

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

v.

JARED ADAMS,

Defendant.

Case No.: 1:21-cr-00212 ABJ-1

MOTION FOR THE U.S. MARSHALS SERVICE TO PROVIDE NON-CUSTODIAL TRANSPORTATION AND SUBSISTANCE FOR TRIAL

COMES NOW, Jared Adams, through counsel Joseph R. Conte, to respectfully request this honorable court to direct the U.S. Marshals Service to provide the defendant with travel and subsistence expenses from Plain City, Ohio to Washington, D.C. and return to Plain City, Ohio for his attendance at trial in this matter. As grounds for this motion counsel would state.

1. Trial in this matter is scheduled will be scheduled at the next Status Hearing.

2. Trial is anticipated to last 3-4 days.

3. The defendant resides in Plain City, Ohio.

4. The defendant does not have the financial ability to pay the transportation expenses from Plain City, Ohio to Washington, D.C. and return to Plain City.

5. 18 U.S.C. §4285 states:

Any judge or magistrate judge of the United States, when ordering a person released under chapter 207 on a condition of his subsequent appearance before that court, any division of that court, or any court of the United States in another judicial district in which criminal proceedings are pending, may, when the interests of justice would be served thereby and the United States judge or magistrate judge is satisfied, after appropriate inquiry, that the defendant is financially unable to provide the necessary transportation to appear before the required court on his own, direct the United States marshal to arrange for that person's means of noncustodial transportation or furnish the fare for such transportation to the place where his appearance is required, and in addition may direct the United States marshal to furnish that person with an amount of money for subsistence expenses to his destination, not to exceed the amount authorized as a per diem allowance for travel under section 5702\(a\) of title 5, United States Code. When so ordered, such expenses shall be paid by the marshal out of funds authorized by the Attorney General for such expenses.

WHEREFORE counsel respectfully requests that this honorable court order the U.S. Marshals service to pay transportation and subsistence to the defendant for his appearance at the trial.
