 DANIEL D. EGTVEDT.)

UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR TEMPORARY MODIFICATION OF PRETRIAL RELEASE CONDITIONS

COMES NOW Kira Anne West, counsel for Mr. Daniel D. Egtvedt in the above captioned case, and asks this Honorable Court to order a temporary modification in pretrial release conditions for the below reasons and in support states the following:

As this Court knows, Mr. Egtvedt is charged with numerous counts, both misdemeanors and felonies, in the January 6, 2021, riot at the Capitol. As the Court also knows, Mr. Egtvedt has been completely compliant with his pretrial release conditions.

On March 29th, undersigned counsel filed an unopposed motion to modify conditions of release temporarily with the dates April 11-13. This Court granted the motion. Unfortunately, yesterday, Mr. Egtvedt’s elderly mother fell and suffered numerous medical issues which caused her immediate hospitalization. She was transferred from the local hospital to Morgantown, W. Va. yesterday.

Specifically, Mr. Egtvedt requests that he be allowed to stay in Morgantown, W. Va. until his mother is safely out of surgery and transferred to another facility depending upon where and when she will recuperate. Mr. Egtvedt has provided detailed facts about her condition and location to undersigned counsel and to his supervising pretrial officer. Undersigned counsel will keep the parties apprised of the situation as decisions are made.

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I hereby certify on the 13th day of April, 2022 a copy of same was delivered to the parties of record, by email, pursuant to the Covid standing order and the rules of the Clerk of Court.
