Re: United States v. Jason Gerding
Case No. #: 1:21-cr-00131-PLF

Dear Mr. Ohm:

I write to respond to your April 27, 2021 letter requesting a Bill of Particulars as to Counts One and Two in the Information. The Information in this case contains a plain, concise, and definite statement of the essential facts constituting each charged offense and complies with Rule 7 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The Complaint and previously produced discovery provide still further information about the charges brought against your client. To the extent you seek additional discovery regarding the defendant's conduct, the government anticipates providing additional documents and materials in future discovery productions. Given these facts, a Bill of Particulars is unwarranted.

If you have any questions about the status of discovery, or questions about the materials previously provided, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

/s/Anthony L. Franks
