 Defendant. :

CONSENT MOTION TO CONTINUE PRELIMINARY HEARING AND TO EXCLUDE TIME UNDER SPEEDY TRIAL ACT

Pursuant to Rule 5.1(d) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 18 U.S.C. § 3161 (The Speedy Trial Act), the parties in the above captioned case, by and through the undersigned Assistant United States Attorney, and through defense counsel, respectfully move this Court to continue the scheduled hearing of March 12, 2021 (scheduled as an initial appearance), extend the 30-day time period for filing of the indictment by another 90 days, and to schedule a preliminary hearing date an additional 90 days out. The parties submit that good cause exists and request that the indictment return date and the preliminary hearing date be continued for at least another 90 days beyond the currently scheduled dates and that time be excluded from the Speedy Trial clock for the reasons stated herein.

1. On February 12, 2021, the defendant was charged in a criminal complaint with knowingly entering or remaining in any restricted Capitol building or grounds without lawful authority in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1752(a)(1) and (2).

2. The defendant was arrested in Western District of Missouri where he appeared for his initial appearance on February 19, 2021. Wilson was released with pretrial conditions.

3. Wilson has not yet appeared before this Court. This Court scheduled a preliminary hearing for March 12, 2021 (21 days from the date of Wilson's initial appearance in Missouri).

4. This is the first request for extension of time.

5. Without a continuance or extension, preliminary hearings must be held within 21 days of the initial appearance if the defendant is not in custody. Fed. R. Crim. P. 5.1(c). Moreover, without an extension, an indictment or information must be filed within 30 days of the arrest. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(b).

6. Continuances of preliminary hearings may be granted with the defendant's consent upon a showing of good cause, taking into account the public interest in the prompt disposition of criminal cases. Fed. R. Crim. P. 5.1(d). Moreover, the Speedy Trial Act permits the Court to extend the 30 day period between arrest and indictment if it finds that it would be unreasonable to expect the return within 30-days or because the facts upon which the grand jury must base its determination is unusual or complex. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(B)(iii).

7. The parties submit that there is good cause to continue the preliminary hearing, to extend the time for filing the indictment, and to exclude the delay from the Speedy Trial computation on a number of bases.

8. The parties submit that the ends of justice served by a continuance and extension outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A). The government and counsel for the defendant have conferred and are continuing to communicate in an effort to resolve this matter. The current restrictions on counsel, particularly those impacting defense counsel's ability to communicate with his client and the pandemic, have slowed this process.

a. As part of the "ends of justice" analysis the Court considers, "[w]hether the case is so unusual or so complex, due to the number of defendants, the nature of the prosecution, or the existence of novel questions of fact or law, that it is unreasonable to expect adequate preparation for pretrial proceedings within the time limits established by this section.” 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(B)(ii). In this case, it would be unreasonable to expect adequate preparation for a preliminary hearing by March 12, 2021. The United States has diligently been working to collect, review, and process the massive amount of discovery generated from the January 6th riot cases. However, the case presents significant logistical complexity, and the United States is considering additional possible charges beyond those contained in the complaint. Specifically, this case involves hours of video footage; many different witnesses; and large amounts of records from various sources. Given the complexity of the case, the number of witnesses, the parties request an additional continuance so both parties can be prepared for the upcoming hearing. Further, the parties are in the process of negotiating, and the additional time that has been requested would facilitate possible pre-indictment resolution of these charges. The parties need at least another 90 days to prepare.

b. For the same reasons outlined above, the delay in filing the indictment is also justified, as it would be unreasonable to expect the return and filing of the indictment within the period specified in section 18 U.S.C. § 3161(b) (within 30 days) because the facts upon which the grand jury must base its determination are unusually complex. See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(B)(iii).

c. Finally, requiring a preliminary hearing as currently scheduled would deny counsel for the defendant and the undersigned attorney for the United States the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence.

18 U.S.C. § 3161 (h)(7)(B)(iv). Failure to grant the continuance of the preliminary hearing and the extension of the time for indictment would be likely result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161 (h)(7)(B)(i).

9. Mr. Wilson will not be prejudiced by the requested continuance and extension in that he is not in custody and agrees that the time between this motion and the newly set preliminary hearing and indictment return date should be excluded under the Speedy Trial Act.

10. The parties agree that the complaint will remain in full force and effect through the new initial appearance date scheduled by the Court. The parties agree that this stipulation and any order resulting therefrom shall not affect any previous order of pretrial detention or pretrial release.

11. The parties, therefore, respectfully request that the preliminary hearing and the date by which an information or an indictment must be filed be continued for 90 days. The parties agree that “the ends of justice served by the granting of such continuance [will] outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial,” 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), and the parties request an order to that end. The parties agree that pursuant to Rule 5.1(d) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 18 U.S.C. § 3161, the time from this filing and the new hearing date, shall be excluded in computing the date for speedy trial in this case.

Respectfully submitted,

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA	:
	:	CASE NO. 1:21-MJ-229-ZMF
v.	:
ZACHARY WILSON,	:
Defendant.	:

ORDER

The Court, having considered the representations of the United States and defense counsel regarding the potential plea, complexity of the case, the voluminous discovery, the ends of justice, and the need for a reasonable time necessary for effective preparation taking into account the exercise of due diligence, as well as the stipulations by defense counsel, and for good cause appearing, the Court makes the following findings:

1. On February 12, 2021, the defendant was charged in a criminal complaint with knowingly entering or remaining in any restricted Capitol building or grounds without lawful authority in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1752(a)(1) and (2).
2. The defendant was arrested in Western District of Missouri where he appeared for his initial appearance on February 19, 2021. Wilson was released with pretrial conditions.
3. Wilson has not yet appeared before this Court. This Court scheduled a preliminary hearing for March 12, 2021 (21 days from the date of Wilson’s initial appearance in Missouri).
4. This is the first request for extension of time.
5. Without a continuance or extension, preliminary hearings must be held within 21 days of the initial appearance if the defendant is not in custody. Fed. R. Crim. P. 5.1(c). Moreover, without an extension, an indictment or information must be filed within 30 days of the arrest. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(b).

