ORDER

Upon consideration of the Unopposed Defendant’s Motion for Sentencing Via VTC, ECF No. 88, it is hereby

ORDERED that Unopposed Defendant’s Motion for Sentencing Via VTC, ECF No. 88, is DENIED.¹

SO ORDERED this 7th day of April, 2023.

 REGGIE B. WALTON
 United States District Court Judge

¹ In light of the fact that the CARES Act authorization for remote proceedings is set to expire on May 8, 2023, the Court is not authorized to conduct a sentencing via videoconference. However, to the extent the defendant wishes to have family members or other individuals speak on his behalf at sentencing or observe the sentencing, those individuals are permitted to do so via videoconference. Furthermore, should the CARES Act authorization for remote proceedings be extended, the Court will entertain a motion to conduct sentencing via videoconference, if any, at that time.
