 Defendant. :

UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR TRAVEL

Defendant, Ken Grayson, through undersigned counsel, respectfully moves the Court for permission to travel to Elk Park, North Carolina, from May 27, 2022, until May 29, 2022. As grounds for the request, Mr. Grayson's states the following:

1. Mr. Grayson's next hearing in this matter is June 1, 2022.
2. Mr. Grayson's conditions of release require him to seek permission from the Court to travel outside of the Western District of Pennsylvania.
3. Mr. Grayson now requests permission to travel to Elk Park, North Carolina, from May 27, 2022, until May 29, 2022, so that Mr. Grayson can take his mother -- who requires the assistance of oxygen to breathe properly, 24 hours a day -- to visit her niece and her family.
4. The Government, per Department of Justice Attorney Detailee, Maria Fedor, does not oppose this motion.

Wherefore, undersigned counsel respectfully requests that the Court permit Mr. Grayson to travel to Elk Park, North Carolina, from May 27, 2022, until May 29, 2022.

Respectfully submitted,

A. J. KRAMER
