07/30/2021

MINUTE ORDER as to HUNTER PALM: Upon consideration of the parties' joint motion to continue and to exclude time under the Speedy Trial Act, Dkt. 14, it is hereby ORDERED that the motion is GRANTED. The status conference set for August 4, 2021 is VACATED and RESCHEDULED for September 28, 2021, to take place by video at 3:30 p.m. It is further ORDERED that time is tolled under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161, from August 4, 2021 to September 28, 2021. The Court finds that tolling time serves the ends of justice for several reasons. The investigation and prosecution of the events at the United States Capitol "will likely be one of the largest in American history, both in terms of the number of defendants prosecuted and the nature and volume of the evidence." Dkt. 14-1 at 1-2. More than 550 individuals face charges, and additional charges are anticipated. Id. at 2. These defendants come from throughout the United States, and "a combined total of over thousands of search warrants have been executed in almost all fifty states and the District of Columbia." Id. "Multiple law enforcement agencies were involved in the response to the events at the Capitol. Given the large volume of potentially relevant material, the government represents that it needs additional time to ensure that it is complying with its obligations under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 16 and Local Criminal Rule 5.1(a), as well as the requirements of Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83, 87 (1963), and its progeny, and the Court accepts that representation. For these reasons, the Court concludes that the continuance will serve the interests of justice and that those interests outweigh the best interests of the public and Defendant in a speedy trial. The Court, accordingly, will toll time under the ends of justice exception to the Speedy Trial Act between August 4, 2021 and September 28, 2021. Signed by Judge Randolph D. Moss on 07/30/2021. 03/07/2022 MINUTE ORDER as to HUNTER PALM: Upon consideration of Defendant's consent status report, Dkt. [26], it is hereby ORDERED that the parties shall file a joint status report on or before June 6, 2022. It is further ORDERED that time is tolled under the ends of justice exception of the Speedy Trial Act from March 7, 2022, up to and including June 6, 2022. The Court finds that a continuance is necessary to permit Defendant to continue to review the extensive discovery in this case and to allow the parties time to confer regarding a resolution of the case short of trial. Accordingly, the Court concludes that the interests of justice served by a continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and Defendant in a speedy trial. See 18 U.S.C. 3161(h)(7).
