04/05/2021	MINUTE ORDER (paperless) as to CHRISTOPHER JOHN WORRELL, DIRECTING defendant to explain, by April 6, 2021 at 11:00 AM, his failure to comply with this Court's April 1, 2021 minute order by 12:00 PM today as directed, see Min. Order (Apr. 1, 2021); and FURTHER DIRECTING the government to address, by April 6, 2021 at 11:00 AM, in light of defendant's reliance, in part, on United States v. Munchel, Case No. 21-3010, 2021 U.S. App. LEXIS 8810 (D.C. Cir. Mar. 26, 2021), see defendant's 16 Emergency Motion for Reconsideration at 16, a decision that the government neither appealed nor sought en banc review, but instead agreed to pretrial release on remand, see Gov't's Withdrawal of Mot. for Detention, and Mot. to Release Defs. on Bond, United States v. Munchel, Criminal Action No. 21-118 (RCL), ECF No. 59, Munchel's application to the instant case by addressing, inter alia, whether defendant's continued pretrial detention can be reconciled with Munchel, which: (1) examined a statutory definition before finding that "at this stage, the evidence sufficiently demonstrates that Munchel's taser is a dangerous weapon under the statute," Munchel at *14 n.5; (2) placed little weight on a defendant's mere possession, without use, of a dangerous weapon while storming the U.S. Capitol in evaluating the district court's conclusion that the defendant posed a danger to the community, id. at *12TM3; (3) determined the district court did not demonstrate that it "adequately considered, in light of all the record evidence," whether defendants, who were a part of the mob assault on the Capitol, illegally entered the Capitol, carried weapons onto Capitol grounds, and showed no remorse for their actions, but had limited criminal history, id. at *18, presented "an identified and articulable threat to the community," id. at *18TM9; (4) required that any "threat be considered in context," id. at *20, such that the district court must consider "the nature of the threat identified and the resources and capabilities of the defendant" to carry out that threat, id.; (5) emphasized that defendants "assaulted no one on January 6... did not enter the Capitol by force... [and] vandalized no property" as important considerations for whether defendants "pose a threat of 'using force to promote [their] political ends,'" id. at *21[§]2; (6) directed the district court to consider whether defendants pose such a threat outside of the specific context "of a large group of people who had gathered at the Capitol in protest that day" on January 6th, 2021, since "the presence of the group was critical to their ability to obstruct the vote and to cause danger to the community," id. at *23[§]4, and "there was no explanation of how [defendants] would be capable of doing so now that the specific circumstances of January 6 have passed," id.;

		(7) articulated a difference between mob participants that "assaulted police officers and broke through windows, doors, and barricades, and those who aided, conspired with, planned, or coordinated such actions" and those who "cheered on the violence or entered the Capitol after others cleared the way," id. at *22 (citing United States v. Simpkins, 826 F.2d 94, 96 (D.C. Cir. 1987)); and (8) directed that "[d]etention cannot be based on a finding that the defendant is unlikely to comply with conditions of release absent the requisite finding of dangerousness or risk of flight," id. at *20. Signed by Chief Judge Beryl A. SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of:

Thirty Six (36) months on Counts 1ss, 2ss, 4ss, 6ss, 10ss, and 13ss. All terms to run concurrently.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: CHRISTOPHER JOHN WORRELL
CASE NUMBER: 21cr292-1 (RCL)

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

DEFENDANT: CHRISTOPHER JOHN WORRELL
CASE NUMBER: 21cr292-1 (RCL)

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Substance Abuse Testing - You must submit to substance abuse testing to determine if you have used a prohibited substance. You must not attempt to obstruct or tamper with the testing methods.

Substance Abuse Treatment - You must participate in an inpatient and/or outpatient substance abuse treatment program and follow the rules and regulations of that program. The probation officer will supervise your participation in the program (provider, location, modality, duration, intensity, etc.).

Contact Restriction - You must not associate, communicate, or otherwise interact, with any known or unknown member of a terrorist organization, or any other known or unknown criminal extremist group or individual. This includes persons who are, or claim to be, involved with violent acts, or advocating for acts of violence, and any persons who are located outside the United States without the approval of the Court. If you inadvertently associate, communicate, or otherwise interact with a known terrorist or extremist group or individual, you must immediately report this to the probation officer.

Social Media Restriction - You must seek the approval of the probation officer if you wish to access, view, or use any online social media. You must not download any social media apps to your phone or computer. You must not access social media on any other device not approved by the probation officer. Social media includes social media sites, chat services, blogs, instant messages, SMS, MMS, digital photos, video sharing websites, emails or any other interactive, online, or electronic communication applications or sites.

Computer Monitoring/Search - To ensure compliance with the computer monitoring condition, you must allow the probation officer to conduct initial and periodic unannounced searches of any computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)) subject to computer monitoring. You must allow the probation officer to install computer monitoring software on any computer. This includes desktops, laptops, mobile devices, smartwatches, gaming systems, private servers, or any other high-speed data processing device performing logical, arithmetic, or storage functions. These searches shall be conducted to determine whether the computer contains any prohibited data prior to installation of the monitoring software, whether the monitoring software is functioning effectively after its installation, and whether there have been attempts to circumvent the monitoring software after its installation. You must warn any other people who use these computers that the computers may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. A probation officer may conduct a search pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that there is a violation of a condition of supervision and that the computer or device contains evidence of this violation. Any search will be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.

-You must not use any services designed to encrypt disguise, mask, or anonymize your online activity, such as TOR, I2P, Freenet, Freeto, Tox, Virtual Private Networks or other anonymizing applications, services, or sites.

Search/Seizure- The defendant shall submit his or her person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)), other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, or office, to a search conducted by a United States probation officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. An officer may conduct a search pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that the defendant has violated a condition of his supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.

Re-entry Progress Hearing - Within forty-five days of release from incarceration or placement on supervision, you will appear before the Court for a re-entry progress hearing. Prior to the hearing, the probation officer will submit a report summarizing your status and compliance with release conditions. If you are supervised by a district outside of the Washington DC metropolitan area, the United States Probation Office in that district will submit a progress report to the court within 60 days of the commencement of supervision; upon receipt of the progress report, the Court will determine if your appearance is required.
