Case No. 21-CR-312-JEB

UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR ADOPTION OF PREVIOUSLY ISSUED PROTECTIVE ORDER

The United States of America hereby respectfully moves the Court for the adoption of the previously issued Protective Order (ECF No. 84) governing the production of discovery by the party in the above-captioned case as to the newly appointed and undersigned defense counsel. The previous agreement was between the government and the recently withdrawn defense counsel. ECF Nos. 83-86, MINUTE ORDER (March 15, 2023). The United States and the newly appointed counsel for defendant (ECF Nos. 87-88) have reached an agreement to adopt the previous Protective Order. Therefore, the United States is authorized to represent to the Court that newly appointed counsel does not oppose this motion or the entry of MINUTE ORDER noticing the same. It is the parties' intent and recommendation that the defendant's prior acceptance of the Protective Order (ECF No. 84, p. 7) remains in effect.

Respectfully submitted,

MATTHEW M. GRAVES
United States Attorney
D.C. Bar No. 481052
