

Presidential Election, which had taken place on Tuesday, November 3, 2020. The joint session began at approximately 1:00 PM. Shortly thereafter, by approximately 1:30 PM, the House and Senate adjourned to separate chambers to resolve a particular objection. Vice President Mike Pence was present and presiding, first in the joint session, and then in the Senate chamber.

4. As the proceedings continued in both the House and the Senate, and with Vice President Pence present and presiding over the Senate, a large crowd gathered outside the Capitol. Temporary and permanent barricades, as noted above, were in place around the exterior of the Capitol, and USCP officers were present and attempting to keep the crowd away from the Capitol and the proceedings underway inside.

5. At approximately 2:00 PM, certain individuals in the crowd forced their way through, up, and over the barricades. Officers of the USCP were forced to retreat and the crowd advanced to the exterior façade of the building. The crowd was not lawfully authorized to enter or remain in the building and, prior to entering the building, no members of the crowd submitted to security screenings or weapons checks as required by USCP officers or other authorized security officials.

6. At such time, the certification proceedings were still underway, and the exterior doors and windows of the Capitol were locked or otherwise secured. Members of the USCP attempted to maintain order and keep the crowd from entering the Capitol; however, shortly after 2:00 PM, individuals in the crowd forced entry into the Capitol, including by breaking windows and by assaulting members of law enforcement, as others in the crowd encouraged and assisted those acts. The riot resulted in substantial damage to the Capitol, requiring the expenditure of more than $1.4 million dollars for repairs.

7. Shortly thereafter, at approximately 2:20 PM, members of the House of Representatives and of the Senate, including the President of the Senate, Vice President Pence, were instructed to—and did—evacuate the chambers. Accordingly, all proceedings of the United States Congress, including the joint session, were effectively suspended until shortly after 8:00 PM on January 6, 2021. In light of the dangerous circumstances caused by the unlawful entry to the Capitol—including the danger posed by individuals who had entered the Capitol without any security screening or weapons check—Congressional proceedings could not resume until after every unauthorized occupant had been removed from or left the Capitol, and USCP confirmed that the building was secured. The proceedings resumed at approximately 8:00 PM after the building had been secured. Vice President Pence remained in the Capitol from the time he was evacuated from the Senate Chamber until the session resumed.

Defendant Spigelmyer's Participation in the January 6, 2021, Capitol Attack

8. The defendant, Paul Spigelmyer, lives in Lewiston, Pennsylvania. On January 5, 2021, defendant traveled Pennsylvania to Rockville, Maryland via automobile with his co-defendants Christy Clark and Matthew Clark. The purpose of the defendant's trip to Washington, D.C., was to protest Congress' certification of the Electoral College.

9. On the morning of January 6, Defendant Christy Clark, Defendant Matthew Clark, and Defendant Spigelmyer met up with Defendant Christy Clark's friend and attended the "Stop the Steal" rally in Washington, D.C., and then marched with other protestors to the Capitol.

10. At around 3:04 p.m. Defendant entered the Capitol with his co-defendants into the East Rotunda Doors.

11. Mr. Spigelmyer continued walking to the interior of the Capitol toward the Rotunda and entered the Capitol Rotunda at about 3:06 p.m.

12. Mr. Spigelmyer walked around the Rotunda for approximately four minutes, after law enforcement began forcing the mob to exit the Rotunda.

13. Mr. Spigelmyer exited the Capitol through the East Rotunda doors at around 3:12 p.m.

14. On February 10, 2021, Mr. Spigelmyer admitted to law enforcement that he entered the Capitol on January 6, 2021.

15. Mr. Spigelmyer shared discovery he received during the course of this case with a female friend. Specifically, the discovery he shared contained the name of a witness in this case. Mr. Spigelmyer did not direct his friend to make any threats to, or have any contact with, the witness.

Elements of the Offense

16. Paul Spigelmyer knowingly and voluntarily admits to all the elements of 40 U.S.C. § 5104(e)(2)(G). Specifically, defendant admits that she willfully and knowingly entered the U.S. Capitol Building knowing that that she did not have permission to do so. Defendant further admits that while inside the Capitol, defendant willfully and knowingly paraded, demonstrated, or picketed.
