Shipley in Support for Admission to Practice Pro Hac Vice that he is "a member in good standing of all the jurisdictions in which [he is] admitted to practice." Specifically, it has come to the attention of the Court that according to the public records of the State Bar of California (available at <https://apps.calbar.ca.gov/attorney/Licensee/Detail/138051>), an individual appearing to be Mr. Shipley was admitted to that Bar in 1988 but is presently not eligible to practice law in that jurisdiction. Under Local Criminal Rule 44.1(d), an applicant for admission pro hac vice must make a declaration setting forth, among other things, "a list of all bars to which the attorney has been admitted." Accordingly, the Court requests an explanation of how the statement in Mr. Shipley's [26-1] Declaration can be reconciled with his apparent 1988 admission in California and subsequent ineligibility to practice. Signed by Chief Judge Beryl A. Howell on December 1, 2021. (lcbah3) (Text entry; no document attached.)
