The United States hereby gives notice, pursuant to Local Criminal Rule 49, of the following exhibits that were provided to the Court and standby counsel in relation to the defendant’s oral motion for bond and the hearing on that motion scheduled for January 20, 2022. The exhibits were provided via e-mail and USAfx on January 20, 2022 and are as follows:

3. Government’s Exhibit E is a clip from the body-worn camera of MPD Officer H.F. and is approximately 58 seconds in length. The events depicted in Exhibit E occurred at approximately 2:34 p.m. on January 6, 2021.
4. Government Exhibits F, G, H, and I are screenshots from Officer H.F.’s body-worn camera clip (Exhibit E). Each one is time-stamped approximately 2:34 p.m. on January 6, 2021.

6. Government Exhibits K, L, M, N, O, P, and Q are screenshots of social media postings by defendant Brian Mock and the woman who accompanied him to the Capitol. Each of these screenshots were provided by a tipster. It is the government's understanding that these posts were posted on or around January 6, 2021. The screenshots were captured by the tipsters on various dates between January and May 2021.

7. Government Exhibits R, S, and T are excerpts taken from defendant Mock's Facebook returns that the FBI received pursuant to a search warrant. Exhibit R was posted on January 2, 2021. The posts in Exhibit S were posted on January 3, 2021. Exhibit T was posted on January 8, 2021.

8. Government Exhibit U is a publicly-available Instagram video. It is approximately three minutes in length. Mr. Mock can be seen shoving a Capitol police officer at the 2:14 mark. Mr. Mock is wearing a green camouflage hoodie and a black backpack. At the 2:30 mark, Mr. Mock can be seen yelling and pointing at officers. The government believes these are the same events depicted in Exhibit A (Officer C.W.'s body-camera video) from a different angle.