6. Continuances of preliminary hearings may be granted with the defendant's consent upon a showing of good cause, taking into account the public interest in the prompt disposition of criminal cases. Fed. R. Crim. P. 5.1(d). Moreover, the Speedy Trial Act permits the Court to extend the 30 day period between arrest and indictment if it finds that it would be unreasonable to expect the return within 30-days or because the facts upon which the grand jury must base its determination is unusual or complex. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(B)(iii).

7. The parties submit that there is good cause to continue the preliminary hearing, to extend the time for filing the indictment, and to exclude the delay from the Speedy Trial computation on a number of bases.

8. The parties submit that the ends of justice served by a continuance and extension outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A). The government and counsel for the defendant have conferred and are continuing to communicate in an effort to resolve this matter. The current restrictions on counsel, particularly those impacting defense counsel's ability to communicate with his client and the pandemic, have slowed this process.

a. As part of the "ends of justice" analysis the Court considers, "[w]hether the case is so unusual or so complex, due to the number of defendants, the nature of the prosecution, or the existence of novel questions of fact or law, that it is unreasonable to expect adequate preparation for pretrial proceedings within the time limits established by this section." 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(B)(ii). In this case, it would be unreasonable to expect adequate preparation for a preliminary hearing by March 12, 2021. The United States has diligently been working to collect, review, and process the massive amount of discovery generated from the January 6th riot cases. However, the case presents significant logistical complexity, and the United States is considering additional possible charges beyond those contained in the complaint. Specifically, this case involves hours of video footage; many different witnesses; and large amounts of records from various sources. Given the complexity of the case, the number of witnesses, the parties request an additional continuance so both parties can be prepared for the upcoming hearing. Further, the parties are in the process of negotiating, and the additional time that has been requested would facilitate possible pre-indictment resolution of these charges. The parties need at least another 90 days to prepare.

b. For the same reasons outlined above, the delay in filing the indictment is also justified, as it would be unreasonable to expect the return and filing of the indictment within the period specified in section 18 U.S.C. § 3161(b) (within 30 days) because the facts upon which the grand jury must base its determination are unusually complex. See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(B)(iii).

c. Finally, requiring a preliminary hearing as currently scheduled would deny counsel for the defendant and the undersigned attorney for the United States the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161 (h)(7)(B)(iv). Failure to grant the continuance of the preliminary hearing and the extension of the time for indictment would be likely result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161 (h)(7)(B)(i).

9. Mr. Wilson will not be prejudiced by the requested continuance and extension in that he is not in custody and agrees that the time between this motion and the newly set preliminary hearing and indictment return date should be excluded under the Speedy Trial Act.

10. The parties agree that the complaint will remain in full force and effect through the new initial appearance date scheduled by the Court. The parties agree that this stipulation and any order resulting therefrom shall not affect any previous order of pretrial detention or pretrial release.

11. The parties request that the preliminary hearing and the date by which an information or an indictment must be filed be continued for 90 days. The parties agree that “the ends of justice served by the granting of such continuance [will] outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial,” 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), and the parties request an order to that end. The parties agree that pursuant to Rule 5.1(d) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 18 U.S.C. § 3161, the time from this filing and the new hearing date, shall be excluded in computing the date for speedy trial in this case.

Based on the foregoing findings, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. The preliminary hearing/initial appearance hearing currently scheduled for March 12, 2021 is VACATED.

2. Given the potential settlement, the voluminous discovery, the complex nature of the case, the ends of justice, and the need for a reasonable time necessary for effective preparation taking into account the exercise of due diligence, the Court find that the preliminary hearing date and the indictment return date be scheduled 90 days beyond the date the continuance motion was filed, with all time excluded under the Speedy Trial Act.

3. The ends of justice served by the granting of such a continuance and extension outweigh the best interests of the public and defendant in a Speedy Trial. 18 U.S.C. §

3161(h)(7)(A).

4. This case is unusual and complex due to the number of witnesses, volume of discovery, and the nature of the prosecution that it is unreasonable to expect adequate preparation for pretrial proceedings within the current time limit. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(B)(ii).

5. The ends of justice are also best served by granting an extension of the date for the indictment return at least 90 days beyond the date the continuance motion was filed. The Court specifically finds that it would be unreasonable to expect the indictment return within 30 days of arrest and that the facts upon which the grand jury must base its determination are unusual and complex. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(B)(iii).

6. Requiring a preliminary hearing and an indictment or information by March 12, 2021 would deny counsel for the defendant and the United States Attorney the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161 (h)(7)(B)(iv).

7. Failure to grant the continuance of the preliminary hearing and the extension of the time for indictment would be likely result in a miscarriage of justice and prevent a fair trial, preliminary hearing, and grand jury session. 18 U.S.C. § 3161 (h)(7)(B)(i).

8. The Court has carefully balanced the need for the public and the defendant to have a speedy trial against the need for a fair trial, preliminary hearing, grand jury session, and adequate preparation and finds that the scales tip in favor of granting a continuance and extension.

9. Accordingly, the time between the date the continuance motion was filed (March 8, 2021) and the new preliminary hearing date and indictment return due date of _____ is excluded from speedy trial computation for good cause.

DATED this _____ day of March, 2021.

BY THE COURT:

ZIA M. FARUQUI
United States Magistrate Judge
