STIPULATION OF THE PARTIES

The United States of America, by and through its attorney, the United States Attorney for the District of Columbia, and the defendant, Thomas Robertson, with the concurrence of his attorneys, agree and stipulate to the following:

Interstate Commerce

1. The events on the Grounds of the U.S. Capitol and in the U.S. Capitol building on January 6, 2021, obstructed, delayed, or adversely affected commerce or the movement of any article or commodity in commerce as those terms are used in Title 18, United States Code, Section 231(a)(3). The term “commerce” means commerce (A) between any State or the District of Columbia and any place outside thereof; (B) between points within any State or the District of Columbia, but through any place outside thereof; or (C) wholly within the District of Columbia.

2. Under the Constitution, Congress has the exclusive power to enact laws for the District of Columbia.

Respectfully submitted,

For the Government:
