FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA :
 Plaintiff, :
 v. : Crim. No. 21-224 (TSC)
 KENNETH GRAYSON :
 Defendant. :

UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR TRAVEL

Defendant, Ken Grayson, through undersigned counsel, respectfully moves the Court for permission to travel to St. Petersburg, Florida, from September 16, 2022 until October 2, 2022.

As grounds for the request, Mr. Grayson's states the following:

1. Mr. Grayson's next hearing in this matter is September 12, 2022.
2. Mr. Grayson's conditions of release require him to seek permission from the Court to travel outside of the Western District of Pennsylvania.
3. Mr. Grayson now requests permission to travel to St. Petersburg, Florida, from September 16, 2022 until October 2, 2022, so that Mr. Grayson and his parents (who will be travelling with Mr. Grayson) can visit his sister and her family. Mr. Grayson's home detention condition would be suspended solely during the time he is on the trip.
4. Mr. Grayson has taken trips outside of the Western District of Pennsylvania with the Court's permission in the past without incident.
5. The Government, per Attorney, Detailee Maria Fedor, does not oppose this motion.
United States Pretrial Services also does not oppose this motion.

Wherefore, undersigned counsel respectfully requests that the Court permit Mr. Grayson to travel to St. Petersburg, Florida, from September 16, 2022 until October 2, 2022.

Respectfully submitted,

A. J. KRAMER
