MOTION TO CONTINUE AND EXCLUDE TIME UNDER THE SPEEDY TRIAL ACT by USA as to AARON JAMES MILEUR. (See docket entry 27 to view document.) (zltp)

10/03/2021

MINUTE ORDER as to AARON JAMES MILEUR: Upon consideration of the joint status report, Dkt. 27, it is hereby ORDERED that (1) the parties shall file a further joint status report on or before December 3, 2021; (2) the parties shall appear for a status conference on February 9, 2022, at 10:30 a.m., to occur via video teleconference; and (3) time shall be excluded under the ends of justice exception to the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. 3161, from October 4, 2021, to February 9, 2022. The parties represent that they "agree that additional time is needed for effective preparation of the case," "that a continuance is needed to allow for adequate preparation in this unusual and complex case," and "that a continuance" would "serve the interests of justice." Dkt. 27 at 3. Based on these representations, the volume of discovery, and the need to ensure Defendant has adequate time to evaluate the evidence and prepare his case, the Court finds that the ends of justice served by the continuance outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial under 18 U.S.C. 3161(h)(7)(A). Finally, the Court notes that the status conference is set as a video teleconference, and instructs the parties to use the same instructions for connecting remotely. Should the parties wish to proceed in-person instead, they shall notify the Deputy Clerk of Court on or before January 26, 2022. Signed by Judge Randolph D. Moss on 10/3/2021. 01/31/2022

MINUTE ORDER as to AARON JAMES MILEUR: Upon consideration of the joint motion to continue, Dkt. 32, it is hereby ORDERED that the motion is GRANTED. It is further ORDERED that (1) the video status conference currently scheduled for February 9, 2022, at 10:30 a.m., is hereby VACATED and RESCHEDULED for May 6, 2022, at 11:30 a.m.; and (2) time shall be excluded under the ends of justice exception to the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. 3161, from February 9, 2022, to May 6, 2022. The parties represent that, although they are "are diligently working to prepare this case and produce and review discovery," "additional time is needed for effective preparation of the case." Dkt. 32 at 1. The parties further represent "that a continuance is needed to allow for adequate preparation in this unusual and complex case and to serve the interests of justice," and jointly request that "the Court continue the status hearing for approximately 90 days and to exclude that period of time" under the Speedy Trial Act. Id. In light of these representations, and in particular the parties' ongoing efforts to engage in extensive and difficult discovery and to prepare the case, the Court finds that the ends of justice served by the continuance outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial under 18 U.S.C. 3161(h)(7)(A). To access the video status conference, the parties are to use the same Zoom log-in information previously provided by the Deputy Clerk of Court. Signed by Judge Randolph D. Moss on 1/31/2022. Unopposed MOTION to Continue Status Hearing by AARON JAMES MILEUR.

05/02/2022

MINUTE ORDER as to AARON JAMES MILEUR: Upon consideration of the joint motion to continue, Dkt. [35], it is hereby ORDERED that the motion is GRANTED. It is further ORDERED that (1) the video status conference currently scheduled for May 6, 2022, at 11:30 a.m., is hereby VACATED and RESCHEDULED for June 27, 2022, at 11:30 a.m.; and (2) time shall be excluded under the ends of justice exception to the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. 3161, from May 6, 2022, to June 27, 2022. The parties represent that, although they are "are diligently working to prepare this case and produce and review discovery," "additional time is needed for effective preparation of the case." Dkt. 35 at 1. The parties further represent "that a continuance is needed to allow for adequate preparation in this unusual and complex case and to serve the interests of justice," and that "defense counsel will be in trial before Judge Royce Lamberth," who "intends to sit on Fridays." Id. Accordingly, Defendant "requests that the Court continue the status hearing for approximately 30 to 45 days and to exclude that period of time from the computation of time within which trial must commence under the Speedy Trial Act," and the "government does not oppose this request." Id. In light of these representations, and in particular the parties' ongoing efforts to engage in extensive and difficult discovery and to prepare the case, the Court finds that the ends of justice served by the continuance outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial under 18 U.S.C. 3161(h)(7)(A). To access the video status conference, the parties are to use the same Zoom log-in information previously provided by the Deputy Clerk of Court. Signed by Judge Randolph D. Moss on 05/02/2022. MINUTE ORDER as to AARON JAMES MILEUR: Upon consideration of the unopposed motion to continue, Dkt. [38], it is hereby ORDERED that the motion is GRANTED. It is further ORDERED that (1) the parties shall appear by video for a status conference on September 13, 2022, at 9:30 a.m.; and (2) time shall be excluded under the ends of justice exception to the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. 3161, from June 17, 2022 to September 13, 2022. The parties represent that they "are diligently working to prepare this case and produce and review discovery," but that, "[d]espite these efforts," they "agree that additional time is needed for effective preparation of the case and that a continuance is needed to allow for adequate preparation in this unusual and complex case and to serve the interests of justice." Dkt. 38 at 1. The parties further represent that "defense counsel has had two trials over the past six weeks and has leave scheduled for most of August." Id. Defendant, accordingly, requests, and the government does not oppose, a 90-day continuance, and the exclusion of time under the Speedy Trial Act during that time. Given these representations, and in particular the ongoing production of discovery in this complex case, the Court finds that the ends of justice served by the continuance outweigh the best interest of the public and the Defendant in a speedy trial under 18 U.S.C. 3161(h)(7)(A). Signed by Judge Randolph D. Moss on 06/17/2022. (lcrdm3) (Text entry; no document attached.)

REPLY TO OPPOSITION to Motion by AARON JAMES MILEUR re 101 MOTION to Modify Conditions of Probation

04/27/2023

MINUTE ORDER as to AARON JAMES MILEUR (1): Before the Court is Defendant Mileur's motion to modify conditions of probation to "possess, at home, a firearm" to protect against "potential moose on his property." Dkt. 101 at 1. In response to Mr. Mileur's motion, which is opposed by both the government and the probation office, the probation office represents that the "firearm special condition" at issue here "allows the probation office to supervise the probationer without risk to safety caused by the possession of weapons." Dkt. 109 at 2. The probation office also indicates that "[a]ny firearm discharge would endanger the residents" of Mr. Mileur's neighborhood and that "[b]ased on research[]" and corroboration from the United States Probation Office for the District of Alaska. violent [moose] encounters are extremely infrequent." Id.; see also Dkt. 108 at 2-7 (describing the rarity of defensive moose shootings in Alaska). In light of the probation office's concern for officer safety and the very limited showing of need Mr. Mileur has presented in seeking this modification, it is hereby ORDERED that Defendant's motion, Dkt. 101, is DENIED. Signed by Judge Randolph D. Moss on 4/27/2023. (lcrdm3) (Text entry; no document attached.)
