NOLAND KIDD) Defendant)

UNOPPOSED MOTION TO HAVE DEFENDANT’S SENTENCING HEARING CONDUCTED VIRTUALLY VIA VIDEOCONFERENCE

Comes now counsel for the defendant, NOLAND KIDD, and respectfully moves this Honorable Court to allow the defendant to appear virtually via videoconference for his sentencing hearing. As this court is aware, the defendant has been present for all previous court appearances without incident. The defendant resides in Georgia. He does not possess the financial resources to pay for a trip to the District of Columbia. Moreover, he has been compliant with the terms and conditions of his release since his arrest.

Counsel has spoken with the government about this matter and the government does not oppose this request. The appearance of the defendant via video does not limit the court’s ability to impose a sentence it deems appropriate. Accordingly, the court’s obligation to administer justice is not infringed upon by this request.

WHEREFORE, Counsel and the defendant respectfully request that this Honorable Court allow the defendant to appear virtually for sentencing.

Respectfully submitted,
By counsel
