Defendant.	:

ORDER

Pending before the Court is the defendant’s motion to temporarily modify the pretrial release condition of home detention at the home of his third party custodian and allow him to live in the family condominium across the street from his current residence. The motion having merit, the motion is GRANTED. It is therefore ORDERED that Mr. Egtvedt be allowed to live in the family condo but still be monitored by pretrial services with location monitoring and with his brother Rick Egtvedt remaining as his third party custodian.

SO ORDERED.

Signed this 8th day of November, 2021.
