DANIEL D. EGTVEDT.)

UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR TEMPORARY MODIFICATION OF PRETRIAL RELEASE CONDITIONS

COMES NOW Kira Anne West, counsel for Mr. Daniel D. Egtvedt in the above captioned case, and asks this Honorable Court to order a temporary modification in pretrial release conditions and in support states the following:

As this Court knows, Mr. Egtvedt is charged with numerous counts, both misdemeanors and felonies, in the January 6, 2021, riot at the Capitol. As the Court also knows, Mr. Egtvedt has been completely compliant with his pretrial release conditions.

Specifically, Mr. Egtvedt requests that he be allowed to accompany his brother, Rick Egtvedt, who is currently serving as his third party custodian, to their farm in Romney, West Virginia, which is approximately 1.5 hours from their home in Garrett County, Maryland. Mr. Rick Egtvedt has scheduled a great deal of repair work and he needs to be at the farm from October 4-8, 2021.

As of today, October 1, 2021, both Pretrial Services in Maryland and the United States Attorney's Office AUSA's have no opposition to this motion. Undersigned counsel spoke to Pretrial Services Officer John Copes in the office of Washington, D.C. who defers to the Court but states that Mr. Egtvedt has been compliant.

Mr. Egtvedt respectfully requests that this Court order pretrial services to temporarily

ORDER

Pending before the Court is the defendant's unopposed motion to temporarily modify the pretrial release condition of home detention at the home of his third party custodian and allow him to travel to his family farm in Romney, West Virginia. The motion having merit, the motion is GRANTED/DENIED. It is therefore ORDERED, that Mr. Egtvedt be allowed to travel to the family farm in Romney, West Virginia, and stay at the farm from October 4-8, 2021.

SO ORDERED.

Signed this _____ day of _____, 2021.
