

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Criminal No. 21-106 (TJK)

v.

Jerod Hughes

Defendant.

DEFENDANT'S UNOPPOSED MOTION TO CONTINUE

Defendant moves this court to continue the status in this case set for June 8, 2021, to enable the parties to pursue further investigation and discovery. Although some discovery has been provided the prosecution has made clear there is still much more discovery that will be produced. If the status goes forward it is clear the defendant will only be asking that another status date be set so that the discovery is produced and reviewed. Defendant seeks to continue the status in the instant case for approximately 60 days. The prosecution via AUSA Hava Mirell and co-defendant counsel Palmer Hoovestall have stated they do not oppose this request. Defendant has been advised of and agrees to waive Speedy Trial rights between now and the continued status date.

WHEREFORE, defendant requests that the Court continue the status for approximately 60 days.

Respectfully submitted,
