UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA	}
vs.	Criminal Case No. 1:21-cr-274-RDM-1
JOHNNY HARRIS

DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO EXTEND REPORTING DATE

The Defendant, Johnny harris, by and through his attorney respectfully moves this Honorable Court for a written Order extending his reporting date which is presently set for July 20, 2023.

Mr. Harris was sentenced on June 2, 2023 to seven months of incarceration. The Court granted the defendant's request to self-report after September 13, 2023. This is reflected in the Minute entry from the June 2, 2023 sentencing hearing. On July 5, 2023, Mr. Harris received notice from the United States Probation for the District of Columbia that his report date is scheduled for July, 20, 2023. (Attached as Exhibit "A") Counsel for the defendant has communicated with the United States Probation Office, who stated that the oral order is not sufficient, and the defendant will need to file this motion.

&lt;sup>1</sup> 06/02/2023 "Minute Entry for proceedings held before Judge Randolph D. Moss: Sentencing held on 6/2/2023 as to JOHNNY HARRIS (1). Count(s) 1, 3, 4, Dismissed on Government's Motion; Defendant Sentenced to 7 Months Incarceration; 12 Months Supervised Release; $25 Special Assessment and $500 Restitution as to Count 2. Bond Status of Defendant: continued on same conditions of release and to self-surrender after 9/13/23. Court Reporter: Tammi Sefranek; Defense Attorney: Samuel Randall, IV; US Attorney: Will Widman; Probation Officer: Kristina Renfroe."

WHEREFORE, the defendant prays to this Court for a written order extending his reporting date until September 13, 2023.

Respectfully submitted, this the 10th day of July 2023.
