FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA	:	NO. 22-cr-106
v.	:	18 U.S.C. § 231(a)(3)
SHAWN PRICE,	:
Defendant.	:

STATEMENT OF OFFENSE

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11, the United States of America, by and through its attorney, the United States Attorney for the District of Columbia, and the defendant, Shawn Price, with the concurrence of his attorney, agree and stipulate to the below factual basis for the defendant's guilty plea—that is, if this case were to proceed to trial, the parties stipulate that the United States could prove the below facts beyond a reasonable doubt:

The Attack at the U.S. Capitol on January 6, 2021

1. The U.S. Capitol, which is located at First Street, SE, in Washington, D.C., is secured 24 hours a day by U.S. Capitol Police. Restrictions around the U.S. Capitol include permanent and temporary security barriers and posts manned by U.S. Capitol Police. Only authorized people with appropriate identification are allowed access inside the U.S. Capitol.

2. On January 6, 2021, the exterior plaza of the U.S. Capitol was closed to members of the public.

3. On January 6, 2021, a joint session of the United States Congress convened at the United States Capitol, which is located at First Street, SE, in Washington, D.C. During the joint session, elected members of the United States House of Representatives and the United States Senate were meeting in separate chambers of the United States Capitol to certify the vote count of the Electoral College of the 2020 Presidential Election, which had taken place on November 3, 2020. The joint session began at approximately 1:00 p.m. Shortly thereafter, by approximately 1:30 p.m., the House and Senate adjourned to separate chambers to resolve a particular objection. Vice President Mike Pence was present and presiding, first in the joint session, and then in the Senate chamber.

4. As the proceedings continued in both the House and the Senate, and with Vice President Pence present and presiding over the Senate, a large crowd gathered outside the U.S. Capitol. As noted above, temporary and permanent barricades were in place around the exterior of the U.S. Capitol building, and U.S. Capitol Police were present and attempting to keep the crowd away from the Capitol building and the proceedings underway inside.

5. At approximately 2:00 p.m., certain individuals in the crowd forced their way through, up, and over the barricades, and officers of the U.S. Capitol Police, and the crowd advanced to the exterior façade of the building. The crowd was not lawfully authorized to enter or remain in the building and, prior to entering the building, no members of the crowd submitted to security screenings or weapons checks by U.S. Capitol Police Officers or other authorized security officials.

6. At such time, the certification proceedings were still underway and the exterior doors and windows of the U.S. Capitol were locked or otherwise secured. Members of the U.S. Capitol Police attempted to maintain order and keep the crowd from entering the Capitol; however, shortly after 2:00 p.m., individuals in the crowd forced entry into the U.S. Capitol, including by breaking windows and by assaulting members of law enforcement, as others in the crowd encouraged and assisted those acts. The riot resulted in substantial damage to the U.S. Capitol, requiring the expenditure of more than $2.7 million dollars for repairs.

7. Shortly thereafter, at approximately 2:20 p.m., members of the United States House of Representatives and United States Senate, including the President of the Senate, Vice President Pence, were instructed to—and did—evacuate the chambers. Accordingly, all proceedings of the United States Congress, including the joint session, were effectively suspended until shortly after 8:00 p.m. the same day. In light of the dangerous circumstances caused by the unlawful entry to the U.S. Capitol, including the danger posed by individuals who had entered the U.S. Capitol without any security screening or weapons check, Congressional proceedings could not resume until after every unauthorized occupant had left the U.S. Capitol, and the building had been confirmed secured. The proceedings resumed at approximately 8:00 p.m. after the building had been secured. Vice President Pence remained in the United States Capitol from the time he was evacuated from the Senate Chamber until the session resumed.

Price's Participation in the January 6, 2021, Capitol Riot

8. On January 6, 2021, the defendant Shawn Price was a Proud Boy member and served as Vice President of the local chapter of the Proud Boys. On that day, Price traveled to Washington, D.C. with 10-12 other members of his local chapter of the Proud Boys. Price and 4-5 of these associates entered the restricted portion of the U.S. Capitol grounds around 1 PM ET and arrived with a crowd of rioters at the lower west terrace.

9. Price filmed the scene on the lower west terrace in several videos that he uploaded to his Facebook account. At one point, law enforcement officers deployed chemical irritant and impact ordinance into the crowd. Price stated: “Look at what these fucking scumbags are doing!” and “Fuck you assholes! It’s go time guys! Fuck you!” and “You fucking coward, fuck you . . . fuck you!” At another point, while the crowd of rioters was ascending the northern stairs of the west terrace of the U.S. Capitol Building after breaching the line of law enforcement officers, he said: “Let’s go . . . let’s go . . . let’s go!” and “They thought we couldn’t do it, they wanted to hold us back, now look at this shit! More tear gas, going in the building. We’re going anyway, they’re going.”

10. While directly in front of the line of law enforcement officers that was blocking the entrance to the northern stairs of the west terrace of the U.S. Capitol Building—the line of officers that was breached later that afternoon—Price said: “I didn’t get this far . . . (inaudible) . . . let’s go! Traitors, traitors . . . .”

11. At some point while on the lower west terrace, Price put on a pair of goggles. Around 1:30-1:45 PM ET, Price and several of the Proud Boys associates with whom he had traveled pushed with a group of individuals into a line of law enforcement officers that was attempting to restrain the crowd and to hold crowd-control barriers in place. The group that Price pushed with included individuals who grabbed and pushed into the crowd-control barriers that the officers were using to restrain the crowd. Later that day, Price sent a Facebook message stating: “. . . i got really fucked up but me and 4 of my chapter brothers pushed that line and started it ourselves had to be done.”

12. The officers into which Price pushed were within approximately ten yards of the smaller, isolated line of officers in front of the northern stairs of the west terrace of the U.S. Capitol Building, but were unable to reach the isolated group of officers because of the crowd’s unruliness. As noted earlier, that isolated line of officers was later breached by the crowd, leading to rioters entering the U.S. Capitol Building through entrances on the west side of the building.

13. In pushing against the line of law enforcement officers, Price committed an act to obstruct, impede, and interfere with those law enforcement officers. Those officers were lawfully engaged in the lawful performance of their official duties. Price's act of obstruction also occurred incident to and during the commission of a civil disorder, and that civil disorder obstructed, delayed, and adversely affected commerce and the conduct and performance of a federally protected function. Price also engaged in disorderly and disruptive conduct in a restricted building or grounds as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1752(c), and did so at a time when, or so that, such conduct in fact impeded or disrupted the orderly conduct of government business or official functions.

14. Later that day, Price was told by another Facebook user that they had seen that "they stormed the capital [sic]," to which Price replied: "I led the storm!" Price also claimed that he "g[ot] inside" after "getting tear gassed pepper sprayed and shot with rubber bullets." Price also messaged another Facebook user at 4:12 PM ET on January 6, 2021: "We did it bro we took it the fuck ober [sic] . . . Over . . . We are inside the capitol now." Price later told another user, at 6:11 PM EST: "We took it buddy . . . Me and 3 others stormed it and no one else would until we [sic] started then everyone [sic] stormed."

Respectfully submitted,
