UNITED STATES’ REPORT AND POSITION REGARDING PUBLIC RELEASE OF PHOTO AND VIDEO EVIDENCE RE: THE OWENS DEFENDANTS

The United States has video and photo evidence available to the Court, electronically, in preparation for the plea hearings and sentencings of the defendants in the above referenced matter. The United States does object to any digital evidence, from Body Worn Camera, open source, or Grady Owens’ phone, being release to the public. The United States respectfully requests Capitol CCTV not be released to the public due to the sensitive nature of camera position and placement.

Respectfully submitted,

MATTHEW M. GRAVES
