drive containing forensic copies of the devices obtained from [REDACTED]. The hard drive contains a folder titled “Notes,” which contains an index of the materials in an Excel file titled “WF-3366759_Evidence.” The hard drive also contains photos from the FBI CART extraction process. The contents of the devices are segregated into folders identified by the device’s FBI 1B number.

These hard drives are designated Sensitive under the protective order. We will send a password for the hard drives separately

We understand that our discovery obligations are ongoing and intend to supplement our disclosures on a rolling basis. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely yours,

MATTHEW M. GRAVES
