v.	:	CASE NO. 21-CR-507 (PLF)
STEPHANIE MARYLOU BAEZ,	:
Defendant.	:

JOINT PROPOSED SCHEDULING ORDER

1. TRIAL. A bench trial in this matter will commence on May 8, 2022, at 10:00 a.m. in Courtroom 29 in the William B. Bryan Annex to the E. Barrett Prettyman Courthouse with opening statements and will continue each weekday at 10:00 a.m. until concluded.

2. STATUS CONFERENCE. A status conference will be held on November 4, 2022, at 2:00 p.m., via Zoom videoconference.

3. FINAL PRETRIAL CONFERENCE. The final pretrial conference will be held on April 21, 2023, at 10:30 a.m. via Zoom videoconference. The Court will rule on any objections to proposed exhibits, see infra ¶ 10, to the extent possible at the pretrial conference, hearing argument as necessary.

4. MOTIONS TO SUPPRESS. Pursuant to the previous Scheduling Order (ECF No. 26), any motions to suppress statements or tangible evidence were filed on or before September 2, 2022. Any oppositions to motions to suppress were filed on or before September 16, 2022, and any replies in support of motions to suppress were filed on or before September 23, 2022. The Court will hear any witness testimony, consider non-testimonial evidence, and hear oral argument on any motions to suppress on November 10, 2022, at 10:30 a.m. If witness testimony will be required, the Court will convene an in-person or hybrid hearing. Otherwise, the Court will convene via Zoom videoconference.

5. PRETRIAL MOTIONS. Pursuant to the previous Scheduling Order (ECF No. 26), any pretrial motions raising purely legal issues – including but not limited to motions to dismiss the case and motions for change of venue – were filed on or before September 16, 2022. Any oppositions to any such pretrial motions were filed on or before September 30, 2022, and any replies in support of such pretrial motions were filed on or before October 7, 2022. The Court will hear any argument on any such pretrial motions on November 10, 2022, at 10:00 a.m. via Zoom videoconference.

6. EXPERT WITNESSES. The parties shall disclose any expert witnesses accompanied by a brief description of each witness's area of expertise and expected testimony on or before March 17, 2023.

7. MOTIONS IN LIMINE AND DAUBERT MOTIONS. Any motions in limine and Daubert motions shall be filed on or before March 17, 2023. Oppositions to any such motions shall be filed on or before March 31, 2023, and any replies in support of such motions shall be filed on or before April 5, 2023. The Court will hear any argument on any motions in limine and Daubert motions on April 17, 2023, at 2:00 p.m. If witness testimony will be required to resolve any Daubert motions, the Court will convene an in-person or hybrid hearing. Otherwise, the Court will convene via Zoom videoconference.

8. RULE 404(B) NOTICE. The United States shall provide notice to Ms. Baez of any evidence it intends to offer pursuant to Rule 404(b) of the Federal Rules of Evidence on or before March 31, 2023.

9. BRADY AND GIGLIO EVIDENCE. The United States is under a continuing and ongoing obligation to provide defense counsel any favorable or exculpatory information (Brady) as it becomes available, whether it is admissible or not. Brady information must be disclosed on a rolling basis as “the duty to disclose is ongoing.” Pennsylvania v. Ritchie, 480 U.S. 39, 60 (1987); see also LCrR 5.1(a) (“[T]he government shall make good-faith efforts to disclose [Brady] information to the defense as soon as reasonably possible after its existence is known, so as to enable the defense to make effective use of the disclosed information in the preparation of its case.” (emphasis added)). The Court hereby admonishes the United States that it is bound by this Court’s rulings regarding the definition of exculpatory information and the government’s obligation to timely disclose any such exculpatory information. See United States v. Safavian, 233 F.R.D. 12, 16 (D.D.C. 2005) (“[T]he government must always produce any potentially exculpatory or otherwise favorable evidence without regard to how the withholding of such evidence might be viewed – with the benefit of hindsight – as affecting the outcome of trial.” In addition, to the extent it has not already done so, the United States must disclose information that may be useful for impeachment or may otherwise affect the credibility of any government witness (Giglio) – including Lewis material – on or before April 24, 2023. See United States v. Celis, 608 F.3d 818, 835-36 (D.C. Cir. 2010). Giglio obligations are also ongoing. The United States may request a protective order to preclude defense counsel from sharing Giglio information with Ms. Baez or others.

10. EXHIBIT LISTS. The parties shall exchange lists of exhibits they intend to use in their cases-in-chief on or before April 7, 2022. The written exhibit lists must contain a brief description of each exhibit. The parties shall file any objections to the admissibility of exhibits, to the extent practicable, on or before April 12, 2023. All exhibits are to be marked in advance of trial and listed in order on the exhibit form obtained from the Courtroom Deputy Clerk. On or before May 1, 2023, counsel shall furnish opposing counsel with a copy of their pre-marked exhibits and shall deliver to the Court two sets of binders containing their exhibit lists and copies of their pre-marked exhibits.

11. WITNESS LISTS. The parties shall exchange lists of witnesses intended to be called in their cases-in-chief on or before April 24, 2023. On that date, the United States shall also provide to Ms. Baez all Brady or Giglio material not previously disclosed pertaining to each witness on its witness list. Counsel will not be limited to calling only those witnesses listed and will not be required to call their witnesses in the sequence listed. In some cases, security concerns may justify nonidentification of witnesses by the United States until shortly before they are called to testify. In this situation, the United States will include the number of unidentified witnesses in its witness list and separately identify those witnesses in a filing under seal. Defense counsel shall not publicly disseminate the names of those witnesses.
